REVISED EDITION

AUTHORIZED FOR USE IN THE CONGREGATIONS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF ENGLAND BY THE SYNOD OF 1907.

PREFACE.

THE previous edition of 'Church Praise' was authorized for use in the Presbyterian Church of England in 1882, and at the time was generally acknowledged to be one of the best hymn-books of its class. After the lapse of over twenty years a desire arose for its revision, and the Synod of 1903 appointed a Committee, under the Convenership of the Rev. W. Rigby Murray, who had presided over the production of the book, to consider the best method of adapting it to present-day needs. The recommendations of that Committee were approved by the Church, and have been constantly borne in mind by the Committee which, since the year 1905, has been at work in the preparation of this book. For much of the preliminary work the Rev. R. E. Welsh, D.D., now in Canada, was responsible, as Secretary and then as Convener of Committee. Suggestions and criticisms sent in from many quarters of the Church have also been of much service. The result has been a considerable addition to the bulk of the volume, with a very thorough revision and rearrangement of its contents.

The author's name, wherever known, is placed at the foot of every hymn. Care has been taken to verify the text and as far as possible to give the original. Where deviation from the original has been found advisable, this is indicated by the use of alt. after the name; and sel. is used in the numerous cases in which the original is too long for congregational use or where unsuitable verses have been omitted.

A selection of Prose Psalms and congregational Anthems has been included; but it was found impossible to give either a complete Prose Psalter or a very large and varied selection of Anthems without making the book too costly, and too bulky for convenient handling. It is believed that the selection of Scripture Sentences, with other new features introduced in Section XVI., will be welcomed by an increasing number of congregations. No subject-index has been given, but cross-references to suitable hymns will be found at the end of each section. Consecutive numberin has been adopted throughout the book in order to facilitate reference.

The Drafting Committee has had the invaluable help of two competent musical editors,—Dr. F. N. Abernethy (Mus.D. Oxon.), of St. John's, Forest Hill, and Dr. J. E. Borland (Mus.D. Oxon.), of St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate, formerly of Park Church, Highbury—to whose skill and thoroughness they are greatly indebted. On their advice the Committee has adopted for the Chant Sections in the musical editions the system of pointing by musical notes as used in the 'St. Mary Abbott's Psalter' and the 'Cathedral Paragraph Psalter.' In certain preliminary matters and in other ways the Committee has also had assistance from Mr. F. G. Edwards, formerly of St. John's Wood.

The list of acknowledgments will be found in the following pages. Special thanks are due to the Proprietors of 'Hymns Ancient and Modern' for permission to use many of their tunes for a nominal fee, and for free permission to use again those which had appeared in the former edition. Every effort has been made to trace owners of copyright words and music, but in some cases the effort has failed. The Committee asks pardon for any oversight, which will gladly be rectified in a future edition. The General Editor desires to acknowledge the kind help of many friends in tracing ownership.

The Committee hopes that this revision will increase the value, as an aid to congregational worship, of a book which has long been used and loved by our Church; it cannot end its work better than with the words which closed the Preface to the first edition:—

'Praise ye the Lord: both young men and maidens; old men and children.'

In the name of the Committee,

J. OSWALD DYKES,
Convener,

J. M. E. ROSS,
General Editor.

NOTE BY MUSICAL EDITORS.

The musical editors desire to acknowledge their obligation to the exhaustive researches of Messrs. W. Cowan, F. G. Edwards, J. R. Griffiths, J. T. Lightwood, and J. Love into the sources of tunes. Of these they have fully availed themselves. Their thanks are also cordially given to Messrs. W. E. Bartlett, C. F. Carter, E. P. Goodman, and W. Jeater for help in correcting the music proofs. They likewise desire to express their gratification at being connected with a work the first edition of which has been so honourably identified with the name of Dr. E. J. Hopkins. The musical editors have marked some hymns for unison or antiphonal singing: these markings are to be regarded as suggestions only.

NOTES ON THE POINTING OF WORDS FOR CHANTING.

1. The small notes placed over the syllables which precede the first bar-line are of the aggregate value of one Semibreve, and are to be sung in approximately strict time. The first note takes the place of the accent, or heavy syllable, used in some books; the other notes are intended to guard against the hurrying of the syllables between that accent and the bar-line. When three minims, or three crotchets preceded by a minim, stand together, they are to be sung smoothly as a triplet. It has not been thought necessary to encumber the text with the figure 3 in such cases.

2. No pauses are to be made at commas. When the 'Recitation' is long enough to require it, or when special emphasis is called for, an asterisk (*) is used to indicate the break.

The copyright of the tune 'Irene' (436) has been acquired for the Presbyterian Church of England from the Executors of the late Rev. C. C. Scholefield.

I.—The Holy Trinity.

Nicæa. 1 J. B. Dykes.

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty, Which was and Which is and Which is to come.

p c HOLY, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
p c Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
f God in Three Persons, blessèd Trinity!

p c 2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore Thee, Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea,
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

p 3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide Thee, Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
mf Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee, Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

p c 4 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
ff All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea;
p c Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
f God in Three Persons, blessèd Trinity! AMEN.

R. Heber.

Regent Square. 2 H. SMART.

In His temple every thing saith, Glory.

mf GLORY be to God the Father,
Glory be to God the Son,
Glory be to God the Spirit, Great Jehovah, Three in One!
f Glory, glory,
While eternal ages run!

mf 2 Glory be to Him Who loved us, Washed us from each spot and stain!
Glory be to Him Who bought us,
Made us kings with Him to reign!
f Glory, glory
To the Lamb That once was slain!

mf 3 Glory to the King of angels, Glory to the Church's King,
Glory to the King of nations!
Heaven and earth, your praises bring;
f Glory, glory
To the King of Glory bring!

4 'Glory, blessing, praise eternal!'
Thus the choir of angels sings;
'Honour, riches, power, dominion!'
Thus its praise creation brings;
ff Glory, glory,
Glory to the King of kings! AMEN.

H. Bonar.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost.

mf FATHER of heaven, Whose love profound
A ransom for our souls hath found,
p c Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
To us Thy pardoning love extend.

mf 2 Almighty Son, Incarnate Word,
Our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord,
p c Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
To us Thy saving grace extend.

mf 3 Eternal Spirit, by Whose breath
The soul is raised from sin and death,
p c Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
To us Thy quickening power extend.

mf 4 Jehovah—Father, Spirit, Son—Mysterious Godhead, Three in One,
p c Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
Grace, pardon, life to us extend. AMEN.

Tersanctus. 4 E. Silas.

By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

Who shall not fear Thee, O Lord, and glorify Thy Name? for Thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before Thee.

p HOLY, holy, holy Lord [earth
God of hosts! when heaven and Out of darkness, at Thy word, Issued into glorious birth, c All Thy works before Thee stood,
And Thine eye beheld them good, While they sang with sweet accord,
d 'Holy, holy, holy Lord!'

mf 2 Holy, holy, holy! Thee,
One Jehovah evermore, Father, Son, and Spirit, we,
p Dust and ashes, would adore;
Lightly by the world esteemed,
c From that world by Thee redeemed,
Sing we here with glad accord,
'Holy, holy, holy Lord!'

mf 3 'Holy, holy, holy!' all Heaven's triumphant choir shall sing
When the ransomed nations fall
At the footstool of their King;
f Then shall saints and seraphim,
Hearts and voices, swell one hymn
Round the throne with full accord,
'Holy, holy, holy Lord!' Amen.

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory.

mf ROUND the Lord in glory seated,
Cherubim and seraphim
Filled His temple, and repeated
Each to each the alternate hymn:
f 'Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fulness stored;
Unto Thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!'

2 Heaven is still with glory ringing;
Earth takes up the angels' cry,
mf Holy, holy, holy,' singing,
'Lord of hosts, the Lord most high!
f Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fulness stored;
Unto Thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!'

mf 3 With His seraph train before Him,
With His holy Church below,
Thus conspire we to adore Him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow:
f 'Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fulness stored;
Unto Thee be glory given,
rall Holy, holy, holy Lord!' AMEN.

R. Mant, sel.

Croft's 148th. 6 W. Croft.

Of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things: to Whom be glory for ever. Amen.

mf WE give immortal praise
To God the Father's love,
For all our comforts here,
And better hopes above;
He sent His own Eternal Son,
p To die for sins that man had done.

mf 2 To God the Son belongs Immortal glory too,
p Who bought us with His blood
From everlasting woe;
c And now He lives, and now He reigns,
And sees the fruit of all His pains.

mf 3 To God the Spirit's name Immortal worship give,
Whose new-creating power
Makes the dead sinner live;
c His work completes the great design,
And fills the soul with joy divine.

mf 4 Almighty God, to Thee
Be endless honours done,
The undivided Three
And the mysterious One;
c Where reason fails with all her powers,
f There faith prevails and love adores. Amen.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits.

mf PRAISE ye Jehovah, praise the Lord most holy,
Who cheers the contrite, girds with strength the weak;
Praise Him Who will with glory crown the lowly,
And with salvation beautify the meek.

2 Praise ye Jehovah for His lovingkindness,
And all the tender mercy He hath shown;
p Praise Him Who pardons all our sin and blindness, c And calls us sons, and takes us for His own.

mf 3 Praise ye Jehovah, Source of all our blessing;
Before His gifts earth's richest boons are dim; Resting in Him, His peace and joy possessing,
All things are ours, for we have all in Him.

f 4 Praise ye the Father, God the Lord, Who gave us,
With full and perfect love, His only Son;
Praise ye the Son, Who died Himself to save us;
Praise ye the Spirit: praise the Three in One. AMEN.

O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good: for His mercy endureth for ever.

mf LET us with a gladsome mind
Praise the Lord, for He is kind:
f For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

mf 2 Let us sound His name abroad,
For of gods He is the God:
f For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

mf 3 He, with all-commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light:
f For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

mf 4 All things living He doth feed;
His full hand supplies their need:
f For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

mf 5 He His chosen race did bless
In the wasteful wilderness:
f For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

p 6 He hath with a piteous eye Looked upon our misery:
mf For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

7 Let us then with gladsome mind
Praise the Lord, for He is kind:

[May be sung to 'Melcombe,' No. 252.]

Sing unto Him, sing praises unto Him: talk ye of all His marvellous works.

mf GIVE to our God immortal praise;
Mercy and truth are all His ways:
c Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat His mercies in your song.

mf 2 Give to the Lord of lords renown;
The King of kings with glory crown:
c His mercies ever shall endure
When lords and kings are known no more.

mf 3 He built the earth, He spread the sky,
And fixed the starry lights on high:
c Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat His mercies in your song.

mf 4 He fills the sun with morning light,
He bids the moon direct the night:
c His mercies ever shall endure
When sun and moon shall shine no more.

p 5 He sent His Son with power to save From guilt and darkness and the grave:
c Wonders of grace to God belong;

Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

mf O GOD, the Rock of Ages,
Who evermore hast been,
What time the tempest rages,
Our dwelling-place serene,— Before Thy first creations,
O Lord, the same as now,
To endless generations
The Everlasting Thou!

p 2 Our years are like the shadows

An unremaining glory
Of things that soon are old.

mf 3 O Thou Who canst not slumber, Whose light grows never pale,
Teach us aright to number
Our years before they fail.
On us Thy mercy lighten,
On us Thy goodness rest,

An endless flow of pleasures,
An ocean without shore. Amen.

Leoni. 17 Old Hebrew Melody (?).

The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob . . . . . This is My Name for ever, and this is My Memorial unto all generations.

mf THE God of Abraham praise,
Who reigns enthroned above,
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love.
Jehovah! Great I AM,
By earth and heaven confessed!
p I bow and bless the sacred Name For ever blest.

mf 2 The God of Abraham praise,
At Whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At His right hand.
I all on earth forsake,
Its wisdom, fame, and power,
And Him my only portion make,
My shield and tower.

3 He by Himself hath sworn;
I on His oath depend:
I shall, on eagles' wings upborne,
To heaven ascend;
I shall behold His face,
I shall His power adore,
And sing the wonders of His grace
For evermore.

4 There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness;
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of Peace
On Zion's sacred height
His kingdom still maintains,
And glorious with His saints in light
For ever reigns.

f 5 The God Who reigns on high
The great archangels sing,
p c And 'Holy, holy, holy,' cry,
'Almighty King!
Who was and is the same,
And evermore shall be,
f Jehovah! Father! Great I AM!
We worship Thee.'

ff 6 The whole triumphant host Give thanks to God on high;
'Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!'
They ever cry.
Hail, Abraham's God, and mine!
I join the heavenly lays;
All might and majesty are Thine,
And endless praise. AMEN.

Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee.

mf WHEN all Thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.

2 Unnumbered comforts to my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From Whom those comforts flowed.

p 3 When worn with sickness, oft hast Thou
With health renewed my face,
And, when in sins and sorrows sunk,
c Revived my soul with grace.

mf 4 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
That tastes those gifts with joy.

5 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue,
And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.

6 When nature fails, and day and night
Divide Thy works no more,
My ever-grateful heart, O Lord,
Thy mercy shall adore.

And with glad songs resounding wake again
An endless Alleluia.

4 In blissful answering strains ye thus rejoice
To render to the Lord with thankful voice
An endless Alleluia.

f 5 Ye who have gained at length your palms in bliss, Victorious ones, your chant shall still be this,
An endless Alleluia.

6 There, in one grand acclaim, for ever ring
The strains which tell the honour of your King,
An endless Alleluia.

p 7 This is the rest for weary ones brought back,
c This is the food and drink which none shall lack,

Let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation. Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving.

mf SING to the Lord a joyful song;
Lift up your hearts, your voices
To us His gracious gifts belong, [raise;
To Him our songs of love and praise.

f For He is Lord of heaven and earth,
Whom angels serve and saints adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
To Whom be praise for evermore.

mf 2 For life and love, for rest and food,
For daily help and nightly care,
Sing to the Lord, for He is good,
And praise His name, for it is fair.

3 For strength to those who on Him wait
His truth to prove, His will to do,
f Praise ye our God, for He is great,
Trust in His name, for it is true.

4 For joys untold, that from above
Cheer those who love His sweet employ,
Sing to our God, for He is love,
Exalt His name, for it is joy.

His Name shall be called . . . . Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and of peace there shall be no end.

f IT came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
mf 'Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King!'
p The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

mf 2 Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
c And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessèd angels sing.

p 3 But with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The song of love they bring;
pp O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing!

mf 4 And ye, beneath life's crushing load Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way

And hear the angels sing!

mf 5 For, lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold,

Its ancient splendours fling,
f And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing. AMEN.

Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, Which is Christ the Lord.

f CHRISTIANS, awake! salute the happy morn
Whereon the Saviour of mankind was born;
Rise to adore the mystery of love,
Which hosts of angels chanted from above;
With them the joyful tidings first begun
Of God Incarnate and the Virgin's Son.

2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice,—'Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth;
This day hath God fulfilled His promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord.'

3 He spake; and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire;
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with hallelujahs rang;
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
d Peace upon earth, and unto men good will.

mf 4 O may we keep and ponder in our mind
God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind;

Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
Eternal praise to heaven's Almighty King. AMEN.

St. Bernard. 52 Tochter Sion, 1741.
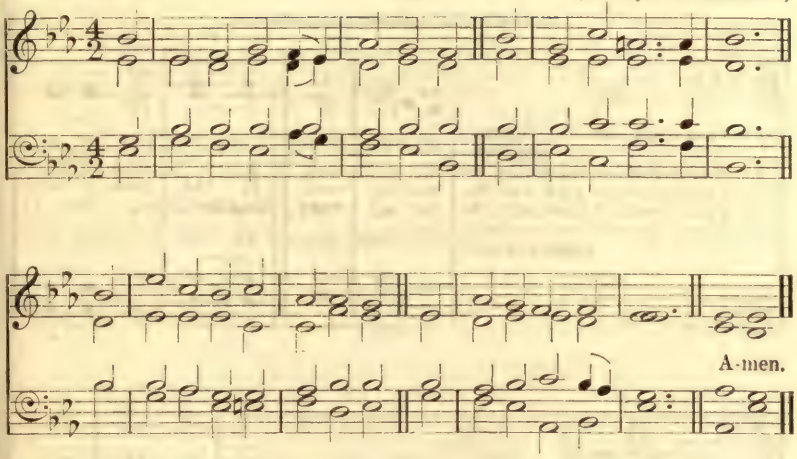
(Arr. by J. RICHARDSON?)



Who, when He was reviled, reviled not again; when He suffered, He threatened not.

mf WHAT grace, O Lord, and beauty shone Around Thy steps below!
What patient love was seen in all Thy life and death of woe!

p 2 For ever on Thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word Escaped Thy silent tongue.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile, Thy friends unfaithful prove;
c Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.

mf 4 O give us hearts to love like Thee,
Like Thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins than all
The wrongs that we receive.

5 One with Thyself, may every eye
In us, Thy brethren, see
That gentleness and grace which spring
From union, Lord, with Thee. AMEN.

St. Ælfred. 54 J. B. Dykes.

He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still.

mf FIERCE raged the tempest o'er the deep, Watch did Thine anxious servants keep,
p But Thou wast wrapped in guileless sleep, Calm and still.

mf 2 'Save, Lord, we perish,' was their cry,
c 'O save us in our agony!'
mf Thy word above the storm rose high,

Carey. 55 H. Carey.

He that saith he abideth in Him ought himself also so to walk, even as He walked.

mf MY dear Redeemer and my Lord,
I read my duty in Thy Word;
But in Thy life the law appears Drawn out in living characters.

2 Such was Thy truth, and such Thy zeal,
Such deference to Thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

p 3 Cold mountains and the midnight air Witnessed the fervour of Thy prayer;
The desert Thy temptations knew,

St. Matthew. 56 W. CROFT.

They . . . brought unto Him all that were diseased; and besought Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

mf THINE arm, O Lord, in days of old,
Was strong to heal and save;
It triumphed o'er disease and death,
O'er darkness and the grave.
To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb,
The palsied, and the lame,
The leper with his tainted life,
The sick with fevered frame.

c 2 And lo! Thy touch brought life and health, Gave speech and strength and sight;
f And youth renewed and frenzy calmed Owned Thee, the Lord of light.

p And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
Almighty as of yore,
In crowded street, by restless couch,
As by Gennesareth's shore.

mf 3 Be Thou our great Deliverer still,
Thou Lord of life and death:
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless,
With Thine almighty breath;
To hands that work and eyes that see Give wisdom's heavenly lore,
c That whole and sick, and weak and strong,
f May praise Thee evermore. AMEN.

Learn of Me ; for I am meek and lowly in heart.

mf WHEN the Lord of Love was here,
Happy hearts to Him were dear,
p Though His heart was sad ;
Worn and lonely for our sake, Yet He turned aside to make c All the weary glad.

p 2 Meek and lowly were His ways ;
From His loving grew His praise,
From His giving, prayer :
All the outcasts thronged to hear ;
All the sorrowful drew near
To enjoy His care.

mf 3 When He walked the fields, He drew
From the flowers, and birds, and dew,
Parables of God ;
For within His heart of love
All the soul of man did move,
God had His abode.

mp 4 Lord, be ours Thy power to keep
In the very heart of grief,
And in trial, love ;
In our meekness to be wise,
And through sorrow to arise
To our God above.

mf 5 Fill us with Thy deep desire
All the sinful to inspire
With the Father's life ;
Free us from the cares that press
On the heart of worldliness,
From the fret and strife.

6 And, when in the fields and woods
We are filled with Nature's moods,
May the grace be given
With Thy faithful heart to say,
'All I see and feel to-day
Is my Father's heaven.' AMEN.

When He Who conquered sin and death
Your flowery slopes and summits trod,
And grew in grace with man and God?

Transfiguration. 59

J. Barnby.

Copyright, 1896, by Novello, Ewer and Co.

Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here

mf LORD, it is good for us to be High on the mountain here with Thee.
Where stand revealed to mortal gaze
The great old saints of other days,
Who once received, on Horeb's height,
The eternal laws of truth and right,
p Or caught the still small whisper, higher Than storm, than earthquake, or than fire.

mf 2 Lord, it is good for us to be
With Thee and with Thy faithful three:
Here, where the apostle's heart of rock
Is nerved against temptation's shock;
Here, where the son of thunder learns
The thought that breathes, the word that burns;
Here, where on eagles' wings we move
With him whose last, best creed is love.

mp 3 Lord, it is good for us to be Entranced, enwrapt, alone with Thee;
Watching the glistening raiment glow,
Whiter than Hermon's whitest snow
The human lineaments that shine
Irradiant with a light divine;
c Till we too change from grace to grace,
Gazing on that transfigured face.

mf 4 Lord, it is good for us to be Here on the holy mount with Thee,
When darkling in the depths of night,
When dazzled with excess of light,
We bow before the heavenly voice
That bids bewildered souls rejoice,
Though love wax cold and faith be dim,
f 'This is My Son! O hear ye Him!' AMEN.

Credo. 60 J. STAINER.

Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

mp WE saw Thee not when Thou didst come
To this poor world of sin and death,
Nor e'er beheld Thy cottage home
In that despisèd Nazareth:
mf But we believe Thy footsteps trod
Its streets and plains, Thou Son of God.

p 2 We did not see Thee lifted high Amid that wild and savage crew,
Nor heard Thy meek, imploring cry,
'Forgive, they know not what they do':
mp Yet we believe the deed was done
Which shook the earth, and veiled the sun.

3 We stood not by the empty tomb
Where late Thy sacred body lay,
Nor sat within that upper room,
Nor met Thee in the open way:
mf But we believe that angels said,
'Why seek the living with the dead?'

4 We did not mark the chosen few,
When Thou didst through the clouds ascend,
First lift to heaven their wondering view,
Then to the earth all prostrate bend:
Yet we believe that mortal eyes
Beheld that journey to the skies.

5 And now that Thou dost reign on high,
And thence Thy waiting people bless,
No ray of glory from the sky
Doth shine upon our wilderness:
f But we believe Thy faithful word,
And trust in our redeeming Lord. AMEN.

Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that ye should follow His steps.

mp GO to dark Gethsemane, Ye that feel the tempter's power;
p Your Redeemer's conflict see;
Watch with Him one bitter hour;
Turn not from His griefs away:
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

mp 2 Follow to the judgment hall;
View the Lord of life arraigned.
p O the wormwood and the gall!
O the pangs His soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss:
Learn of Him to bear the cross.

mp 3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at His feet,
Mark that miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete.
pp 'It is finished!'—hear the cry:
p Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

mp 4 Early hasten to the tomb
Where they laid His breathless clay;
All is solitude and gloom;
Who hath taken Him away?

Saviour, teach us so to rise. AMEN.

Behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow.

f O COME and mourn with me awhile!
O come ye to the Saviour's side;
O come, together let us mourn:
pp Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

p 2 Have we no tears to shed for Him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah! look how patiently He hangs:
pp Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

mp 3 Seven times He spoke, seven words of love;
And all three hours His silence cried
For mercy on the souls of men:
pp Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

mp 4 O break, O break, hard heart of mine!
Thy weak self-love and guilty pride
His Pilate and His Judas were:
pp Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

p 5 A broken heart, a fount of tears,
Ask, and they will not be denied;
A broken heart love's cradle is:
pp Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

Who His own self bare our sins in His own body on the tree.

p O CHRIST, what burdens bowed Thy head!
Our load was laid on Thee;
Thou stoodest in the sinner's stead,
Didst bear all ill for me:
A victim led, Thy blood was shed;
Now there's no load for me.

2 The tempest's awful voice was heard;
pp O Christ, it broke on Thee!
mp Thy open bosom was my ward;
It braved the storm for me:
p Thy form was scarred, Thy visage marred;
c Now cloudless peace for me.

p 3 The Holy One did hide His face;
O Christ, 'twas hid from Thee!
Dumb darkness wrapped Thy soul a space,
The darkness due to me:
c But now that face of radiant grace Shines forth in light on me.

mp 4 For me, Lord Jesus, Thou hast died,
And I have died in Thee;
mf Thou 'rt risen; my bands are all untied.
And now Thou liv'st in me:
When purified, made white, and tried,

Passion Chorale. 65 H. L. Hassler.

When they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon His head.

O Haupt voll Blut und Wunden.

mp O SACRED Head, now wounded,
With grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded With thorns, Thine only crown!
p How art Thou pale with anguish,
With sore abuse and scorn!
How does that visage languish
Which once was bright as morn!

mf 2 O Lord of life and glory,
What bliss till now was Thine!
I read the wondrous story;
I joy to call Thee mine.
What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners' gain;
p Mine, mine was the transgression,
But Thine the deadly pain.

mf 3 What language shall I borrow
To thank Thee, heavenly Friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
O make me Thine for ever,
And, should I fainting be,
c Lord, let me never, never Outlive my love to Thee!

mp 4 Be near me when I'm dying:
O show Thy cross to me;
And, for my succour flying,
Come, Lord, and set me free;

From Jesus shall not move;
For he who dies believing Dies safely through Thy love. Amen.

Look unto Me, and be ye saved.

mf SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross we spend,
Life and health and peace possessing
From the sinner's dying Friend.

p 2 Here we rest, in wonder viewing
All our sins on Jesus laid;

From the sacrifice He made.

mf 3 Here we find the dawn of heaven,
While upon the cross we gaze,
See our trespasses forgiven,

God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

mf WE sing the praise of Him Who died,
Of Him Who died upon the cross;
The sinner's hope let men deride,
For this we count the world but loss.

mp 2 Inscribed upon the cross we see,
In shining letters, 'God is love';
He bears our sins upon the tree;
He brings us mercy from above.

3 The cross! it takes our guilt away;
It holds the fainting spirit up;
It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
And sweetens every bitter cup;

mf 4 It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes its terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light;

5 The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
f The sinner's refuge here below,
The angel's theme in heaven above. AMEN.

The agony and conflict sore pp Of Him Who all our suffering bore.

The Lord, by Whom the worlds were made,
The Saviour of mankind, is laid.

I have finished the work which Thou gavest Me to do.

mf O PERFECT life of love!
All, all is finished now,
All that He left His throne above
To do for us below.

2 No work is left undone
Of all the Father willed;
His toil, His sorrows, one by one,
The Scripture have fulfilled.

3 No pain that we can share
But He has felt its smart;
All forms of human grief and care
Have pierced that tender heart.

p 4 And on His thorn-crowned head,
And on His sinless soul,
Our sins in all their guilt were laid,
That He might make us whole.

I cling by faith to Thee.

mf 6 In every time of need,
Before the judgment throne,

St. Mary. 73 Archdeacon Prys' Welsh Psalter, 1621.

He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities.

mf THE Saviour comes! no outward pomp Bespeaks His presence nigh;
No earthly beauty shines in Him
To draw the carnal eye.

2 Fair as a beauteous tender flower
Amidst the desert grows,
So, slighted by a rebel race,
The heavenly Saviour rose.

p 3 Rejected and despised of men,
Behold a Man of woe!
Grief was His close companion still Through all His life below.

4 Yet all the griefs He felt were ours;
Ours were the woes He bore;
Pangs, not His own, His spotless soul
With bitter anguish tore.

From sin's polluted stain;

Revived our souls again. AMEN.

Stabat Mater dolorosa.

mp NEAR the cross was Mary weeping,
There her mournful station keeping,
Gazing on her dying Son,
p There with speechless grief oppressèd,
Anguish-stricken, and distressèd;
Through her soul the sword had gone.

mp 2 Who upon that Sufferer gazing, Bowed in sorrow so amazing,
Would not with His mother mourn?
p 'Twas our sins brought Him from heaven;
These the cruel nails had driven;
All His griefs for us were borne.

mp 3 When no eye its pity gave us,
When there was no arm to save us,
He His love and power displayed;
By His stripes He wrought our healing;
By His death, our life revealing,
He for us the ransom paid.

Here earth's bitter things grow sweet.

p 2 Gazing thus, our sin we see,
Learn Thy love while gazing thus,— Sin, which laid the cross on Thee,
Love, which bore the cross for us.

mf 3 Here we learn to serve and give,
And, obedient, self deny;
Here we gather love to live;
Here we gather faith to die.

4 Symbols of our liberty
And our service here unite;
Captives by Thy cross set free,
Soldiers of Thy cross we fight.

5 Pressing onward as we can,
Still to this our hearts shall tend,— Where our earliest hopes began,
There our last aspirings end;

6 Till, amid the hosts of light,
We, in Thee redeemed, complete,
f Through Thy cross made pure and white,
Cast our crowns before Thy feet. AMEN.

4.—HIS RESURRECTION.

Lux Eoi. 80 ARTHUR SULLIVAN.

By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

Now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of them that are asleep.

f HALLELUJAH! hallelujah!
Hearts to heaven and voices raise; mf
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise;
He Who on the cross a victim
For the world's salvation bled, c Jesus Christ, the King of Glory,
Now is risen from the dead.

f 2 Christ is risen, Christ the first-fruits
Of the holy harvest-field,
Which will all its full abundance
At His second coming yield;
Then the golden ears of harvest
Will their heads before Him wave,
Ripened by His glorious sunshine
From the furrows of the grave.

3 Christ is risen; we are risen;
Shed upon us heavenly grace,
Rain and dew, and gleams of glory
From the brightness of Thy face,
That we, Lord, with hearts in heaven,
Here on earth may fruitful be,
And by angel hands be gathered,
And be ever safe with Thee.

f 4 Hallelujah! hallelujah!
Glory be to God on high:
To the Father, and the Saviour,
Who has gained the victory;
Glory to the Holy Spirit,
Fount of love and sanctity:
ff Hallelujah! Hallelujah
To the Triune Majesty! AMEN.

C. Wordsworth.

Ascension. 81 E. J. Hopkins.

Jesus Christ, Who is the faithful Witness, the First-born of the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth.

Christus ist erstanden.

f CHRIST the Lord is risen again,
Hallelujah!
Christ hath broken every chain;
Hallelujah!
Hark! angelic voices cry,
Hallelujah!
Singing evermore on high,
'Hallelujah!'

mf 2 He Who gave for us His life,
Who for us endured the strife,
Is our Paschal Lamb to-day:
We too sing for joy, and say,
f 'Hallelujah!'

p 3 He Who bore all pain and loss, Comfortless, upon the cross,
mf Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us and hears our cry,
f 'Hallelujah!'

p 4 He Who slumbered in the grave
mf Is exalted now to save;
f Now through Christendom it rings
That the Lamb is King of kings.
Hallelujah!

mf 5 Now He bids us tell abroad
How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven,
How we too may enter heaven.
f Hallelujah!

6 Thou, our Paschal Lamb indeed,
Christ, to-day Thy people feed;
Take our sins and guilt away,
c That we all may sing for aye,
ff 'Hallelujah!' AMEN.

Easter Hymn. 82 Lyra Davidica, 1708.

Jesus our Lord, ... Who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

Surrexit Christus hodie.

f JESUS CHRIST is risen to-day,
Hallelujah!
Our triumphant holy day,
Hallelujah!
mf Who did once, upon the cross,
Hallelujah!
Suffer to redeem our loss.
Hallelujah!

f 2 Hymns of praise, then, let us sing Unto Christ our heavenly King, p Who endured the cross and grave,
c Sinners to redeem and save.

mf 3 But the pains which He endured
c Our salvation have procured;
f Now above the sky He's King,
Where the angels ever sing.

ff 4 Sing we to our God above
Praise eternal as His love;
Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

AMEN.

Death is swallowed up in victory.

f 'CHRIST the Lord is risen to-day,' Sons of men and angels say;
Raise your joys and triumphs high;
Sing, ye heavens; and, earth, reply.
Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won;
Lo! our Sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo! He sets in blood no more.

2 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
Christ has burst the gates of hell;
Death in vain forbids His rise;
Christ has opened paradise.

Lives again our glorious King;
Where, O death, is now thy sting?
Once He died, our souls to save;
Where thy victory, O grave?

mf 3 Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head;
Made like Him, like Him we rise;
c Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.
ff Hail, the Lord of earth and heaven!
Praise to Thee by both be given;
Thee we greet triumphant now;
Hail, the Resurrection Thou! Amen.

Whom God raised up, having loosed the pangs of death: because it was not possible that He should be holden of it.

f BLEST morning, whose first dawning rays Beheld the Son of God
Arise triumphant from the grave,
And leave His dark abode!

p 2 Wrapped in the silence of the tomb
The great Redeemer lay, c Till the revolving skies had brought
The third, the appointed day.

Behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail!

Ἀναστάσεως ἡμέρα.

f THE day of resurrection!
Earth, tell it out abroad;
The passover of gladness,
The passover of God!
From death to life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over
With hymns of victory.

mf 2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection light,
And, listening to His accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
c His own 'All hail!' and, hearing,
May raise the victor strain.

f 3 Now let the heavens be joyful,

[SECOND FORM.]

Because I live, ye shall live also.

Jesus lebt, mit ihm auch ich.

mf JESUS lives! no longer now
Can thy terrors, death, appal me;
Jesus lives! by this I know
From the grave He will recall me:
Brighter scenes at death commence;
This shall be my confidence.

2 Jesus lives! to Him the throne
High o'er heaven and earth is given;
I may go where He is gone,
Live and reign with Him in heaven:
God through Christ forgives offence;
This shall be my confidence.

3 Jesus lives! who now despairs
Spurns the word which God hath spoken;
Grace to all that word declares,
Grace whereby sin's yoke is broken:
Christ rejects not penitence;
This shall be my confidence.

4 Jesus lives! for me He died;
Hence will I, to Jesus living,
Pure in heart and act abide,
Praise to Him and glory giving:
Freely God doth aid dispense;
This shall be my confidence.

mp 5 Jesus lives! my heart knows well
Nought from me His love can sever;
Life, nor death, nor powers of hell

Victory. 88 Adapted from PALESTRINA.

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

Finita jam sunt prælia.

f ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA!
THE strife is o'er, the battle done;
The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun,—
'Alleluia!'

2

mp The powers of death have done their worst, mf But Christ their legions hath dispersed;
Let shouts of holy joy outburst,—

3

The three sad days have quickly sped;
c He rises glorious from the dead;
All glory to our risen Head!

f He brake the fast bound chains of hell;
The bars from heaven's high portals fell;
Let hymns of praise His triumph tell.
Alleluia!

mp Lord, by the stripes which wounded Thee,
From death's dread sting Thy servants free,
f That we may live, and sing to Thee,
'Alleluia!' AMEN.

Waterstock. 89 J. Goss.

As it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, . . . an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone.

mf ON wings of living light,
At earliest dawn of day,
Came down the angel bright,
And rolled the stone away.

f Your voices raise
With one accord
To bless and praise
Your risen Lord.

mp 2 The keepers watching near,
At that dread sight and sound,
Fell down with sudden fear,
Like dead men, to the ground.

mf 3 Then rose from death's dark gloom,
Unseen by mortal eye,
f Triumphant o'er the tomb,
The Lord of earth and sky.

mf 4 Ye children of the light,
Arise with Him, arise;
See how the Daystar bright
Is burning in the skies!

5 Leave in the grave beneath
The old things passed away;
Buried with Him in death,
O live with Him to-day.

f 6 We sing Thee, Lord Divine,
With all our hearts and powers;
For we are ever Thine,
And Thou art ever ours.

Our Saviour Christ Jesus, Who abolished death, and brought life and incorruption to light.

mf LIFT your glad voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen, and man cannot die.
Vain were the terrors that gathered around Him,
And short the dominion of death and the grave;
c He burst from the fetters of darkness that bound Him, Resplendent in glory to live and to save.
f Loud was the chorus of angels on high:
The Saviour hath risen, and man shall not die.

2 Glory to God, in full anthems of joy!
The being He gave us death cannot destroy.
mp Sad were the life we must part with to-morrow,
If tears were our birthright and death were our end;
c But Jesus hath cheered the dark valley of sorrow,
And bade us, immortal, to heaven ascend.
f Lift then your voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die. AMEN.

Salve, festa dies.

mf 'WELCOME, happy morning!' age to age shall say;
Hell to-day is vanquished; heaven is won to-day,
f Lo! the Dead is living, God for evermore!
Him, their true Creator, all His works adore:
'Welcome, happy morning!' age to age shall say.

mf 2 Earth with joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
All good gifts return with her returning King;
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
Speak His sorrows ended, hail His triumph now:
Hell to-day is vanquished! heaven is won to-day!

3 Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
Hours and passing moments praise Thee in their flight;
Brightness of the morning, sky, and fields, and sea,
Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee:
'Welcome, happy morning!' age to age shall say.

4 Maker and Redeemer, Life and Health of all,
Thou from heaven beholding human nature's fall,
Of the eternal Father true and only Son,
Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on:
Hell to-day is vanquished; heaven is won to-day!

mp 5 Thou, of life the Author, death didst undergo,

St. Magnus. 93 J. Clark.

We see Jesus . . . crowned with glory and honour.

mf THE Head that once was crowned with thorns
c Is crowned with glory now;
A royal diadem adorns
f The mighty Victor's brow.

mf 2 The highest place that heaven affords Is His, is His by right,
c The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
And heaven's eternal Light;

f 3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below
To whom He manifests His love,
And grants His name to know.

p 4 To them the cross, with all its shame,

It is Christ Jesus That died, yea rather, That was raised from the dead, Who is at the right hand of God, Who also maketh intercession for us.

f HAIL the day that sees Him rise
Hallelujah!
To His throne above the skies;
Hallelujah!
Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Hallelujah!
Re-ascends His native heaven.
Hallelujah!

2 There for Him high triumph waits:
Lift your heads, eternal gates!
Conqueror over death and sin,
Take the King of Glory in!

3 Him though highest heaven receives,
Still He loves the earth He leaves;
Though returning to His throne,
Still He calls mankind His own.

mp 4 See, He lifts His hands above!
See, He shows the prints of love!
Still for us His death He pleads; Prevalent He intercedes.

5 Lord, though parted from our sight,
High above yon azure height,
c Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Following Thee beyond the skies.

f 6 There we shall with Thee remain, Partners of Thine endless reign;
There Thy face unclouded see,
Find our heaven of heavens in Thee.

As they were looking, He was taken up; and a cloud received Him out of their sight.

mf HE is gone—beyond the skies;
A cloud receives Him from our eyes;
Gone beyond the highest height
Of mortal gaze or angel's flight,
Through the veils of time and space,
Passed into the holiest place,—
c All the toil, the sorrow done,
All the battle fought and won.

mf 2 He is gone: towards their goal
World and Church must onward roll;
Far behind we leave the past;
Forward are our glances cast:
Still His words before us range
Through the ages, as they change;
c Wheresoe'er the truth shall lead,
He will give whate'er we need.

mf 3 He is gone: but we once more Shall behold Him as before,
In the heaven of heavens the same
As on earth He went and came.
In the many mansions there,
Place for us He will prepare:
In that world unseen, unknown,
He and we may yet be one.

f 4 He is gone: but not in vain;
Wait until He comes again:
He is risen, He is not here,

mp But we are lingering here,
With sin and care oppressed;
c O let the Comforter be near,
To lead us to our rest.

mf 2 Thou art gone up on high;
p But Thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter agony
To pass unto Thy crown:
And girt with griefs and fears
Our onward course must be;
c But only let that path of tears Lead us at last to Thee.

mf 3 Thou art gone up on high;
But Thou shalt come again,

c Thy blessèd labours done,
Thy crown of victory won,
f Hast passed from earth, passed to Thy home on high.

mp 2 It was no path of flowers
Which through this world of ours,
Beloved of the Father, Thou didst tread:
And shall we in dismay
Shrink from the narrow way,
When clouds and darkness are around it spread?

3 O Thou Who art our life,
Be with us through the strife:
p Thy holy head by rudest storms was bowed;
c Raise Thou our eyes above,

On His head were many crowns.

f CROWN Him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon His throne:
Hark, how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of Him Who died for thee,
And hail Him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown Him the Lord of life,

Turned thy darkness into light.

mp 3 'Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
c Yet will I remember thee.

mf 4 'Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above,
Deeper than the depths beneath,
c Free and faithful, strong as death.

5 'Thou shalt see My glory soon,
When the work of grace is done;
Partner of My throne shalt be;
p Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou Me?'

mp 6 Lord, it is my chief complaint
That my love is weak and faint;
c Yet I love Thee, and adore;
O for grace to love Thee more! AMEN.

The love of Christ constraineth us.

O Jesu Christ, mein schönstes Licht.

1

mf JESUS, Thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
O knit my thankful heart to Thee,
And reign without a rival there;
c Thine, wholly Thine, alone I'd live, Myself to Thee entirely give.

2

mf O grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell but Thy pure love alone;
O may Thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown;
All coldness from my heart remove;
My every act, word, thought, be love!

3

O Love, how cheering is Thy ray!
All pain before Thy presence flies;
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away Where'er Thy healing beams arise;
c O Jesus, nothing may I see,
Nothing desire, or seek, but Thee.

4

mf In suffering, be Thy love my peace;
In weakness, be Thine arm my strength;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
c And Thou from heaven shalt come at length,
Lord Jesus, then this heart shall be
For ever satisfied with Thee. AMEN.

God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him

mf LOVE Divine, all loves excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down,
Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,
All Thy faithful mercies crown.

p 2 Jesus, Thou art all compassion, Pure unbounded love Thou art;
c Visit us with Thy salvation,
d Enter every trembling heart.

mf 3 Come, almighty to deliver;
Let us all Thy grace receive;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more Thy temples leave.

f 4 Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise Thee, without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect love.

5 Finish then Thy new creation:
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see Thy great salvation,
Perfectly restored in Thee,

6 Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise. AMEN.

A friend loveth at all times.

1

nf ONE there is, above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend;
His is love beyond a brother's,
Costly, free, and knows no end;
They who once His kindness prove Find it everlasting love.

2

mp Which of all our friends, to save us, Could or would have shed their blood?
p But our Jesus died to have us Reconciled in Him to God:
c This was boundless love indeed;
Jesus is a Friend in need.

3

mf Could we bear from one another
What He daily bears from us?
Yet this glorious Friend and Brother Loves us, though we treat Him thus;
Though for good we render ill,
He accounts us brethren still.

4

p O for grace our hearts to soften!
Teach us, Lord, at length, to love;
We, alas! forget too often
What a Friend we have above;
c But, when home our souls are brought,
f We will love Thee as we ought.

AMEN.

That ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ.

mf O LOVE Divine, how sweet thou art!
When shall I find my willing heart
All taken up by thee?
I thirst, I faint, I die to prove
The greatness of redeeming love,
The love of Christ to me.

2

Stronger His love than death or hell;
Its riches are unsearchable;
The first-born sons of light
Desire in vain its depths to see;
They cannot reach the mystery,
The length and breadth and height.

3

God only knows the love of God:
p O that it now were shed abroad
In this poor stony heart!
c For love I sigh, for love I pine;
This only portion, Lord, be mine,
Be mine this better part.

4

mf O that I could for ever sit Like Mary at the Master's feet!
Be this my happy choice:
c My only care, delight, and bliss,
My joy, my heaven on earth be this,
To hear the Bridegroom's voice.

Jesu, Dulcedo cordium.

mf JESUS, Thou Joy of loving hearts,
Thou Fount of life, Thou Light of men;
From the best bliss that earth imparts
We turn unfilled to Thee again.

2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on Thee call;
c To them that seek Thee Thou art good,
To them that find Thee, all in all.

mf 3 We taste Thee, O Thou living Bread,
And long to feast upon Thee still;
We drink of Thee, the Fountain-head,
And thirst our souls from Thee to fill.

p 4 Our restless spirits yearn for Thee, Where'er our changeful lot is cast,—
c Glad when Thy gracious smile we see, Blest when our faith can hold Thee fast.

p 5 O Jesus, ever with us stay;
Make all our moments calm and bright;
c Chase the dark night of sin away;
Shed o'er the world Thy holy light!

2 Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow
With food celestial feedeth.

p 3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed;
c But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home rejoicing brought me.

mf 4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me,
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
f And O what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

mf 6 And so, through all the length of days,

Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows.

p WHEN our heads are bowed with woe,
When our bitter tears o'erflow,
When we mourn the lost, the dear,
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

2 Thou our throbbing flesh hast worn;
Thou our mortal griefs hast borne;
Thou hast shed the human tear:
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

pp 3 When the hour of death is nigh,
When we breathe our parting sigh,
When our final doom is near,
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

p 4 Thou hast bowed the dying head;
Thou the blood of life hast shed;
Thou hast filled a mortal bier:
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

5 When the heart is sad within
With the thought of all its sin,
When the spirit shrinks with fear,
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

6 Thou the shame, the grief hast known,
Though the sins were not Thine own;
Thou hast deigned their load to bear:
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear! Amen.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ!

1

mf SOVEREIGN grace o'er sin abounding!
Ransomed souls, the tidings swell!
'Tis a deep that knows no sounding;
Who its breadth or length can tell?
c On its glories
Let my soul for ever dwell.

2

mf What from Christ that soul shall sever Bound by everlasting bands!
Once in Him, in Him for ever—
Thus the eternal covenant stands;
c None shall pluck thee
From the Strength of Israel's hands.

3

mf Heirs of God, joint heirs with Jesus, Long ere time its race begun;
c To His name eternal praises!
O what wonders love hath done!
One with Jesus,
By eternal union one.

4

mf On such love, my soul, still ponder,

Thou shalt call His name Jesus: for He shall save His people from their sins.

mf THERE is a name I love to hear;
I love to speak its worth;
It sounds like music in mine ear,
The sweetest name on earth.

2 It tells me of a Saviour's love,
Who died to set me free;
It tells me of His precious blood,
The sinner's perfect plea.

3 It tells me what my Father hath
In store for every day,
And, though I tread a darksome path,
Yields sunshine all the way.

mp 4 It tells of One Whose loving heart
Can feel my deepest woe,
Who in my sorrow bears a part
That none can bear below.

mf 5 Jesus! the name I love so well,
The name I love to hear;
No saint on earth its worth can tell,
No heart conceive how dear.

6 This name shall shed its fragrance still Along this thorny road,
Shall sweetly smooth the rugged hill
That leads me up to God.

f 7 And there, with all the blood-bought throng,
From sin and sorrow free,
I 'll sing the new eternal song
Of Jesus' love to me. AMEN.

St. Sepulchre. 116 G. Cooper.

Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and He healed their sick.

mp O THOU through suffering perfect made,
On Whom the bitter cross was laid,
In hours of sickness, grief, and pain
No sufferer turns to Thee in vain.

mf 2 The halt, the maimed, the sick, the blind Sought not in vain Thy tendance kind;
Now in Thy poor Thyself we see,
And minister through them to Thee.

3 O loving Saviour, Thou canst cure
The pains and woes Thou didst endure:
c For all who need, Physician great,
Thy healing balm we supplicate.

p 4 But O, far more, let each keen pain
And hour of woe be heavenly gain,
Each stroke of Thy chastising rod Bring back the wanderer nearer God.

c 5 O heal the bruisèd heart within;
O save our souls all sick with sin;
Give life and health in bounteous store,
f That we may praise Thee evermore. Amen.

Fingal. 117 J. S. ANDERSON.

He was their Saviour. In all their affliction He was afflicted, and the angel of His presence saved them.

mf IMMORTAL love, for ever full,
For ever flowing free,
For ever shared, for ever whole,
A never-ebbing sea!

2 Our outward lips confess the Name
All other names above;
Love only knoweth whence it came,
And comprehendeth love.

3 We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For Him no depths can drown.

mp 4 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is He;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

5 The healing of His seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press
And we are whole again.

6 Through Him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame;
d The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with His name.

mf 7 Our Lord, and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own Thy sway, we hear Thy call,
We test our lives by Thine. AMEN.

Faith. 118 J. B. Dykes.

Ye call Me Master and Lord; and ye say well; for so I am.

mf OUR Lord, and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own Thy sway, we hear Thy call,
We test our lives by Thine.

mp 2 Thou judgest us: Thy purity Doth all our lusts condemn;
The love that draws us nearer Thee
Is hot with wrath to them.

3 Our thoughts lie open to Thy sight;
And, naked to Thy glance,
Our secret sins are in the light
Of Thy pure countenance.

mf 4 Yet, weak and blinded though we be,
Thou dost our service own;
We bring our varying gifts to Thee,
And Thou rejectest none.

5 Apart from Thee all gain is loss,
All labour vainly done;
The solemn shadow of Thy cross
Is better than the sun.

6 Our Friend, our Brother, and our Lord,
What may Thy service be?
Nor name, nor form, nor ritual word,
But simply following Thee.

mp 7 We faintly hear; we dimly see;
In differing phrase we pray;
mf But, dim or clear, we own in Thee
The Light, the Truth, the Way. Amen.

J. G. Whittier, sel.

Worthy is the Lamb That was slain.

f COME, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 'Worthy the Lamb That died,' they cry,
'To be exalted thus!'
p 'Worthy the Lamb,' our lips reply,
c 'For He was slain for us!'

mf 3 Jesus is worthy to receive Honour and power divine;
c And blessings, more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever Thine.

f 4 Let all that dwell above the sky,
And air, and earth, and seas
Conspire to lift Thy glories high
And speak Thine endless praise;

Unis. 5 The whole creation join in one
To bless the sacred name
Of Him That sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb. AMEN.

St. Hilda. 120 J. Barnby.

It is Christ Jesus That died, yea rather, That was raised from the dead, Who is at the right hand of God, Who also maketh intercession for us.

mf HAIL, Thou once despised Jesus!
Hail, Thou Galilæan King!
Thou didst suffer to release us;
Thou didst free salvation bring.
Hail, Thou universal Saviour!
Thou hast borne our sin and shame;
By Thy merits we find favour;
Life is given through Thy name.

mp 2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins were on Thee laid;
By almighty love anointed,
Thou hast full atonement made.
Every sin may be forgiven
Through the virtue of Thy blood;
c Opened is the gate of heaven;
Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

mf 3 Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory,
There for ever to abide;
All the heavenly hosts adore Thee,
Seated at Thy Father's side.
mp There for sinners Thou art pleading,
'Spare them yet another year';
c Thou for saints art interceding
Till in glory they appear.

Unis. f 4 Worship, honour, power, and blessing
Christ is worthy to receive;
Loudest praises, without ceasing,
Meet it is for us to give.
Help, ye bright angelic spirits,
Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;
Help to sing our Saviour's merits,
Help to chant Immanuel's praise!
Amen.

We must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

f HEAD of Thy Church triumphant,
We joyfully adore Thee;
Till Thou appear,
Thy members here
Shall sing like those in glory.
We lift our hearts and voices
With blest anticipation,
And cry aloud,
And give to God
The praise of our salvation.

mp 2 While in affliction's furnace
And passing through the fire,
Thy love we praise
Which knows our days,
And ever brings us nigher.
c We clap our hands exulting
In Thine almighty favour;
The love Divine
Which made us Thine
Shall keep us Thine for ever.

mf 3 Thou dost conduct Thy people Through torrents of temptation;
Nor will we fear,
While Thou art near,
The fire of tribulation.
The world, with sin and Satan,
In vain our march opposes;
By Thee we shall Break through them all Ere death our conflict closes.

f 4* By faith we see the glory
To which Thou shalt restore us,
The cross despise
For that high prize
Which Thou hast set before us;
mp And, if Thou count us worthy,
We each, as dying Stephen,
c Shall see Thee stand
At God's right hand,
To take us up to heaven. AMEN.

That in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, ... and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

mf IN the name of Jesus
Every knee shall bow,
Every tongue confess Him
King of Glory now ;
'T is the Father's pleasure
We should call Him Lord
Who from the beginning
Was the mighty Word.

2 At His voice creation
Sprang at once to sight,
All the angel faces,
All the hosts of light,
Thrones and dominations,
Stars upon their way,
All the heavenly orders
In their great array.

p 3 Humbled for a season
To receive a name
From the lips of sinners
Unto whom He came,
Faithfully He bore it Spotless to the last ;
c Brought it back victorious
When from death He passed.

mf 4*Name Him, brothers, name Him With love strong as death, d But with awe and wonder
p And with bated breath ;
He is God the Saviour,
He is Christ the Lord,
c Ever to be worshipped,
Trusted, and adored.

mf 5 In your hearts enthrone Him ;
There let Him subdue
All that is not holy,
All that is not true :
c Crown Him as your Captain
In temptation's hour ;
Let His will enfold you
In its light and power.

f 6 Brothers, this Lord Jesus Shall return again,
With His Father's glory,
With His angel train ;
For all wreaths of empire
Meet upon His brow,
And our hearts confess Him
King of Glory now. AMEN.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise.

Gloria, laus, et honor.

f ALL glory, laud, and honour
To Thee, Redeemer, King,
To Whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring!

mf 1 Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest,
The King and Blessèd One.
f All glory, &c.

mf 2 The company of angels
Are praising Thee on high;
And mortal men, and all things Created make reply.

mf 3 The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went;
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before Thee we present.

mf 4 To Thee before Thy passion

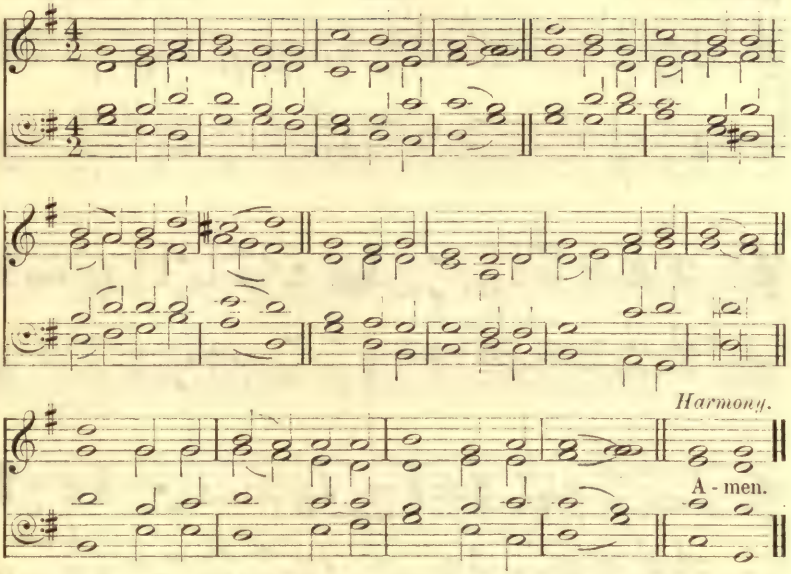
F. DE LA FEILLÉE.



Worthy is the Lamb That hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

f BLESSING and honour and glory and power, Wisdom and riches and strength evermore
Give ye to Him Who our battle hath won,
Whose are the kingdom, the crown, and the throne.

2 Into the heaven of the heavens hath He gone;
Sitteth He now in the joy of the throne;
Weareth He now of the kingdom the crown;
Singeth He now the new song with His own.

Unis. ff 3 Soundeth the heaven of the heavens with His name;
Ringeth the earth with His glory and fame;
Ocean and mountain, stream, forest, and flower
Echo His praises and tell of His power.

Har. f 4 Ever ascendeth the song and the joy;
Ever descendeth the love from on high;
Blessing and honour and glory and praise,—
This is the theme of the hymns that we raise.

Unis. 5 Give we the glory and praise to the Lamb;
Take we the robe and the harp and the palm;
Sing we the song of the Lamb That was slain,
Dying in weakness, but rising to reign. AMEN.

My dear Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace!

mf 2 My gracious Master and my God, Assist me to proclaim,
c To spread through all the earth abroad
The honours of Thy name.

p 3 Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease,
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace.

mf 4 He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;

Colyton (2nd Tune). W. H. Monk.

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

mf SAVIOUR, blessèd Saviour,
Listen while we sing,
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King.
All we have to offer,
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to Thee.

mp 2 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to Thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee.
p Thou for our redemption Cam'st on earth to die :
c Thou, that we might follow,
f Hast gone up on high.

mf 3 Great, and ever greater,
Are Thy mercies here ;
True and everlasting
Are the glories there,
Where no pain or sorrow,
Toil or care, is known,
Where the angel legions
Circle round Thy throne.

4 Clearer still, and clearer,
Dawns the light from heaven,
In our sadness bringing News of sins forgiven :
f Life has lost its shadows,
Pure the light within ;
Thou hast shed Thy radiance
On a world of sin.

mf 5 Onward, ever onward, Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us, Journeying on to God,
c Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking Till the prize is won.

f 6 Higher then, and higher,
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgotten,
Saviour, to its goal,
Where, in joys unthought of,
Saints with angels sing,
Never weary raising Praises to their King. Amen.

West Heath. 129 E. J. Hopkins.

[May be sung to 'Leipsic,' No. 162]

Unto Him That loveth us, and loosed us from our sins by His blood, ... to Him be the glory and the dominion for ever and ever.

mf TO Him Who for our sins was slain,
To Him, for all His dying pain,
c Sing we Hallelujah!
mp To Him, the Lamb our sacrifice,
Who gave His soul our ransom price,
c Sing we Hallelujah!

mp 2 To Him Who died that we might die
To sin, and live with Him on high,
c Sing we Hallelujah!
f To Him Who rose that we might rise,
And reign with Him beyond the skies,
Sing we Hallelujah!

mp 3 To Him Who now for us doth plead,
And helpeth us in all our need,
c Sing we Hallelujah!
mf To Him Who doth prepare on high Our home in immortality
c Sing we Hallelujah!

f 4 To Him be glory evermore!
Ye heavenly hosts, your Lord adore:
Sing we Hallelujah!
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Our God most high, our joy and boast, ff Sing we Hallelujah!

AMEN.

A. T. Russell.

Culbach. 130 Scheffler's Geistliche Hirtenlieder, 1657.

The morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy.

f SONGS of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When He spake and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of Peace was born;
Songs of praise arose when He Captive led captivity.

mf 3 Heaven and earth must pass away;
c Songs of praise shall crown that day:
f God will make new heavens and earth;
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

p 4 And shall man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come?
c No! the Church delights to raise Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.

mf 5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice,
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

6 Borne upon their latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death,
f Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ. Amen.

Everton. 131 H. Smart.

Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1

mf MIGHTY God, while angels bless Thee,
May a mortal sing Thy name?
Lord of men as well as angels,
Thou art every creature's theme.
Lord of every land and nation,
Ancient of eternal days,
c Sounded through the wide creation
f Be Thy just and endless praise.

2

mf For the grandeur of Thy nature,
Grand beyond a seraph's thought;
For the wonders of creation,
Works with skill and kindness wrought;
For Thy providence, that governs
Through Thine empire's wide domain,
Wings an angel, guides a sparrow,— Blessèd be Thy gentle reign!

3

But Thy rich, Thy free redemption,
Bright, though veiled in darkness long,— Thought is poor, and poor expression,—
Who can sing that wondrous song?
Brightness of the Father's glory,
Shall Thy praise unuttered lie?
c Break, my tongue, such guilty silence!
Sing the Lord Who came to die.

4

mf From the highest throne of glory p To the cross of deepest woe Thou didst stoop to ransom captives;
c Flow my praise, for ever flow.
Re-ascend, immortal Saviour!
Leave Thy footstool, take Thy throne:
f Thence return, and reign for ever;
Be the kingdom all Thine own. Amen.

St. Peter. 132 A. R. Reinagle.

Let them also that love Thy name be joyful in Thee.

mf HOW sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds.
And drives away his fear.

p 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

mf 3 Dear name! the rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place,
My never-failing treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace.

f 4 Jesus, my Shepherd, Husband, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

mf 5 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
c But, when I see Thee as Thou art, I'll praise Thee as I ought.

mf 6 Till then I would Thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of Thy name
Refresh my soul in death. AMEN.

St. Ambrose. 133 W. H. Monk.

[May be sung to 'Moscow,' No. 223.]

He That hath mercy on thee shall lead thee.

Στομίον πώλων ἀδαῶν.

mf SHEPHERD of tender youth, Guiding in love and truth
Through devious ways,
Christ, our triumphant King,
We come Thy name to sing,
And here our children bring,
To shout Thy praise.

mp 2 Thou art our holy Lord,
The all-subduing Word,
Healer of strife;
p Thou didst Thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
c Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

mf 3 Be ever near our side,
Our Shepherd and our Guide,
Our staff and song:
Jesus, Thou Christ of God,
The way Thyself hast trod,
Lead us to Thine abode;
Make our faith strong.

f 4 So now, and till we die,
Sound we Thy praises high,
And joyful sing.
Infants, and the glad throng
Who to Thy Church belong, Unite to swell the song
To Christ our King. Amen.

Laus Tibi, Christe (2nd Tune). G. F. COBB.*

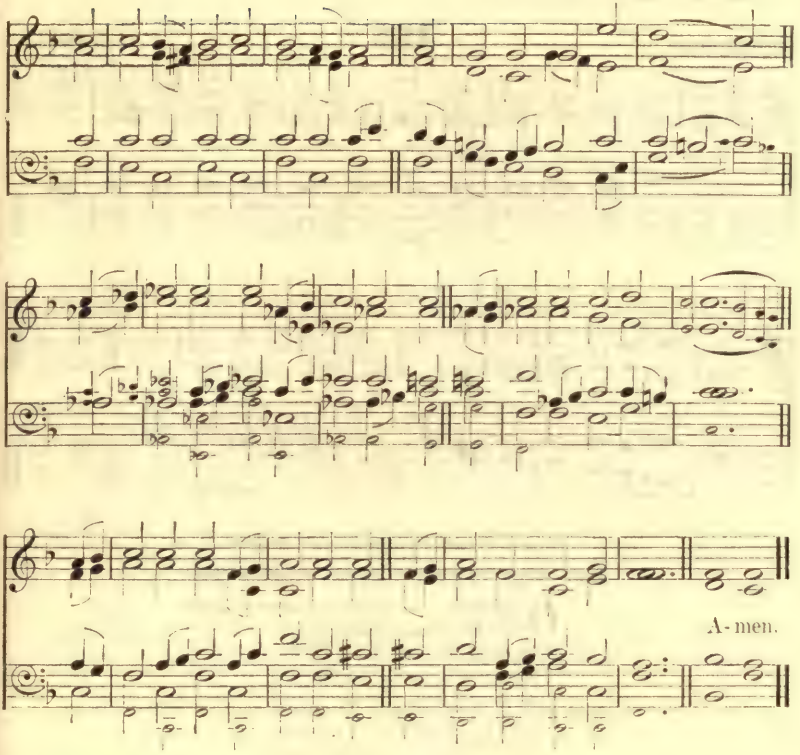
* Note by the Composer:—To be sung, not smoothly, but with rhythm well marked, in the manner of a March. The small notes are for the Organ only.



He is Lord of all.

1

f ALL hail, the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem
To crown Him Lord of all.

2

Crown Him, ye martyrs of your God,
Who from His altar call;
Extol the Stem-of-Jesse's Rod,
And crown Him Lord of all.

3

Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail Him Who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all.

4

mp Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
c Go, spread your trophies at His feet
And crown Him Lord of all.

5

f Let every tongue and every tribe, Responsive to the call,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

6

mf O that, with yonder sacred throng,
We at His feet may fall,
c Join in the everlasting song,
f And crown Him Lord of all! AMEN.

St. Saviour. 135 F. G. Baker.

He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Jesu, nostra redemptio, amor, et desiderium.

f O CHRIST, our hope, our hearts' desire,
Redemption's only spring,
Creator of the world art Thou,
Its Saviour and its King.

mf 2 How vast the mercy and the love
Which laid our sins on Thee,
p And led Thee to a cruel death,
c To set Thy people free!

f 3 But now the bonds of death are burst,
The ransom has been paid,
And Thou art on Thy Father's throne,
In glorious robes arrayed.

mf 4 O may Thy mighty love prevail
Our sinful souls to spare;
O may we come before Thy throne,
And find acceptance there.

f 5 O Christ, be Thou our present joy,
Our future great reward;
Our only glory may it be
To glory in the Lord. AMEN.

Christ is all, and in all.

mf JESUS, Sun and Shield art Thou,
Sun and shield for ever:
Never canst Thou cease to shine,
Cease to guard us never.
Cheer our steps as on we go;
Come between us and the foe.

2 Jesus, Bread and Wine art Thou,
Wine and bread for ever:
Never canst Thou cease to feed,
Or refresh us never.
Feed we still on bread divine;
Drink we still this heavenly wine.

3 Jesus, Love and Life art Thou,
Life and love for ever:
Ne'er to quicken shalt Thou cease,
Or to love us never.
All of life and love we need
Is in Thee, in Thee indeed.

mp 4 Jesus, Peace and Joy art Thou,
Joy and peace for ever:
Joy that fades not, changes not,
Peace that leaves us never.
Joy and peace we have in Thee,
Now and through eternity.

f 5 Jesus, Song and Strength art Thou, Strength and song for ever:
Strength that never can decay,
Song that ceaseth never.
Still to us this strength and song
Through eternal days prolong. Amen.

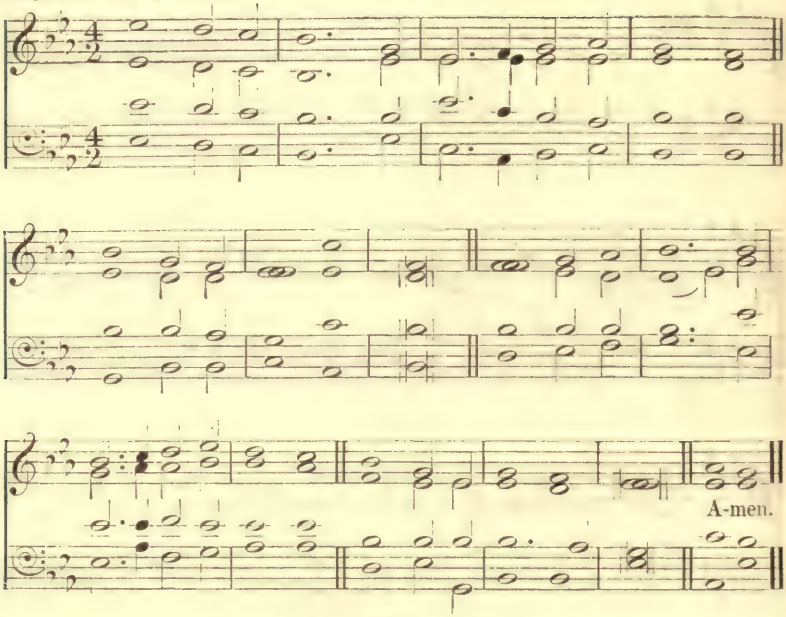
Light of the World. 137

G. A. Macfarren.



By permission, from the Home Hymn Book.

The Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light.

mf LIGHT of the world! for ever, ever shining,
There is no change in Thee;
True Light of life, all joy and health enshrining,
Thou canst not fade nor flee.

2 Thou hast arisen, but Thou descendest never;
To-day shines as the past;
All that Thou wast Thou art and shalt be ever,
Brightness from first to last.

3 Night visits not Thy sky, nor storm, nor sadness;
Day fills up all its blue,— Unfailing beauty, and unfaltering gladness,
And love for ever new.

f 4 Light of the world! undimming and unsetting,
O shine each mist away;
Banish the fear, the falsehood, and the fretting;
Be our unchanging Day. AMEN.

With the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

mf O SAVIOUR, precious Saviour,
Whom yet unseen we love;
O Name of might and favour,
All other names above; [Thee,
p We worship Thee, (c) we bless
To Thee alone we sing;
f We praise Thee, and confess Thee
Our holy Lord and King.

mf 2 O Bringer of salvation,
Who wondrously hast wrought,
Thyself the revelation
Of love beyond our thought; [Thee,
p We worship Thee, (c) we bless
To Thee alone we sing;
f We praise Thee, and confess Thee
Our gracious Lord and King.

mf 3 In Thee all fulness dwelleth,
All grace and power divine;
The glory that excelleth,
O Son of God, is Thine. [Thee,
p We worship Thee, (c) we bless
To Thee alone we sing;
f We praise Thee, and confess Thee
Our glorious Lord and King.

mf 4 O grant the consummation
Of this our song above,
In endless adoration
And everlasting love;
f Then shall we praise and bless Thee
Where perfect praises ring,
And evermore confess Thee
Our Saviour and our King.

AMEN.

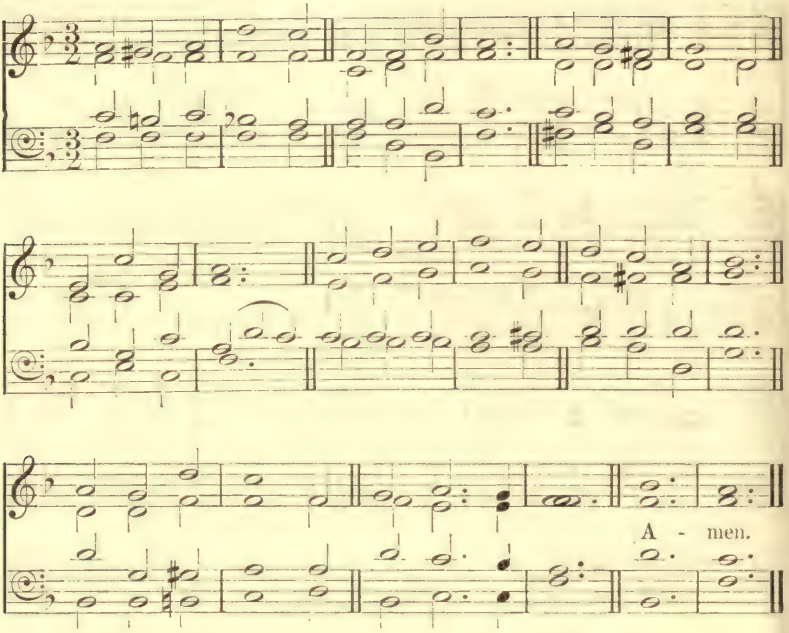
Rest of the Weary. 139 HENRY PARKER.



Ye are complete in Him.

mf REST of the weary,
Joy of the sad,
Hope of the dreary,
Light of the glad,
Home of the stranger,
Strength to the end,
Refuge from danger,
Saviour and Friend!

mp 2 Pillow where, lying,
Love rests its head,
Peace of the dying,
Life of the dead,
Path of the lowly,
Prize at the end,
Breath of the holy,
Saviour and Friend!

mf 3 When my feet stumble,
I'll to Thee cry,
Crown of the humble,
Cross of the high;
When my steps wander,
Over me bend,
c Truer and fonder,
Saviour and Friend.

f 4 Ever confessing
Thee, I will raise Unto Thee blessing, Glory, and praise,—
All my endeavour,
World without end,

Salvation to our God Which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

f YE servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad His wonderful name;
The name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious, and rules over all.

2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still He is nigh, His presence we have;
The great congregation His triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus our King.

Unis. 3 Then let us adore, and give Him His right,—
All glory and power, all wisdom and might,
c All honour and blessing, with angels above;
And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love. AMEN.

8.—HIS SECOND COMING.

Helmsley. 141 T. Olivers.

[May be sung to 'St. Thomas,' No. 605.]

Behold, He cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see Him, and they also which pierced Him.

f LO! He comes, with clouds descending,
Once for favoured sinners slain;
Thousand thousand saints attending Swell the triumph of His train:
Hallelujah!
God appears on earth to reign.

mf 2 Every eye shall now behold Him, Robed in dreadful majesty;
d Those who set at nought and sold Him, Pierced, and nailed Him to the tree.
pp Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see.

mf 3 Now redemption, long expected,
See in solemn pomp appear;
All His saints, by man rejected,
Now shall meet Him in the air:
f Hallelujah!
See the day of God appear!

4 Yea, Amen, let all adore Thee,
High on Thine eternal throne;
c Saviour, take the power and glory;
Claim the kingdom for Thine own:
O come quickly!
ff Hallelujah! come, Lord, come! AMEN.

Triumph. 142 H. J. GAUNTLETT.

The night is far spent, the day is at hand.

1

mf O'ER the distant mountains breaking,
Comes the reddening dawn of day;
Rise, my soul, from sleep awaking,
Rise and sing, and watch and pray:
c 'T is thy Saviour
On His bright, returning way.

2

mf O Thou long-expected! weary Waits mine anxious soul for Thee;
p Life is dark and earth is dreary
Where Thy light I do not see:
c O my Saviour,
When wilt Thou return to me?

3

mf Long, too long, in sin and sadness,
Far away from Thee I pine;
When, O when, shall I the gladness
Of Thy Spirit feel in mine?
c O my Saviour,
When shall I be wholly Thine?

4

mf Nearer is my soul's salvation,
Spent the night, the day at hand;
Keep me in my lowly station,
Watching for Thee, till I stand,
O my Saviour,
In Thy bright and promised land;

5

With my lamp well-trimmed and burning,
Swift to hear, and slow to roam,
Watching for Thy glad returning To restore me to my home:
c Come, my Saviour!
O my Saviour, quickly come! AMEN.

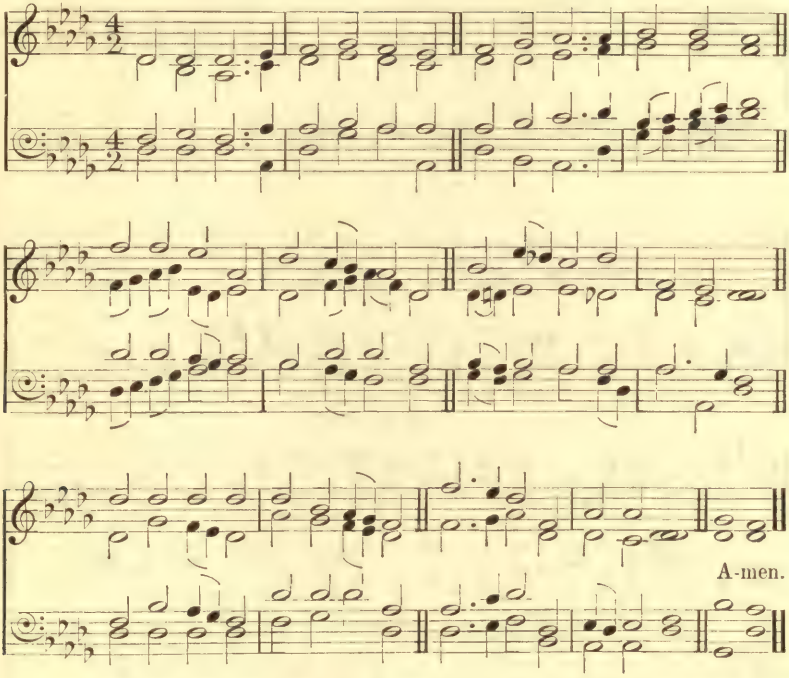
J. Turle.



We made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1

mf JESUS came, the heavens adoring, Came with peace from realms on high;
Jesus came for man's redemption,
p Lowly came on earth to die,
c Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
d Came in deep humility.

2

p Jesus comes again in mercy,
When our hearts are bowed with care;
c Jesus comes again in answer
To an earnest, heartfelt prayer,
f Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Comes to save us from despair.

3

mf Jesus comes to hearts rejoicing,
Bringing news of sins forgiven;
Jesus comes in sounds of gladness,
Leading souls redeemed to heaven:
f Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Now the gate of death is riven.

4

Jesus comes on clouds triumphant,
When the heavens shall pass away;
Jesus comes again in glory;
Let us then our homage pay,
ff 'Hallelujah!' ever singing,
Till the dawn of endless day. AMEN.

Beverley. 144 W. H. Monk.

Looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ.

mf THOU art coming, O my Saviour,
Thou art coming, O my King,
In Thy beauty all-resplendent,
In Thy glory all-transcendent;
Well may we rejoice and sing.
Coming! in the opening east
Herald brightness slowly swells;
Coming! O my glorious Priest,
Hear we not Thy golden bells?

2 Thou art coming, Thou art coming;
We shall meet Thee on Thy way;
We shall see Thee, we shall know Thee,
We shall bless Thee, we shall show Thee
All our hearts could never say.
f What an anthem that will be,
Ringing out our love to Thee,
Pouring out our rapture sweet,
c At Thine own all-glorious feet!

mf 3 Thou art coming; at Thy table
We are witnesses for this,
mp While remembering hearts Thou meetest,
In communion clearest, sweetest, Earnest of our coming bliss,—
c Showing not Thy death alone,
And Thy love exceeding great,
mf But Thy coming and Thy throne,
All for which we long and wait.

4 Thou art coming; we are waiting
With a hope that cannot fail,
Asking not the day or hour,
Resting on Thy word of power,
Anchored safe within the veil.
Time appointed may be long,
But the vision must be sure;
Certainty shall make us strong;
Joyful patience can endure.

f 5 O the joy to see Thee reigning,
Thee, my own beloved Lord,
Every tongue Thy name confessing,
Worship, honour, glory, blessing,
Brought to Thee with glad accord.—
Thee, my Master and my Friend,
Vindicated and enthroned,
Unto earth's remotest end
Glorified, adored, and owned! AMEN.

Sleepers, Wake. Wachet auf! ruft uns die Stimme. P. Nicolai.

* The slurs and small notes for verse 3 only.

At midnight there is a cry, Behold, the Bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet Him.

f 'WAKE, awake! for night is flying,'
The watchmen on the heights are crying,
'Awake, Jerusalem, at last!'
Midnight hears the welcome voices,
And at the thrilling cry rejoices:
'Come forth, ye virgins, night is past!
The Bridegroom comes; awake,
Your lamps with gladness take;
Hallelujah!
And for His marriage-feast prepare,
For ye must go to meet Him there.'

mf 2 Zion hears the watchmen singing,
And all her heart with joy is springing;
She wakes, she rises from her gloom;
For her Lord comes down all-glorious,
The strong in grace, in truth victorious;
Her Star is risen, her Light is come!
mp Ah! come, Thou blessèd One,
c God's own belovèd Son;
f Hallelujah!
mf We follow till the halls we see Where Thou hast bid us sup with Thee.

f 3 Now let all the heavens adore Thee,
And men and angels sing before Thee
With harp and cymbal's clearest tone;
Of one pearl each shining portal,
Where we are with the choir immortal
Of angels round Thy dazzling throne:
Nor eye hath seen, nor ear
Hath yet attained to hear What there is ours;
ff But we rejoice, and sing to Thee
Our hymn of joy eternally. AMEN.

Nicolai, tr. C. Winkworth.

The wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

Ermuntert euch, ihr Frommen.

mf REJOICE, all ye believers,
And let your lights appear;
mp The evening is advancing,
And darker night is near.
The Bridegroom is arising,
And soon He draweth nigh:
c Up! pray and watch and wrestle;
At midnight comes the cry.

mf 2 See that your lamps are burning,
Replenish them with oil;
And wait for your salvation,
The end of earthly toil.
The watchers on the mountain Proclaim the Bridegroom near:
f Go, meet Him, as He cometh,
With hallelujahs clear.

mf 3 Ye wise and holy virgins,
Now raise your voices higher,
Till, in glad songs of jubilee,
They meet the angel choir.
The marriage-feast is waiting;
The gates wide open stand:
f Up! up! ye heirs of glory,
The Bridegroom is at hand.

mf 4 Our Hope and Expectation, O Jesus, now appear;
c Arise, Thou Sun, so longed-for,
O'er this benighted sphere.
f With hearts and hands uplifted,
We plead, O Lord, to see
The day of earth's redemption
That brings us unto Thee. AMEN.

Alford. 147 J. B. Dykes.

He shall come to be glorified in His saints.

f TEN thousand times ten thousand,
In sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransomed saints Throng up the steeps of light:
mf 'Tis finished, all is finished,
Their fight with death and sin;
f Fling open wide the golden gates
And let the victors in.

2 What rush of hallelujahs
Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
O day for which creation
And all its tribes were made!
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousandfold repaid!

mf 3 O then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore,
What knitting severed friendships up,
Where partings are no more!
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle
p That brimmed with tears of late;
c Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

mf 4 Bring near Thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power, and reign:
Appear, Desire of nations,— Thine exiles long for home;
f Show in the heavens Thy promised sign;
Thou Prince and Saviour, come!

Veni Immanuel. 149

Plainsong Melody.

To be sung in Unison.

Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion : for it is time to have pity upon her.

Veni, veni, Immanuel.

mp O COME, O come, Immanuel,
And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here,
Until the Son of God appear.

f Rejoice ! rejoice ! Immanuel Shall come to thee, O Israel.

mf 2 O come, O come, Thou Lord of might,
Who to Thy tribes, on Sinai's height,
In ancient times didst give the law
In cloud and majesty and awe.

mp 3 O come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free Thine own from Satan's tyranny ;
c From depths of hell Thy people save,
And give them victory o'er the grave.

mf 4 O come, Thou Dayspring, come and cheer
Our spirits by Thine advent here ;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
And death's dark shadows put to flight.

mp O QUICKLY come, dread Judge of all:
For, awful though Thine advent be,
All shadows from the truth will fall,
And falsehood die, in sight of Thee:
c O quickly come; for doubt and fear
Like clouds dissolve when Thou art near.

mf 2 O quickly come, great King of all:
Reign all around us, and within;
Let sin no more our souls enthral,
Let pain and sorrow die with sin:
O quickly come; for Thou alone
Canst make Thy scattered people one.

3 O quickly come, true Life of all:
p For death is mighty all around;
On every home his shadows fall,
On every heart his mark is found:
c O quickly come; for grief and pain
Can never cloud Thy glorious reign.

mp 4 O quickly come, sure Light of all:
For gloomy night broods o'er our way,
And weakly souls begin to fall
With weary watching for the day;
mf O quickly come; for round Thy throne
No eye is blind, no night is known. AMEN.

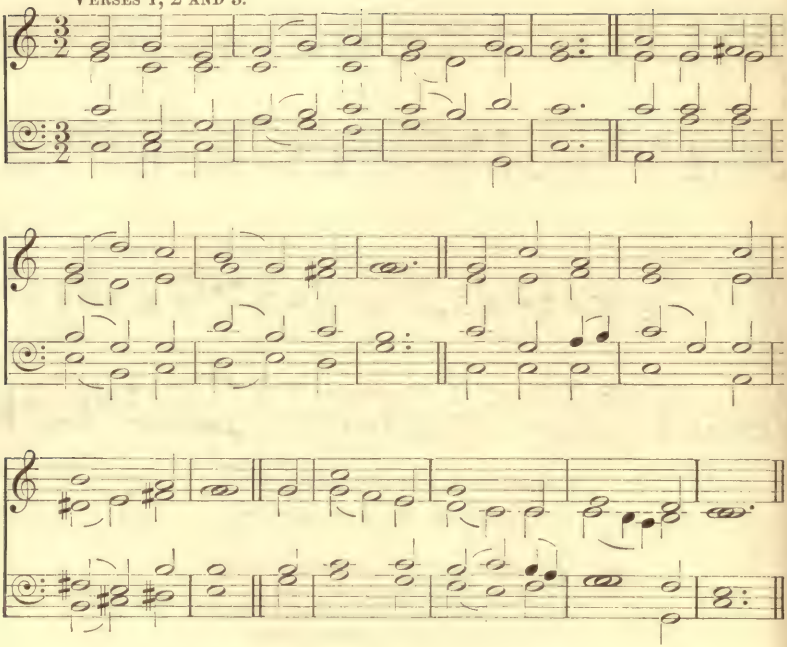
Veni Creator. 155 J. B. Dykes.

Verses 1, 2 and 3.



Ye have an anointing from the Holy One, and ye know all things.

Veni, Creator Spiritus.

mf COME, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire;
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts impart.

2 Thy blessèd unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dulness of our blinded sight;

3 Anoint and cheer our soilèd face
With the abundance of Thy grace;
Keep far our foes; give peace at home:
Where Thou art Guide no ill can come.

Cassel. O du Liebe meiner Liebe. J. THOMMEN'S Choralbuch, 1745.

The fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth.

mf GRACIOUS Spirit, dwell with me!
I myself would gracious be;
And, with words that help and heal,
Would Thy life in mine reveal;
And, with actions bold and meek,
Would for Christ, my Saviour, speak.

2 Truthful Spirit, dwell with me!
I myself would truthful be;
And, with wisdom kind and clear,
Let Thy life in mine appear;
And, with actions brotherly,
Speak my Lord's sincerity.

mp 3 Tender Spirit, dwell with me!
I myself would tender be;
Shut my heart up like a flower
In temptation's darksome hour;
Open it when shines the sun,
And His love by fragrance own.

mf 4 Mighty Spirit, dwell with me!
I myself would mighty be;
Mighty, so as to prevail
Where unaided man must fail;
Ever, by a mighty hope,
Pressing on and bearing up.

p 5 Holy Spirit, dwell with me!
I myself would holy be;
c Separate from sin, I would Choose and cherish all things good, mf And whatever I can be
Give to Him Who gave me Thee. AMEN.

Harmony.

That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him.

mf COME, Holy Spirit, come;
Let Thy bright beams arise;
Dispel the darkness from our minds,
And open all our eyes.

2 Cheer our desponding hearts,
Thou heavenly Paraclete;
Give us to lie with humble hope
At our Redeemer's feet.

p 3 Convince us of our sin;
Then lead to Jesus' blood,
c And to our wondering view reveal
The secret love of God.

mf 4 Revive our drooping faith;
Our doubts and fears remove;
And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.

5 'T is Thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life on every part,
And new create the whole.

2 Come as the light: to us reveal
Our sinfulness and woe;
And lead us in those paths of life
Where all the righteous go.

3 Come as the fire; and purge our hearts,
Like sacrificial flame;
Let our whole soul an offering be
To our Redeemer's name.

mp 4 Come as the dew: and sweetly bless
This consecrated hour;
May barrenness rejoice to own
Thy fertilizing power.

5 Come as the dove: and spread Thy wings,
The wings of peaceful love;
c And let Thy Church on earth become Blest as the Church above.

God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

mf WHEN God of old came down from heaven,
In power and wrath He came;
Before His feet the clouds were riven,
Half darkness and half flame.

p 2 But, when He came the second time
He came in power and love;
Softer than gale at morning prime Hovered His holy Dove.

mf 3 The fires that rushed on Sinai down
In sudden torrents dread
Now gently light, a glorious crown,
On every sainted head.

4 And, as on Israel's awe-struck ear
The voice exceeding loud,
The trump that angels quake to hear,
Thrilled from the deep, dark cloud,

5 So, when the Spirit of our God Came down His flock to find,
c A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
A rushing mighty wind.

f 6 It fills the Church of God; it fills
The sinful world around;
p Only in stubborn hearts and wills

Christ also loved the church, and gave Himself for it: . . . . that He might present it to Himself a glorious church.

mf THE Church's one foundation Is Jesus Christ her Lord:
She is His new creation
By water and the word;
From heaven He came and sought her
To be His holy bride;
d With His own blood He bought her
And for her life He died.

mf 2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,

One Lord, one faith, one birth.
One holy name she blesses
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

p 3 Though with a scornful wonder Men see her sore oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distressed,
c Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, 'How long?'
mf And soon the night of weeping Shall be the morn of song.

p 4 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore,
c Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest, mf And the great Church victorious Shall be the Church at rest.

5 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won.
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we,
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee. AMEN.

Intercession. 172 W. H. Callcott.
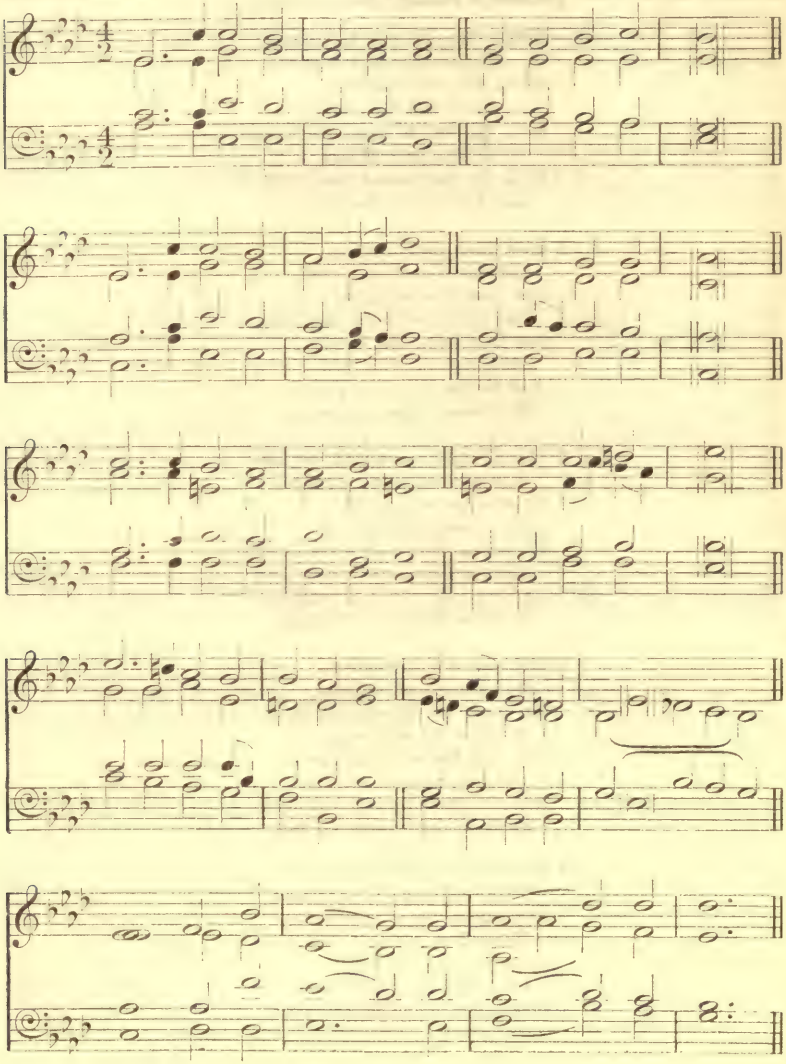
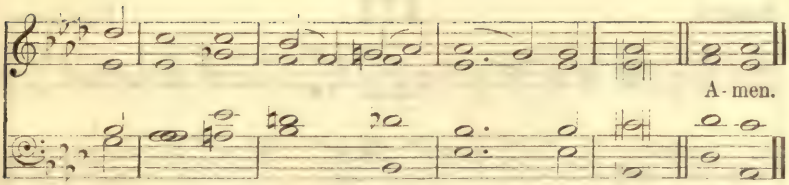
(Last two lines from Mendelssohn.)





Hear Thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven Thy dwelling place.

1

mp WHEN the weary, seeking rest,
To Thy goodness flee ;
When the heavy-laden cast
All their load on Thee :
When the troubled, seeking peace,
On Thy name shall call ;
When the sinner, seeking life,
At Thy feet shall fall ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

2 mp When the worldling, sick at heart, Lifts his soul above ;

When the prodigal looks back
To his Father's love ;
When the proud man, in his pride,
Stoops to seek Thy face ;
When the burdened brings his guilt
To Thy throne of grace ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

3

mf When the stranger asks a home,
All his toils to end ;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor a friend ;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the fervent knee ;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to Thee ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

4

mf When the man of toil and care,
In the city crowd,
When the shepherd on the moor,
Names the name of God ;
When the learnèd and the high,
Tired of earthly fame,
Upon higher joys intent,
Name the blessèd name ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

5

mf When the child, with grave fresh lip, Youth, or maiden fair,
d When the aged, weak and grey,
Seek Thy face in prayer ;
p When the widow weeps to Thee,
Sad and lone and low ;
When the orphan brings to Thee
All his orphan woe ;
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

6 mp When creation, in her pangs, Heaves her heavy groan ;

When Thy Salem's exiled sons Breathe their bitter moan ;
p When Thy widowed, weeping Church,
Looking for a home,
Sendeth up her silent sigh,
'Come, Lord Jesus, come!'
c Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry,
d In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God.

f GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken,

Each for a thank-offering brings.

2.—THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

St. James. 180 R. COURTEVILLE.

The entrance of Thy words giveth light.

mf THE Spirit breathes upon the word,
And brings the truth to sight;
Precepts and promises afford
A sanctifying light.

2 A glory gilds the sacred page,
Majestic, like the sun:
It gives a light to every age;
It gives, but borrows none.

3 The hand that gave it still supplies
The gracious light and heat;
His truths upon the nations rise;
They rise, but never set.

f 4 Let everlasting thanks be Thine
For such a bright display
As makes a world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.

5 My soul rejoices to pursue
The steps of Him I love,
Till glory breaks upon my view
In brighter worlds above. AMEN.

W. Cowper.

St. Oswald. 181 E. F. Rimbault.

The word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

mf LORD, Thy word abideth
And our footsteps guideth;
Who its truth believeth
Light and joy receiveth.

2 When our foes are near us,
Then Thy word doth cheer us,
Word of consolation,
Message of salvation.

p 3 When the storms are o'er us,
And dark clouds before us,
c Then its light directeth,
And our way protecteth.

mf 4 Who can tell the pleasure,
Who recount the treasure,
By Thy word imparted
To the simple-hearted?

p 5 Word of mercy, giving Succour to the living;
d Word of life, supplying Comfort to the dying!

c 6 O that we, discerning
Its most holy learning,
Lord, may love and fear Thee,
f Evermore be near Thee! Amen.

Behold, the sower went forth to sow.

mf ALMIGHTY God, Thy word is cast
Like seed into the ground;
Now let the dew of heaven descend,
And righteous fruits abound.

2

Let not the foe of Christ and man
This holy seed remove,
But give it root in every heart
To bring forth fruits of love.

3

Let not the world's deceitful cares
The rising plant destroy,
c But let it yield a hundredfold
The fruits of peace and joy.

4

Oft as the precious seed is sown,
Thy quickening grace bestow,
f That all whose souls the truth receive
Its saving power may know. AMEN.

O Wisdom from on high,
O Truth unchanged, unchanging,
O Light of our dark sky,
We praise Thee for the radiance
That from the hallowed page,
A lantern to our footsteps,
Shines on from age to age.

2 The Church from her dear Master
Received the gift Divine,
And still that light she lifteth,

Requiem. 186 W. SCHULTHES.

He saith to thee, Wash, and be clean.

1

mf COME to Calvary's holy mountain, Sinners, ruined by the fall;
Here a pure and healing fountain
Flows to you, to me, to all,
In a full, perpetual tide,
Opened when our Saviour died.

2

p Come, in poverty and meanness, Come, defiled without, within;
From infection and uncleanness,
From the leprosy of sin,
c Wash your robes, and make them white;
Ye shall walk with God in light.

3 p Come, in sorrow and contrition, Wounded, impotent, and blind;

c Here the guilty free remission,
Here the troubled peace may find;
Health this fountain will restore;
He that drinks shall thirst no more.

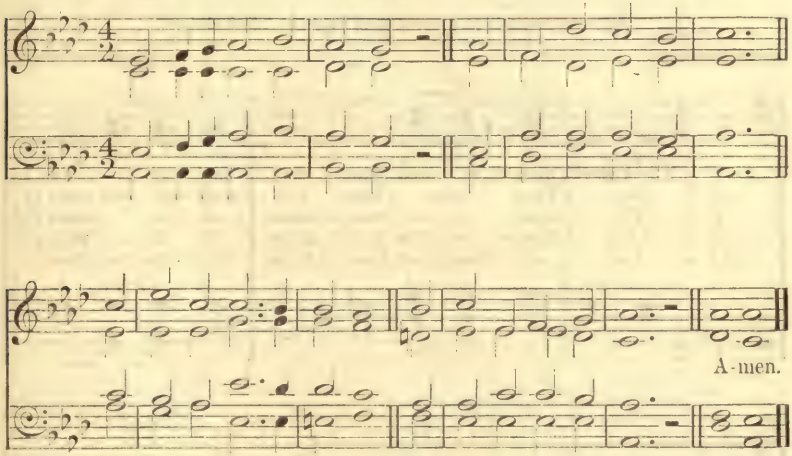
Remembrance. 192

J. Booth.



This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

1

mf TELL me the old, old story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and His glory,
Of Jesus and His love.

2

Tell me the story simply,
As to a little child;
p For I am weak and weary,
And helpless, and defiled.

3

mf Tell me the story slowly,
That I may take it in,
That wonderful redemption,
God's remedy for sin.

4

Tell me the story often,
For I forget so soon;
The early dew of morning
Has passed away at noon.

5 p Tell me the story softly,

With earnest tones and grave;
Remember I 'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save.

6

mf Tell me the story always,
If you would really be d In any time of trouble
A comforter to me.

7

mf Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear.

8

c Yes! and, when that world's glory
Shall dawn upon my soul,
Tell me the old, old story,
f 'Christ Jesus makes thee whole.' Amen.

Wondrous Love. 199

W. G. Fischer.

God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son.

mf GOD loved the world of sinners lost
And ruined by the fall;

2 To-day Thy gate is open,
And all who enter in Shall find a Father's welcome,
And pardon for their sin;
The past shall be forgotten,
A present joy be given,
A future grace be promised,
A glorious crown in heaven.

p 3 To-day the Father calls us;
The Holy Spirit waits;
The blessèd angels gather Around the heavenly gates;
c No question will be asked us
How often we have come;
Although we oft have wandered,
It is our Father's home.

mf 4 O all-embracing mercy,
Thou ever open door,
What should we do without thee
When heart and eyes run o'er?
When all things seem against us,
To drive us to despair,
We know one gate is open,
One ear will hear our prayer. Amen.

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

mp COME, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish;
Come, at the mercy-seat fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish;
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

2 Here dwells the Father; Love's waters are streaming Forth from the throne of God, plenteous and pure;
Come to His temple for mercy redeeming;
Earth has no sorrow that He cannot cure.

3 Here waits the Saviour, all gentle and loving,
Ready to meet us, His grace to reveal;
On Him cast the burden, trustfully coming;
Earth has no sorrow that Christ cannot heal.

4 Here speaks the Comforter, Light of the straying,
Hope of the penitent, Advocate sure,
Joy of the desolate, tenderly saying,
'Earth has no sorrow My grace cannot cure.' AMEN.

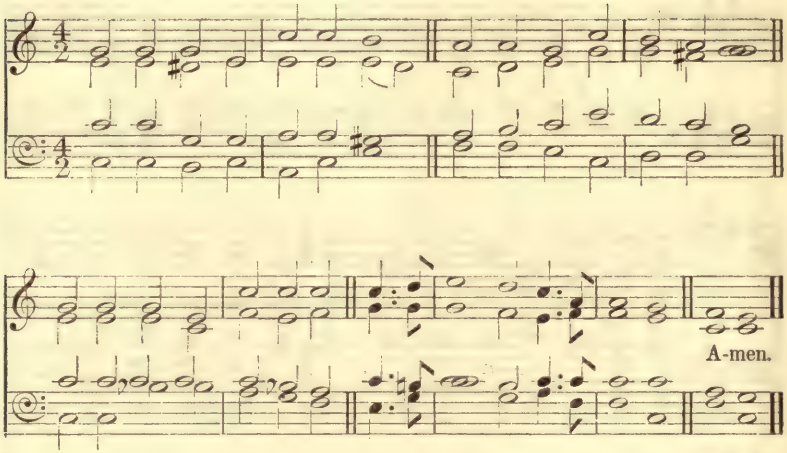
Man of Sorrows. 208 P. P. Bliss.



A man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief.

mp MAN of Sorrows! what a name For the Son of God, Who came Ruined sinners to reclaim!
c Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

p 2 Bearing shame and scoffing rude,
In my place condemned He stood,
Sealed my pardon with His blood:
c Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

mf 3 Guilty, vile, and helpless we;
Spotless Lamb of God was He:
Full atonement,—can it be?
f Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

p 4 Lifted up was He to die,
'It is finished' was His cry;
c Now in heaven exalted high:
f Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

5 When He comes, our glorious King,
All His ransomed home to bring,
Then anew this song we'll sing—
ff 'Hallelujah! what a Saviour!' AMEN.

My people shall be satisfied with My goodness, saith the Lord.

mf THE Lord is rich and merciful ;
The Lord is very kind ;
O come to Him, come now to Him,
With a believing mind.
His comforts, they shall strengthen thee
Like flowing waters cool ;
And He shall for thy spirit be A fountain ever full.

f 2 The Lord is glorious and strong ;
Our God is very high ;
O trust in Him, trust now in Him,
And have security.
He shall be to thee like the sea,
And thou shalt surely feel
His wind, that bloweth healthily
Thy sicknesses to heal.

3 The Lord is wonderful and wise,
As all the ages tell ;
O learn of Him, learn now of Him,
Then with thee it is well.
And with His light thou shalt be blest, Therein to work and live ;
d And He shall be to thee a rest
When evening hours arrive. Amen.

p Do not grieve Him longer;
c Come and trust Him now;
He has waited all thy days:
Why waitest thou?
mf One there is Who loves thee:
O receive Him now!
He has waited all the day:
Why waitest thou?

p 2 Tenderly He wooes thee;
Do not slight His call;
Though thy sins are many,
He 'll forgive them all.
Turn to Him, repenting;
He will cleanse thee now;
c He is waiting at thy heart:
Why waitest thou?

mf 3 Jesus still is waiting;
Sinner, why delay?
To His arms of mercy
Rise, and haste away.
c Only come believing,
He will save thee now;
He is waiting at the door:
Why waitest thou?

In His days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

f HAIL to the Lord's Anointed,

He shall judge the poor of the people, He shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

WHEN wilt Thou save the people?
O God of mercy, when?
Not kings alone, but nations,
Not thrones and crowns, but men?
Flowers of Thy heart, O God, are they,
Let them not pass, like weeds, away,
Their heritage a sunless day:
God save the people!

2 Shall crime bring crime for ever,
Strength aiding still the strong?
Is it Thy will, O Father,
That man shall toil for wrong?
'No,' say Thy mountains; 'No,' Thy skies;
Man's clouded sun shall brightly rise,
And songs ascend instead of sighs:
God save the people!

3 When wilt Thou save the people?
O God of mercy, when?
The people, Lord, the people,
Not thrones and crowns, but men?
God save the people; Thine they are,
Thy children, as Thine angels fair;
From vice, oppression, and despair
God save the people! Amen.

The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God.

mf SOLDIERS of the cross, arise!
Gird you with your armour bright;
Mighty are your enemies,
Hard the battle ye must fight.

2 O'er a faithless fallen world
Raise your banner in the sky;
c Let it float there wide unfurled;
Bear it onward; lift it high.

mf 3 'Mid the homes of want and woe,
Strangers to the living word,
Let the Saviour's herald go,
Let the voice of hope be heard.

4 Where the shadows deepest lie,
Carry truth's unsullied ray;
Where are crimes of blackest dye,
There the saving sign display.

p 5 To the weary and the worn
Tell of realms where sorrows cease;
To the outcast and forlorn
Speak of mercy and of peace.

mf 6 Guard the helpless; seek the strayed;
Comfort troubles; banish grief;
In the might of God arrayed,
Scatter sin and unbelief.

Unis. f 7 Be the banner still unfurled,
Still unsheathed the Spirit's sword,
Till the kingdoms of the world
Are the kingdom of the Lord. AMEN.

5.—THE LORD'S DAY.

St. Etheldreda. 237 T. Turton.

Call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable.

p MY Lord, my Love, was crucified;
He all the pains did bear;
c But in the sweetness of His rest
He makes His servants share.

mf 2 How sweetly rest Thy saints above,
Which in Thy bosom lie!
The Church below doth rest in hope
Of that felicity.

3 Blest day of God, most calm, most bright,
The first and best of days,
The labourer's rest, the saint's delight,
A day of mirth and praise!

4 Thou, Lord, Who daily feedst Thy Mak'st them a weekly feast; [sheep,
Thy flocks meet in their several folds
Upon this day of rest.

5 Welcome and dear unto my soul
Are these sweet feasts of love;
But what a Sabbath shall I keep,
When I shall rest above!

6 I bless Thy wise and wondrous love,
Which binds us to be free,
Which makes us leave our earthly snares
That we may come to Thee.

7 I come, I wait, I hear, I pray;
Thy footsteps, Lord, I trace;
c I sing to think this is the way
Unto my Saviour's face. AMEN.

[May be sung to 'Aurelia,' No. 171.]

This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

mf O DAY of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright!
On thee the high and lowly Before the eternal throne
p Sing, 'Holy, holy, holy!'
To the great Three in One.

mf 2 On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth;
On thee, for our salvation,
Christ rose from depths of earth;
c On thee our Lord victorious
The Spirit sent from heaven:
And thus on thee most glorious
A triple light was given.

mf 3 Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry dreary sand;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land.
A day of sweet refection
Thou art, a day of love,
A day of resurrection
From earth to things above.

4 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
f Where gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

mf 5 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest.
f To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
To Thee, blest Three in One. AMEN.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto Thy name, O Most High.

mf SWEET is the work, my God, my King,
To praise Thy name, give thanks, and sing,
To show Thy love by morning light,
And talk of all Thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest:
No mortal cares shall seize my breast;
O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound!

f 3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless His works, and bless His word:
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
How deep Thy counsels, how divine!

mf 4 And I shall share a glorious part
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

p 5 Sin, my worst enemy before,
Shall vex mine eyes and ears no more;
c My inward foes shall all be slain,
Nor Satan break my peace again.

f 6 Then shall I see and hear and know
All I desired or wished below,
And every power find sweet employ
In that eternal world of joy. AMEN.

The Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

m THIS is the day of light:
Let there be light to-day;
O Dayspring, rise upon our night,
And chase its gloom away.

2 This is the day of rest:
Our failing strength renew;
On weary brain and troubled breast Shed Thou Thy freshening dew.

p 3 This is the day of peace:
Thy peace our spirits fill;
Bid Thou the blasts of discord cease,
The waves of strife be still.

mf 4 This is the day of prayer:
Let earth to heaven draw near;
Lift up our hearts to seek Thee there;
Come down to meet us here.

Day of Praise. 241 C. Steggall.

Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house: they will be still praising Thee

[Evening.]

mf OUR day of praise is done;
The evening shadows fall;
p But pass not from us with the sun,
True Light That lightenest all!

mf 2 Around the throne on high,
Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
Bring ceaseless hymns to Thee.

p 3 Too faint our anthems here;
Too soon of praise we tire;
c But O the strains, how full and clear,
Of that eternal choir!

mf 4 Yet, Lord, to Thy dear will
If Thou attune the heart,
We in Thine angels' music still
May bear our lower part.

5 'T is Thine each soul to calm,
Each wayward thought reclaim,
And make our life a daily psalm
Of glory to Thy name.

f 6 A little while, and then Shall come the glorious end,
And songs of angels and of men
In perfect praise shall blend. Amen.

St. Clement. 242 C. C. Scholefield.

From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the Lord's name is to be praised.

[Evening.]

mf THE day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended;
The darkness falls at Thy behest;
c To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall hallow now our rest.

mf 2 We thank Thee that Thy Church unsleeping, While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.

3 As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.

4 The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
c And hour by hour fresh lips are making Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

Unis. f 5 So be it, Lord! Thy throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
But stand, and rule, and grow for ever,
Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway. Amen.

f THOU glorious Sun of Righteousness,
On this day risen to set no more,
Shine on us now to heal and bless
With brighter beams than e'er before.

mf 2 Shine on Thy work of grace within,
On each celestial blossom there;
Destroy each bitter root of sin,
And make Thy garden fresh and fair.

3 Shine on Thy pure, eternal word;
Its mysteries to my soul reveal;
And, whether read, remembered, heard,
O let it quicken, strengthen, heal.

f 4 Shine till Thy glorious beams shall chase
The blinding film from every eye,
Till every earthly dwelling-place

The Sabbath was made for man.

mp SWEET is the sunlight after rain,
And sweet the sleep which follows pain;
And sweetly steals the Sabbath rest
Upon the world's work-wearied breast.

2 Of heaven the sign, of earth the calm,
The poor man's birthright and his balm,
God's witness of celestial things,
A sun with healing in its wings,

c 3 New rising in this gospel time,
And in its sevenfold light sublime,
Blest day of God! we hail the dawn,
To gratitude and worship drawn.

f 4 O nought of gloom and nought of pride
Should with the sacred hours abide;
At work for God, in loved employ,
We lose the duty in the joy.

mp 5 Breathe on us, Lord; our sins forgive,
And make us strong in faith to live;
Our utmost, sorest need supply,
And make us strong in faith to die. AMEN.

Innocents. 245 Adapted from JOSEPH SMITH

I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise. with a multitude that kept holyday.

mf GREAT the joy when Christians meet!
Christian fellowship, how sweet,
When, their theme of praise the same,
They exalt Jehovah's name!

2 Sing we then eternal love,
Such as did the Father move:
d He beheld the world undone,
Loved the world, and gave His Son.

mf 3 Sing the Son's unbounded love,—
How He left the realms above,
Took our nature and our place,
Lived and died to save our race.

4 Sing we, too, the Spirit's love:
With our stubborn hearts He strove,
Chased the mists of sin away,
Turned our night to glorious day.

r 5 Great the joy, the union sweet,
When the saints in glory meet,—
Where the theme is still the same,
Where they praise Jehovah's name! AMEN.

We are His people, and the sheep of His pasture. Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise.

mf BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
Ye nations, bow with sacred joy;
Know that the Lord is God alone;
He can create, and He destroy.

2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men;
p And, when like wandering sheep we strayed,
c He brought us to His fold again.

mf 3 We are His people, we His care,
Our souls and all our mortal frame:
What lasting honours shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to Thy name?

c 4 We'll crowd Thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill Thy courts with sounding praise.

mf WORSHIP the Lord in the beauty of holiness;
Bow down before Him, His glory proclaim;
c Gold of obedience and incense of lowliness Bring, and adore Him; the Lord is His name!

mp 2 Low at His feet lay thy burden of carefulness;
High on His heart He will bear it for thee,
Comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayerfulness, Guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.

mf 3 Fear not to enter His courts in the slenderness
Of the poor wealth thou wouldst reckon as thine;
Truth in its beauty and love in its tenderness,
These are the offerings to lay on His shrine.

4 These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,

7.—BAPTISM.

St. Alkmund. 263 A Collection of Easy Litanies, &c., 1852.

[May be sung to 'Alstone,' No. 577.]

Suffer the little children to come unto Me.

1

mf A LITTLE Child the Saviour came,
The Mighty God was still His name;
And angels worshipped as He lay
The seeming infant of a day.

2

He Who, a little Child, began
The life Divine to show to man
Proclaims from heaven the message free,
'Let little children come to Me.'

3

mp We bring them, Lord, and with the sign
Of sprinkled water name them Thine:
Their souls with saving grace endow;
Baptize them with Thy Spirit now.

4

mf O give Thine angels charge, good Lord,
Them safely in Thy way to guard;
Thy blessing on their lives command,
And write their names upon Thy hand.

5

O Thou Who by an infant's tongue
Dost hear Thy perfect glory sung,
May these, with all the heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. AMEN.

W. Robertson.

Requiem. 264 W. SCHULTHES.

He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom.

1

mf GRACIOUS Saviour, gentle Shepherd, Little ones are dear to Thee;
Gathered with Thine arms and carried
In Thy bosom, may they be Sweetly, fondly, safely tended,
From all want and danger free.

2 p Tender Shepherd, never leave them

From Thy fold to go astray;
By Thy look of love directed,
May they walk the narrow way;
Thus direct them, and protect them,
Lest they fall an easy prey.

3

mf Let Thy holy word instruct them;
Fill their minds with heavenly light;
Let Thy love and grace constrain them
To approve whate'er is right,
Take Thine easy yoke and wear it,
And to prove Thy burden light.

4

Taught to lisp the holy praises
Which on earth Thy children sing,
Both with lips and hearts unfeignèd Glad thank-offerings may they bring,
c Then with all the saints in glory
f Join to praise their Lord and King.

AMEN.

Angels' Song. 265 Adapted from O. GIBBONS.

As long as he liveth he shall be lent to the Lord.

mf GOD of that glorious gift of grace
By which Thy people seek Thy face,
When in Thy presence we appear,
Vouchsafe us faith to venture near.

2 Confiding in Thy truth alone,
Here, on the steps of Jesus' throne,
We lay the treasure Thou hast given,
To be received and reared for heaven.

mp 3 Lent to us for a season, we Lend him for ever, Lord, to Thee,
c Assured that, if to Thee he live,
We gain in what we seem to give.

mf 4 Large and abundant blessings shed,
Warm as these prayers, upon his head;
And on his soul the dews of grace,
Fresh as these drops upon his face.

5 Make him and keep him Thine own child,
Meek follower of the Undefiled,
c Possessor here of grace and love,
Inheritor of heaven above. AMEN.

St. Peter. 266 A. R. Reinagle.

The promise is unto you, and to your children.

mf OUR children, Lord, in faith and prayer
We now devote to Thee;
Let them Thy covenant mercies share,
And Thy salvation see.

p 2 Such helpless babes Thou didst embrace,
While dwelling here below;
To us and ours, O God of grace,
The same compassion show.

mf 3 In early days their hearts secure
From worldly snares, we pray;
O let them to the end endure
In every righteous way. Amen.

With all-engaging charms;
Hark how He calls the tender lambs,
And folds them in His arms!

mp 2 'Permit them to approach,' He cries,
'Nor scorn their humble name;
For 't was to bless such souls as these
The Lord of angels came.'

mf 3 We bring them, Lord, in thankful hands,
And yield them up to Thee,
Joyful that we ourselves are Thine;
Thine let our offspring be. Amen.

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till He come.

mp BY Christ redeemed, in Christ restored,
We keep the memory adored,
And show the death, of our dear Lord
Until He come.

p 2 His body broken in our stead
Is here in this memorial bread,
And so our feeble love is fed
Until He come.

3 The drops of His dread agony,
His life-blood shed for us, we see;
The wine shall tell the mystery
Until He come.

mp 4 And thus that dark betrayal night
With the last advent we unite
By one blest chain of loving rite,
Until He come;

c 5 Until the trump of God be heard,
Until the ancient graves be stirred,
And with the great commanding word
The Lord shall come.

f 6 O blessèd hope! with this elate,
Let not our hearts be desolate,
But, strong in faith, in patience wait
Until He come. AMEN.

St. John, Westminster. 269 J. Tuble.

[May be sung to 'Dalehurst,' No. 394.]

This do in remembrance of Me.

mp ACCORDING to Thy gracious word
In meek humility,
This will I do, my dying Lord,
I will remember Thee.

2 Thy body, broken for my sake,
My bread from heaven shall be;
Thy testamental cup I take,
And thus remember Thee.

p 3 Gethsemane can I forget?
Or there Thy conflict see,
Thine agony and bloody sweat,
And not remember Thee?

4 When to the cross I turn mine eyes,
And rest on Calvary,
c O Lamb of God, my sacrifice,
I must remember Thee,—

p 5 Remember Thee, and all Thy pains,
And all Thy love to me!
c Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
Will I remember Thee.

p 6 And when these failing lips grow dumb,
And mind and memory flee,
c When Thou shalt in Thy kingdom come,
d Then, Lord, remember me. AMEN.

Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldest come under my roof.

mp I AM not worthy, holy Lord,
That Thou shouldst come to me;
Speak but the word; one gracious word
Can set the sinner free.

p 2 I am not worthy; cold and bare
The lodging of my soul;
How canst Thou deign to enter there?
c Lord, speak, and make me whole.

mp 3 I am not worthy; yet, my God,
How can I say Thee nay—
Thee, Who didst give Thy flesh and blood
My ransom price to pay?

mf 4 O come, in this sweet morning* hour
Feed me with food divine;
And fill with all Thy love and power
This worthless heart of mine. Amen.

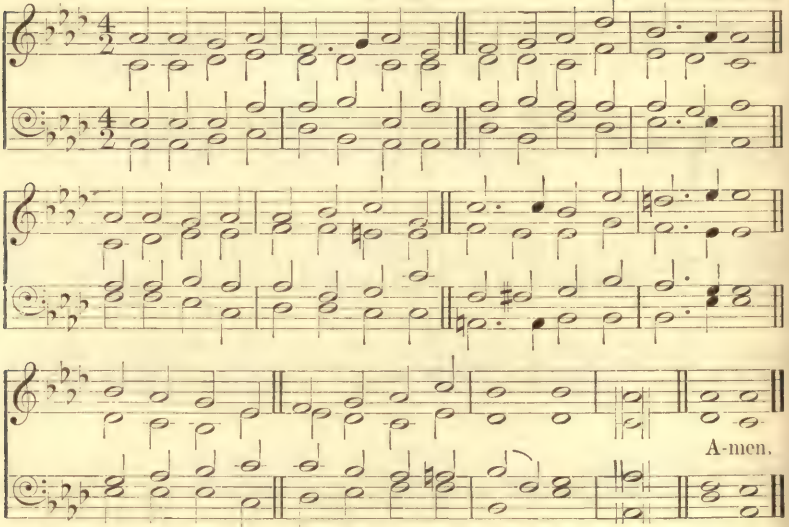
St. Raphael. 271

E. J. Hopkins.



God, even our own God, shall bless us.

mf NOW in parting, Father, bless us;
Saviour, still Thy peace bestow;
Gracious Comforter, be with us,
As we from this table go:
Bless us, bless us,
Father, Son, and Spirit, now.

2 Bless us here, while still as strangers
Onward to our home we move;
Bless us with eternal blessings
In our Father's house above,
Ever, ever,

I will come again, and receive you unto Myself.

mp 'TILL He come!' O let the words Linger on the trembling chords;
Let the little while between
In their golden light be seen;
Let us think how heaven and home
Lie beyond that 'Till He come.'

p 2 When the weary ones we love
Enter on their rest above,
Seems the earth so poor and vast,
All our life joy overcast?
d Hush! be every murmur dumb:
It is only till He come.

mp 3 Clouds and conflicts round us press;
Would we have one sorrow less?
All the sharpness of the cross,
All that tells the world is loss,
Death, and darkness, and the tomb
Only whisper, 'Till He come.'

mf 4 See, the feast of love is spread;
Drink the wine and break the bread,—
Sweet memorials, till the Lord
Call us round His heavenly board,
Some from earth, from glory some,
Severed only till He come. AMEN.

He brought me to the banqueting house, and His banner over me was love.

(PART I. BEFORE COMMUNION.)

mf HERE, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face;
Here would I touch and handle things unseen,
Here grasp with firmer hand the eternal grace,
And all my weariness upon Thee lean.

mp 2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God,
Here drink with Thee the royal wine of heaven,
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

mf 3 This is the hour of banquet and of song;
This is the heavenly table spread for me;
Here let me feast, and, feasting, still prolong
The brief, bright hour of fellowship with Thee. AMEN.

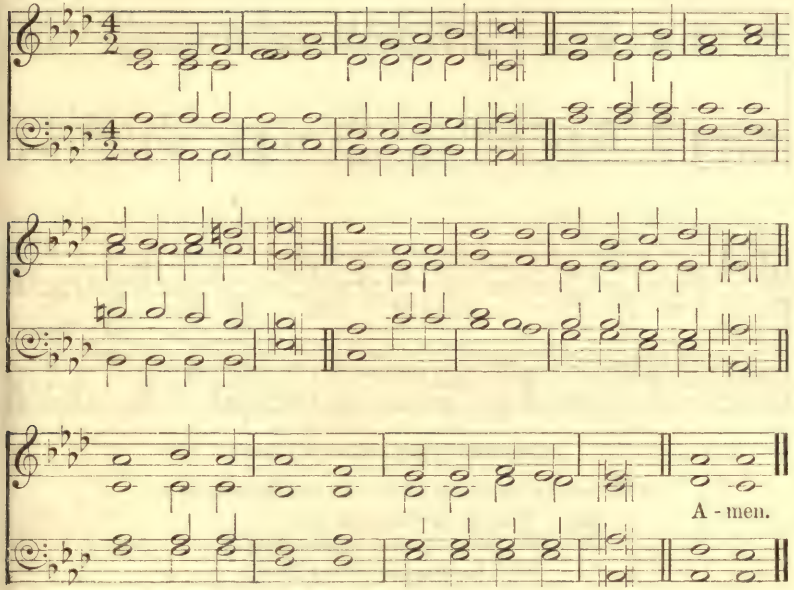
Ellers. E. J. HOPKINS.



(PART II. AFTER COMMUNION.)

mp 4 Too soon we rise; the symbols disappear;
The feast, though not the love, is passed and gone;
The bread and wine remove, but Thou art here,
Nearer than ever, still my Shield and Sun.

mf 5 I have no help but Thine; nor do I need Another arm save Thine to lean upon;
It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed;
My strength is in Thy might, Thy might alone.

6 I have no wisdom, save in Him Who is My Wisdom and my Teacher, both in one;
No wisdom can I lack while Thou art wise,
No teaching do I crave save Thine alone.

pc 7 Mine is the sin, but Thine the righteousness;
pc Mine is the guilt, but Thine the cleansing blood;
Here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace—
Thy blood, Thy righteousness, O Lord my God.

mf 8 But see! the pillar-cloud is rising now,
And moving onward through the desert night;
It beckons, and I follow, for I know
It leads me to Thy heritage of light. AMEN.

Whoso eateth My flesh, and drinketh My blood, hath eternal life.

mp JESUS, to Thy table led,
Now let every heart be fed
With the true and living Bread.

2 When we taste the mystic wine,
Of Thine outpoured blood the sign,
Fill our hearts with love divine.

p 3 While upon Thy cross we gaze, Mourning o'er our sinful ways,
c Turn our sadness into praise.

mp 4 Draw us to Thy wounded side,
Whence there flowed the healing tide;
There our sins and sorrows hide.

5 From the bonds of sin release;
Cold and wavering faith increase;
Lamb of God, grant us Thy peace.

mf 6 Lead us by Thy pierced hand,
Till around Thy throne we stand
In the bright and better land. AMEN.

Martyrdom. 276 H. WILSON.

[May be sung to 'St. Etheldreda,' No. 237.]

My flesh is meat indeed, and My blood is drink indeed.

mp O JESUS Christ, the Holy One,
I long to be with Thee;
O Jesus Christ, the lowly One,
c Come, and abide with me.

mf 2 Now, while the symbols of Thy love
Before Thy saints are set,
And Thou, descending from above,
Their yearning hearts hast met,

3 Come, and o'ershadow with Thy power
This lonely heart of mine;
And feed me in this solemn hour
With Thine own bread and wine.

4 My meat indeed, my drink indeed,
Art Thou, my gracious Lord:
Help Thou my soul by faith to feed
On this Thy precious word,

c 5 Till, nourished, strengthened, satisfied,
My glad and thankful heart
Forgets the things Thou hast denied
In those Thou dost impart. AMEN.

Rockingham. 277 Adapted by E. Miller.

The Lord Jesus the same night in which He was betrayed took bread.

p 'TWAS on that night when doomed to know
The eager rage of every foe,
That night in which He was betrayed,
The Saviour of the world took bread;

mf 2 And, after thanks and glory given
To Him That rules in earth and heaven,
That symbol of His flesh He broke,
And thus to all His followers spoke:

p 3 'My broken body thus I give
For you, for all; take, eat, and live;
And oft the sacred rite renew
That brings My wondrous love to view.'

mf 4 Then in His hands the cup He raised,
And God anew He thanked and praised,
While kindness in His bosom glowed,
And from His lips salvation flowed.

mp 5 'My blood I thus pour forth,' He cries,
'To cleanse the soul in sin that lies,
In this the covenant is sealed,
And Heaven's eternal grace revealed.

mf 6 'With love to man this cup is fraught;
Let all partake the sacred draught;
Through latest ages let it pour,
In memory of My dying hour.'

AMEN.

Agnus Dei. 278 Bohemian Chorale.
(Arr. by J. TURLE.)

Ye were redeemed, not with corruptible things, ... but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.

p LAMB of God, Whose bleeding love
We now recall to mind,
Send the answer from above,
And let us mercy find;
Think on us who think on Thee,
And every struggling soul release;
c O remember Calvary,
p And bid us go in peace.

2 By Thine agonizing pain
And bloody sweat, we pray,
By Thy dying love to man,
Take all our sins away:
mf Burst our bonds and set us free;
From all iniquity release;
c O remember Calvary,
p And bid us go in peace.

mf 3 Let Thy blood, by faith applied,
The sinner's pardon seal;
Speak us freely justified,
And all our sickness heal:
p By Thy passion on the tree,
Let all our griefs and troubles cease;
c O remember Calvary,
p And bid us go in peace.

mf 4 Lord, we would not hence depart
Till Thou our wants relieve,
Write forgiveness on our heart,
And all Thine image give.
Still our souls shall cry to Thee,
Till perfected in holiness,
c 'O remember Calvary,
p And bid us go in peace.' AMEN.

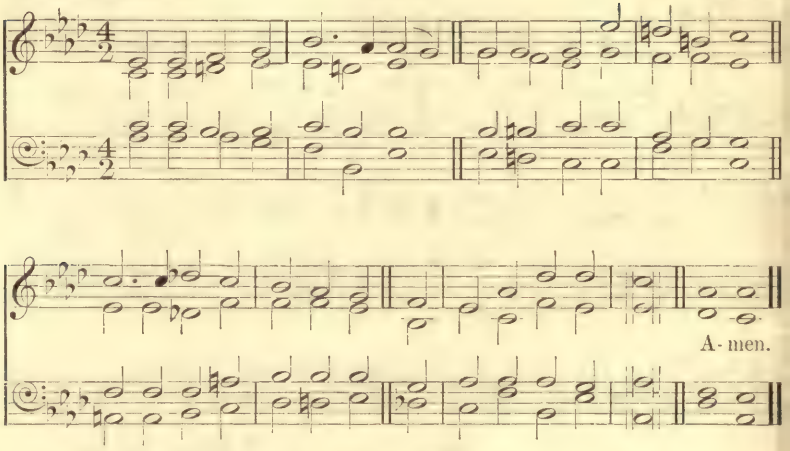
Gratias Agimus. 279 W. G. Alcock.



Jesus took bread, and blessed it. . . . And He took the cup, and gave thanks.

mf FOR the bread and for the wine,
For the pledge that seals Him mine,
For the words of love divine,
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.

2 For the feast of love and peace,
Bidding all our sorrows cease,
Earnest of the kingdom's bliss,
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.

3 Only bread and only wine,
Yet to faith the solemn sign
Of the heavenly and divine!
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.

mp 4 For the words that turn our eye
To the cross of Calvary,
Bidding us in faith draw nigh,
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.

mf 5 For that coming, here foreshown,
For that day to man unknown,
For the glory and the throne,
We give Thee thanks, O Lord. Amen.

[May be sung to 'Angels' Story,' No. 557.]

I sat down under His shadow with great delight, ... and His banner over me was love.

mf SIT down beneath His shadow,
And rest with great delight;
The faith that now beholds Him
Is pledge of future sight.
Our Master's love remember,
Exceeding great and free;
Lift up thy heart in gladness,
For He remembers thee.

2 Bring every weary burden,
Thy sin, thy fear, thy grief;
He calls the heavy-laden,
And gives them kind relief.
His righteousness all-glorious Thy festal robe shall be,
And love that passeth knowledge
His banner over thee.

3 A little while, though parted,
Remember, wait, and love,
c Until He comes in glory,
Until we meet above;
f Till in the Father's kingdom
The heavenly feast is spread,
And we behold His beauty
Whose blood for us was shed. AMEN.

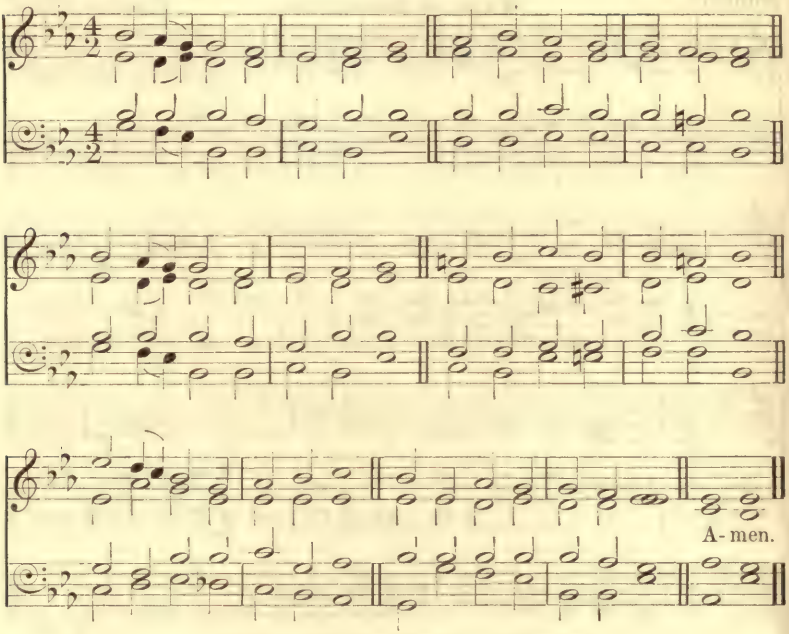
Bread of heaven. 281 W. D. Maclagan.



[May be sung to 'Mount Zion,' No. 352.]

Lord, evermore give us this bread.

mp BREAD of heaven, on Thee we feed,
For Thy flesh is meat indeed;
Ever may our souls be fed
With this true and living Bread,
Day by day with strength supplied
Through the life of Him Who died.

2 Vine of heaven, Thy blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice;
p Lord, Thy wounds our healing give,
To Thy cross we look and live:
c Jesus, may we ever be Grafted, rooted, built in Thee. AMEN.

1.—PENITENCE.

St. Werburgh. 282 R. P. Stewart.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

mf NO, not despairingly Come I to Thee;
No, not distrustingly
Bend I the knee.
Sin hath gone over me,
Yet is this still my plea,
Jesus hath died.

p 2 Lord, I confess to Thee
Sadly my sin;
All I am tell I Thee,
All I have been.
c Purge Thou my sin away;
Wash Thou my soul this day;
p Lord, make me clean.

mf 3 Faithful and just art Thou,
Forgiving all;
Loving and kind art Thou
When poor ones call.
Lord, let the cleansing blood,
Blood of the Lamb of God,
p Pass o'er my soul.

mf 4 Then all is peace and light
This soul within;
Thus shall I walk with Thee,
Loved though unseen,
Leaning on Thee, my God,
Guided along the road,
Nothing between. AMEN.

I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much.

p WEARY of earth, and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in;
But there no evil thing may find a home,
c And yet I hear a voice that bids me come.

p 2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land,
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
c Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.

f 3 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear;
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near,
And His the blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.

mf 4 O great Absolver, grant my soul may wear
The lowliest garb of penitence and prayer,
That in the Father's courts my glorious dress
May be the garment of Thy righteousness.

5 Yea, Thou wilt answer for me, righteous Lord!
Thine all the merits, mine the great reward;
d Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden crown;
Mine the life won, and Thine the life laid down.

mf 6 Nought can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe,
Yet let my full heart what it can bestow;
Like Mary's gift, let my devotion prove,
c Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love. Amen.

Munich. O Gott, du frommer Gott. Meiningisches Gesangbuch, 1693.

[May be sung to 'Day of Rest,' No. 234.]

My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

p I NEED Thee, precious Jesus,
For I am full of sin;
My soul is dark and guilty,
My heart is dead within:
mf I need the cleansing fountain,
Where I can always flee,
The blood of Christ most precious,
The sinner's perfect plea.

p 2 I need Thee, precious Jesus,
For I am very poor;
A stranger and a pilgrim,
I have no earthly store:
mf I need the love of Jesus
To cheer me on my way,
To guide my doubting footsteps,
To be my strength and stay.

p 3 I need Thee, precious Jesus;
I need a friend like Thee,
A friend to soothe and pity,
A friend to care for me:
I need the heart of Jesus
To feel each anxious care,
To tell my every trial,
And all my sorrows share.

mf 4 I need Thee, precious Jesus,
And hope to see Thee soon,
Encircled with the rainbow
And seated on Thy throne;
f There, with Thy blood-bought children,
My joy shall ever be
To sing Thy praises, Jesus, rall To gaze, my Lord, on Thee. AMEN.

He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

p WHEN, wounded sore, the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a pierced hand,
Can salve the sinner's wound.

2 When sorrow swells the laden breast,
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart, a broken heart,
Can feel the sinner's woe.

3 When penitence has wept in vain
Over some foul, dark spot,
One only stream, a stream of blood,
Can wash away the blot.

c 4 'T is Jesus' blood that washes white,
His hand that brings relief,
His heart that 's touched with all our joys,
And feeleth for our grief.

mf 5 Lift up Thy bleeding hand, O Lord;
Unseal that cleansing tide;
We have no shelter from our sin
But in Thy wounded side. AMEN.

Southwell. 286 DAMAN'S Psalms, 1579.

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us.

mp NOT what these hands have done
Can save this guilty soul;
Not what this toiling flesh has borne
Can make my spirit whole.

2 Not what I feel or do
Can give me peace with God;
d Not all my prayers and sighs and tears
Can bear my awful load.

mf 3 Thy work alone, O Christ,
Can ease this weight of sin;
Thy blood alone, O Lamb of God,
Can give me peace within.

4 Thy love to me, O God,
Not mine, O Lord, to Thee,
Can rid me of this dark unrest,
And set my spirit free.

5 Thy grace alone, O God,
To me can pardon speak;
Thy power alone, O Son of God,
Can this sore bondage break.

f 6 I bless the Christ of God;
I rest on love divine;
And, with unfaltering lip and heart,
I call this Saviour mine. AMEN.

Miserere. 287 W. H. Monk.

In that He Himself hath suffered being tempted, He is able to succour them that are tempted.

mp SAVIOUR, when in dust to Thee
Low we bend the adoring knee,
When, repentant, to the skies
Scarce we lift our weeping eyes,—
O, by all the pains and woe
Suffered once for man below,
Bending from Thy throne on high,
pp Hear our solemn litany!

mp 2 By Thy helpless infant years,
By Thy life of want and tears,
By Thy days of sore distress
In the savage wilderness,
By the dread mysterious hour
Of the insulting tempter's power,— Turn, O turn a favouring eye,
pp Hear our solemn litany!

mp 3 By the sacred grief that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept,
By the boding tears that flowed
Over Salem's loved abode,
By the anguished sigh that told Treachery lurked within Thy fold,—
From Thy seat above the sky,
pp Hear our solemn litany!

p 4 By Thy conflict with despair,
By Thine agony of prayer,
By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear, and torturing scorn,
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful sacrifice,— Listen to our humble cry,
pp Hear our solemn litany!

p 5 By Thy deep expiring groan,
By the sad sepulchral stone,
c By the vault whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God,—
O, from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty, re-ascended Lord,
Listen, listen to the cry
pp Of our solemn litany! AMEN.

St. Cyril. 288 A. Patton.

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

mf APPROACH, my soul, the mercy-seat,
Where Jesus answers prayer;
There humbly fall before His feet,
For none can perish there.

2 Thy promise is my only plea;
With this I venture nigh:
d Thou callest burdened souls to Thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.

p 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely pressed,
By war without and fears within,
I come to Thee for rest.

mf 4 Be Thou my shield and hiding-place
That, sheltered near Thy side,
c I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him Thou hast died.

f 5 O wondrous love! to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead Thy gracious name! Amen.

Balerma. 289 Adapted by R. Simpson.

Come, and let us return unto the Lord.

mf COME, let us to the Lord our God
With contrite hearts return;
Our God is gracious, nor will leave
The desolate to mourn.

2 His voice commands the tempest forth,
And stills the stormy wave;
And, though His arm be strong to smite,
'Tis also strong to save.

p 3 Long hath the night of sorrow reigned;
c The dawn shall bring us light:
God shall appear, and we shall rise
With gladness in His sight.

mf 4 Our hearts, if God we seek to know,
Shall know Him, and rejoice;
His coming like the morn shall be,
Like morning songs His voice.

5 As dew upon the tender herb,
Diffusing fragrance round,
As showers that usher in the spring
And cheer the thirsty ground,

f 6 So shall His presence bless our souls
And shed a joyful light;
That hallowed morn shall chase away
The sorrows of the night. Amen.

St. Mabyn. 290 A. H. Brown.

I will arise and go to my Father.

mf TAKE me, O my Father, take me!
Take me, save me, through Thy Son;
That which Thou wouldst have me make me;
Let Thy will in me be done.

p 2 Long from Thee my footsteps straying, Thorny proved the way I trod;
Weary come I now, and praying,
'Take me to Thy love, my God.'

3 Fruitless years with grief recalling,
Humbly I confess my sin,
At Thy feet, O Father, falling;
To Thy household take me in.

mf 4 Freely now to Thee I proffer
This relenting heart of mine;
Freely life and soul I offer,
Gift unworthy love like Thine.

5 Once the world's Redeemer, dying,
Bore our sins upon the tree;
On that sacrifice relying,
Now I look in hope to Thee.

f 6 Father, take me! all forgiving,
Fold me to Thy loving breast;
In Thy love for ever living,
I must be for ever blest! AMEN.

[May be sung to 'Riseholme,' No. 177.]

A broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.

mf THERE is a holy sacrifice
Which God in heaven will not despise; Nay more, Jehovah deigns to prize
d The contrite heart.

mf 2 That high and lofty One, Whose praise Inspires the rapt archangels' lays,
With favourable eye surveys
d The contrite heart.

mf 3 The Holy One, the Son of God.
His presence there will shed abroad,
And consecrate as His abode
d The contrite heart.

mf 4 The blessèd Spirit from on high
Will listen to its faintest sigh,
And heal and cheer and purify

[May be sung to 'Sharon,' No. 148.]

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

mp LORD, Thy mercy now entreating,
Low before Thy throne we fall;
Our misdeeds to Thee confessing,
On Thy name we humbly call.

2 Sinful thoughts and words unloving
Rise against us one by one;
Acts unworthy, deeds unthinking,
Good that we have left undone;

3 Hearts that far from Thee were straying,
While in prayer we bowed the knee;
Lips that, while Thy praises sounding,
Lifted not the soul to Thee;

mf 4 Precious moments idly wasted,
Precious hours in folly spent;
Christian vow and fight unheeded;
Scarce a thought to wisdom lent.

5 Lord, Thy mercy still entreating,
We with shame our sins would own;
c From henceforth, the time redeeming,
May we live to Thee alone.

mp 6 Heavenly Father, bless Thy children;
Hearken from Thy throne on high;
Loving Saviour, Holy Spirit,
Hear and heed our humble cry.

AMEN.

Wrogall. 294 E. J. Hopkins.

Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him.

mp SHOW pity, Lord:
For we are frail and faint;
p We fade away;
O list to our complaint!
We fade away
Like flowers in the sun;
We just begin,
And then our work is done.

mp 2 Show pity, Lord:
Our souls are sore distressed;
As troubled seas,
Our natures have no rest;
c As troubled seas
That, surging, beat the shore, mf We throb and heave Ever and evermore.

p 3 Show pity, Lord:
Our grief is in our sin;
We would be cleansed;
O make us pure within!
c We would be cleansed;
For this we cry to Thee;
mf Thy word of love
Can make the conscience free.

c 4 Show pity, Lord:
Inspire our hearts with love,—
That holy love
Which draws the soul above,
f That holy love
Which makes us one with Thee,
And with Thy saints,
Through all eternity. AMEN.

Elberfeld. Allein Gott in der Höh' sei Ehr'. N. Decius (?).

Our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until that He have mercy upon us.

Aus tiefer Noth schrei ich zu Dir.

mp FROM depths of woe I raise to Thee
The voice of lamentation;
Lord, turn a gracious ear to me,
And hear my supplication:
If Thou shouldst be extreme to mark
Each secret sin and misdeed dark,
p O who could stand before Thee?

mp 2 To wash away the crimson stain,
Grace, grace alone availeth ;
Our works, alas ! are all in vain ;
In much the best life faileth :
No man can glory in Thy sight,
All must alike confess Thy might,
And live alone by mercy.

c 3 Therefore my trust is in the Lord,
And not in mine own merit ;
On Him my soul shall rest, His word Upholds my fainting spirit :
mf His promised mercy is my fort,
My comfort and my sweet support ;
I wait for it with patience.

4 What though I wait the livelong night
And till the dawn appeareth,
My heart still trusteth in His might ;
It doubteth not, nor feareth :
So let the Israelite in heart,
Born of the Spirit, do his part,
And wait till God appeareth.

Unis. f 5 Although our sin is great indeed,
God's mercies far exceed it ;
His hand can give the help we need,
However much we need it :
He is the Shepherd of the sheep
Who Israel doth guard and keep,
And shall from sin redeem him. AMEN.

Luther, tr. R. Massie.

Ein' feste Burg. Ein' feste Burg ist unser Gott. M. LUTHER.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

f A SAFE stronghold our God is still,
A trusty shield and weapon;
He 'll help us clear from all the ill
That hath us now o'ertaken.
mf The ancient prince of hell
Hath risen with purpose fell;
Strong mail of craft and power
He weareth in this hour;
On earth is not his fellow.

2 With force of arms we nothing can,
Full soon were we down-ridden;
c But for us fights the proper Man, Whom God Himself hath bidden.
Ask ye who is this same?
f Christ Jesus is His name,
The Lord Sabaoth's Son;
He and no other one
Shall conquer in the battle.

3 And were this world all devils o'er
And watching to devour us,
We lay it not to heart so sore;
Not they can overpower us.
And let the prince of ill
Look grim as e'er he will,
He harms us not a whit;
For why, his doom is writ;
A word shall quickly slay him.

4 God's word, for all their craft and force,
One moment will not linger,
But, spite of hell, shall have its course;
'T is written by His finger.
mf And, though they take our life,
Goods, honour, children, wife,
Yet is their profit small;
These things shall vanish all,
f The city of God remaineth. AMEN.

A man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest.

mf JESUS, Lover of my soul,
Let me to Thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high.
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
O receive my soul at last!

mp 2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone;
Still support and comfort me.
c All my trust on Thee is stayed;
All my help from Thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of Thy wing.

mf 3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
More than all in Thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
p Just and holy is Thy name,
I am all unrighteousness;
False and full of sin I am,
c Thou art full of truth and grace.

mf 4 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin:
Let the healing streams abound;
Make and keep me pure within.
f Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of Thee;
Spring Thou up within my heart;
Rise to all eternity. AMEN.

Nor let my hope be lost.

3 I know that safe with Him remains,
Protected by His power,
What I've committed to His trust
Till the decisive hour.

[May be sung to 'Munich,' No. 284.]

Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee.

mf I LAY my sins on Jesus,
The spotless Lamb of God;
He bears them all, and frees us
From the accursèd load.
I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White in His blood most precious,
Till not a spot remains.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus;
All fulness dwells in Him;
He heals all my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem.
I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens, and my cares;
He from them all releases,
He all my sorrows shares.

p 3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine;
His right hand me embraces,
I on His breast recline.
c I love the name of Jesus,
Immanuel, Christ, the Lord;
Like fragrance on the breezes,
His name abroad is poured.

mf 4 I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy Child.
I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng,
f To sing with saints His praises,
To learn the angels' song. AMEN.

[May be sung to 'Winchester New,' No. 9.]

He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, He hath covered me with the robe of righteousness.

Christi Blut und Gerechtigkeit.

mf JESUS, Thy blood and righteousness
My beauty are, my glorious dress;
'Midst flaming worlds, in these arrayed,
With joy shall I lift up my head.

f 2 Bold shall I stand in Thy great day;
For who aught to my charge shall lay?
Fully absolved through these I am
From sin and fear, from guilt and shame.

mf 3 When from the dust of death I rise
To claim my mansion in the skies,
Even then, this shall be all my plea—
Jesus hath lived, hath died for me.

4 This spotless robe the same appears
When ruined nature sinks in years;
No age can change its constant hue;
Its glory is for ever new.

f 5 O let the dead now hear Thy voice,
Now bid Thy banished ones rejoice,—
Their beauty this, their glorious dress,
Jesus, Thy blood and righteousness. AMEN.

St. Bride. 301 S. Howard.

Behold, the Lamb of God, Which taketh away the sin of the world!

mf NOT all the blood of beasts,
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away the stain.

f 2 But Christ, the heavenly Lamb, Takes all our sins away,
A Sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.

mf 3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of Thine,
While like a penitent I stand
And there confess my sin.

p 4 My soul looks back to see
The burdens Thou didst bear
When hanging on the cursèd tree,
And hopes her guilt was there.

f 5 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing His bleeding love. Amen.

Trust (or Faith) (2nd Tune). J. B. DYKES.

I flee unto Thee to hide me.

mf ROCK of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From Thy riven side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure,
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

mp 2 Not the labours of my hands
Can fulfil the law's demands;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow,
All for sin could not atone;
c Thou must save, and Thou alone.

mf 3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to Thee for dress;
Helpless, look to Thee for grace;
Foul, I to the fountain fly;
c Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

p 4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
pp When my eyelids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See Thee on Thy judgment throne,
c Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee. AMEN.

They that know Thy name will put their trust in Thee.

mf JESUS, I will trust Thee,
Trust Thee with my soul,
Guilty, lost, and helpless;
Thou canst make me whole.
There is none in heaven
Or on earth like Thee:
Thou hast died for sinners—
Therefore, Lord, for me.

2 Jesus, I will trust Thee,
Name of matchless worth,
Spoken by the angel
At Thy wondrous birth,
p Written, and for ever,
On Thy cross of shame;
c Sinners read and worship,
Trusting in that name.

mf 3 Jesus, I will trust Thee,
Pondering Thy ways,
Full of love and mercy
All Thine earthly days.
Sinners gathered round Thee,
Lepers sought Thy face,
None too vile or loathsome
For a Saviour's grace.

f 4 Jesus, I will trust Thee,
Trust without a doubt;
Whosoever cometh
Thou wilt not cast out.
Faithful is Thy promise;
Precious is Thy blood;
These my soul's salvation,
Thou my Saviour God. Amen.

St. Magnus. 304 J. Clark.

If God be for us, who can be against us?

mf LET Christian faith and hope dispel
The fears of guilt and woe;
The Lord Almighty is our Friend,
And who can prove a foe?

2 He Who His Son, most dear and loved,
Gave up for us to die,
Shall He not all things freely give
That goodness can supply?

3 Behold the best, the greatest gift
Of everlasting love!
Behold the pledge of peace below
And perfect bliss above!

f 4 Where is the judge who can condemn,
Since God hath justified?
Who shall charge those with guilt or crime
For whom the Saviour died?

mf 5 The Saviour died, but rose again
Triumphant from the grave,
And pleads our cause at God's right hand,
Omnipotent to save.

6 Who then can e'er divide us more
From Jesus and His love,
Or break the sacred chain that binds
The earth to heaven above?

f 7 Let troubles rise, and terrors frown,
And days of darkness fall,
Through Him all dangers we'll defy,
And more than conquer all.

8 Nor death nor life, nor earth nor hell,
Nor time's destroying sway
Can e'er efface us from His heart,
Or make His love decay. Amen.

Trust. 305 G. W. TORRANCE.

He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

mf O HOLY Saviour, Friend unseen,
The faint, the weak, on Thee may lean:
Help me, throughout life's varying scene,
By faith to cling to Thee.

2 Blest with communion so divine,
Take what Thou wilt, shall I repine
When, as the branches to the vine,
My soul may cling to Thee?

mp 3 Far from her home, fatigued, oppressed,
Here she has found a place of rest,—
An exile still, yet not unblest
While she can cling to Thee.

4 What though the world deceitful prove,
And earthly friends and joys remove,
With patient, uncomplaining love
Still would I cling to Thee.

p 5 Oft when I seem to tread alone
Some barren waste with thorns o'ergrown,
A voice of love, in gentlest tone,
Whispers, 'Still cling to Me.'

mf 6 Though faith and hope awhile be tried,
I ask not, need not, aught beside;
How safe, how calm, how satisfied,
The souls that cling to Thee!

f 7 Blest is my lot, whate'er befall;
What can disturb me, who appal,
While, as my Strength, my Rock, my All,
Saviour, I cling to Thee? AMEN.

French. 306 Scottish Psalter, 1615.

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength.

mf HAST thou not known, hast thou not heard,
That firm remains on high
The everlasting throne of Him
Who formed the earth and sky?

2 Art thou afraid His power shall fail
When comes thy evil day?
And can an all-creating arm
Grow weary or decay?

f 3 Supreme in wisdom as in power
The Rock of Ages stands,
Though Him thou canst not see, nor trace
The working of His hands.

mf 4 He gives the conquest to the weak,
Supports the fainting heart;
And courage in the evil hour
His heavenly aids impart.

mp 5 Mere human power shall fast decay,
And youthful vigour cease;
c But they who wait upon the Lord
In strength shall still increase.

mf 6 They with unwearied feet shall tread
The path of life divine,
With growing ardour onward move,
With growing brightness shine.

f 7 On eagles' wings they mount, they soar—
Their wings are faith and love—
c Till, past the cloudy regions here,
They rise to heaven above. AMEN.

Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast.

Ich habe nun den Grund gefunden.

mf MY soul hath found the steadfast ground;
There ever shall my anchor hold:
That ground is in my Saviour Christ
Before the world was from of old;
And that sure ground shall be my stay
When heaven and earth shall pass away.

2 That ground is Thine eternal love,
Thy love which through all ages burns,
The open arms of mercy stretched
To meet the sinner who returns,
The love that calleth everywhere,
If men will hear or will forbear.

f 3 O deep, deep sea, where all our sins
By Christ are cast and found no more!
There is no condemnation now;
The Lord hath healed our deadly sore,
Because the voice of Jesus' blood
Still cries for mercy unto God.

mf 4 Lord Christ, Thou art my steadfast Rock,
So long as on the earth I dwell;
O may each thought and word and work
Of Thy redeeming mercy tell,
Till I shall sing to Thee above,
'O endless depth of saving love!'

Belmont. 308 Adapted from GARDINER'S Sacred Melodies, 1812 (?).

There shall be a fountain opened . . . for sin and for uncleanness.

mf THERE is a fountain filled with blood Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.

p 3 Dear dying Lamb, Thy precious blood Shall never lose its power
c Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved, to sin no more.

mf 4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

f 5 Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing Thy power to save, d When this poor lisping, stammering tongue Lies silent in the grave.

mf 6 Lord, I believe Thou hast prepared, Unworthy though I be,
For me a blood-bought, free reward,
A golden harp for me.

f 7 'T is strung and tuned for endless years,
And formed, by power Divine,
To sound in God the Father's ears
No other name but Thine.

In Thee, O Lord, do I put my trust.

mf I AM trusting Thee, Lord Jesus, Trusting only Thee,— Trusting Thee for full salvation,

p 2 I am trusting Thee for pardon:
At Thy feet I bow,
For Thy grace and tender mercy
Trusting now.

3 I am trusting Thee for cleansing
In the crimson flood,
Trusting Thee to make me holy
By Thy blood.

mf 4 I am trusting Thee to guide me;
Thou alone shalt lead,
Every day and hour supplying
All my need.

5 I am trusting Thee for power:
Thine can never fail;
Words which Thou Thyself shalt give me Must prevail.

c 6 I am trusting Thee, Lord Jesus;
Never let me fail;
I am trusting Thee for ever,
And for all. AMEN.

The Lord will provide.

mf THOUGH troubles assail
And dangers affright,
Though friends should all fail
And foes all unite,
c Yet one thing secures us,
Whatever betide,
The Scripture assures us
f The Lord will provide.

mf 2 The birds without barn
Or storehouse are fed;
From them let us learn
To trust for our bread;
His saints what is fitting Shall ne'er be denied,

Not knowing our way,
But faith makes us bold;
For, though we are strangers,
We have a good guide,
And trust, in all dangers,
f The Lord will provide.

mf 4 No strength of our own

Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out.

p JUST as I am, without one plea
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee, Whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,—
c Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

mf 5 Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

c 6 Just as I am—Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down—
Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

I live by the faith of the Son of God.

mf MY faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary, Saviour Divine ;
p Now hear me while I pray ;
Take all my guilt away ;
c O let me from this day
Be wholly Thine.

mf 2 May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire ;
p As Thou hast died for me,

p 3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my Guide ;
c Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside.

p 4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream

Without Me ye can do nothing.

nf I COULD not do without Thee,
O Saviour of the lost,
Whose precious blood redeemed me
At such tremendous cost;
Thy righteousness, Thy pardon,
Thy precious blood must be
My only hope and comfort,
My glory and my plea.

mp 2 I could not do without Thee:
I cannot stand alone,
I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own;
c But Thou, belovèd Saviour,
Art all in all to me,
And weakness will be power
If leaning hard on Thee.

mp 3 I could not do without Thee:
No other friend can read
The spirit's strange, deep longings,
Interpreting its need;
No human heart could enter
Each dim recess of mine,
And soothe, and hush, and calm it,
O blessèd Lord, but Thine.

p 4 I could not do without Thee:
For years are fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneness
The river must be passed;
c But Thou wilt never leave me,
And, though the waves roll high,
I know Thou wilt be near me, d And whisper, 'It is I.' AMEN.

mf 'TWIXT gleams of joy and clouds of doubt
Our feelings come and go;
Our best estate is tossed about
In ceaseless ebb and flow.
No mood of feeling, form of thought,
Is constant for a day;
c But Thou, O Lord, Thou changest not:
The same Thou art alway.

mf 2 I grasp Thy strength, make it mine own,
My heart with peace is blest;
p I lose my hold, and then comes down Darkness, and cold unrest.
mf Let me no more my comfort draw
From my frail hold of Thee,
In this alone rejoice with awe—
Thy mighty grasp of me.

3 Out of that weak, unquiet drift
That comes but to depart,
To that pure heaven my spirit lift
Where Thou unchanging art.
Lay hold of me with Thy strong grasp,
Let Thy almighty arm
In its embrace my weakness clasp,
And I shall fear no harm.

4 Thy purpose of eternal good
Let me but surely know;
On this I 'll lean—let changing mood
And feeling come or go—
f Glad when Thy sunshine fills my soul,
Not lorn when clouds o'ercast,
Since Thou within Thy sure control
Of love dost hold me fast. AMEN.

3.—PEACE AND HOPE.

Abridge. 317 I. Smith.

Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God.

mf BEHOLD the amazing gift of love
The Father hath bestowed
On us, the sinful sons of men,
To call us sons of God!

p 2 Concealed as yet this honour lies,
By this dark world unknown,
A world that knew not when He came,
Even God's eternal Son.

mf 3 High is the rank we now possess;
But higher we shall rise,
Though what we shall hereafter be
Is hid from mortal eyes.

4 Our souls, we know, when He appears,
Shall bear His image bright;
For all His glory, full disclosed,
Shall open to our sight.

f 5 A hope so great, and so divine,
May trials well endure,
And purge the soul from sense and sin,
As Christ Himself is pure.

I. Watts, alt.

St. Fulbert. 318 H. J. Gauntlett.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who according to His great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

f BLEST be the everlasting God,
The Father of our Lord;
Be His abounding mercy praised,
His majesty adored!

mf 2 When from the dead He raised His Son,
And called Him to the sky,
He gave our souls a lively hope
That they should never die.

3 To an inheritance divine
He taught our hearts to rise;
'T is uncorrupted, undefiled,
Unfading, in the skies.

4 Saints by the power of God are kept Till the salvation come;
We walk by faith as strangers here,
But Christ shall call us home. Amen.

I. Watts, sel. and alt.

Rest (or Elim). 319 W. H. Callcott.

The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in Him.

mf MY heart is resting, O my God,
I will give thanks and sing;
My heart is at the secret source
Of every precious thing.
Now the frail vessel Thou hast made
No hand but Thine shall fill;
d For the waters of the earth have failed,
And I am thirsty still.

mf 2 I thirst for springs of heavenly life,
And here all day they rise;
I seek the treasure of Thy love,
And close at hand it lies;
And a new song is in my mouth,
To long-loved music set:— s 'Glory to Thee for all the grace
I have not tasted yet;

mf 3 'Glory to Thee for strength withheld,
For want and weakness known,
And the fear that sends me to Thy breast
For what is most my own!'
I have a heritage of joy,
That yet I must not see;
But the hand that bled to make it mine
Is keeping it for me.

4 My heart is resting, O my God,
My heart is in Thy care;
s I hear the voice of joy and health Resounding everywhere.
f 'Thou art my portion, saith my soul,'
Ten thousand voices say,
And the music of their glad Amen
Will never die away. AMEN.

Pax Tecum (1st Tune). CHARLES VINCENT (after G. T. CALDBECK).

* Perfect Peace (2nd Tune). F. N. ABERNETHY.

Copyright, 1907, by F. N. Abernethy.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee.

mf p PEACE, perfect peace, in this dark world of sin?
The blood of Jesus whispers peace within.

mf p 2 Peace, perfect peace, by thronging duties pressed?
To do the will of Jesus, this is rest.

mf p 3 Peace, perfect peace, with sorrows surging round?
On Jesus' bosom nought but calm is found.

mf c 4 Peace, perfect peace, with loved ones far away?
In Jesus' keeping we are safe, and they.

mf c 5 Peace, perfect peace, our future all unknown?
Jesus we know, and He is on the throne.

p f 6 Peace, perfect peace, death shadowing us and ours?
Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.

mf 7 It is enough: earth's struggles soon shall cease,
And Jesus call us to heaven's perfect peace. AMEN. E. H. Bickersteth.

* SUGGESTION BY THE COMPOSER.—Verses 1 to 6: first line in unison by Tenors and Basses only; second line by all voices in harmony. Verse 7: in harmony throughout.

Bentley. 321 J. Hullah.

Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness.

mf SOMETIMES a light surprises
The Christian while he sings;
It is the Lord Who rises
With healing in His wings.
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.

mp 2 In holy contemplation
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new.
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say:—
c 'Even let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may,

mf 3 'It can bring with it nothing
But He will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing
Will clothe His people too.
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And He Who feeds the ravens
Will give His children bread.'

p 4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither
Their wonted fruit shall bear,
Though all the field should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there,
c Yet, God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice;
f For, while in Him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice. AMEN.

W. Cowper

Bucer. 322 Cantica Laudis, 1850.

The Lord is good unto them that wait for Him, to the soul that seeketh Him.

mf YOUR harps, ye trembling saints, Down from the willows take;
Loud to the praise of love Divine Bid every string awake.

2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.

3 His grace will to the end
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things nor things to come Shall quench the spark Divine.

p 4 When we in darkness walk,
Nor feel the heavenly flame,
c Then is the time to trust our God,
And rest upon His name.

mf 5 Soon shall our doubts and fears Subside at His control;
His loving-kindness shall break through
The midnight of the soul.

c 6 Wait till the shadows flee;
Wait thy appointed hour;
Wait till the Bridegroom of thy soul
f Reveals His love with power.

7 Blest is the man, O God,
That stays himself on Thee:
Who wait for Thy salvation, Lord,
Shall Thy salvation see. AMEN.

[May be sung to 'Newcastle,' No. 24.]

The work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

mf DEAR Lord and Father of mankind,
Forgive our foolish ways;
Reclothe us in our rightful mind;
In purer lives Thy service find,
In deeper reverence, praise.

2 In simple trust like theirs who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word Rise up and follow Thee.

mp 3 O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
O calm of hills above,
Where Jesus knelt to share with Thee
The silence of eternity, Interpreted by love!

p 4 With that deep hush subduing all
Our words and works that drown
The tender whisper of Thy call,
As noiseless let Thy blessing fall
As fell Thy manna down.

5 Drop Thy still dews of quietness Till all our strivings cease;
c Take from our souls the strain and stress,
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of Thy peace.

mf 6 Breathe through the heats of our desire Thy coolness and Thy balm;
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire, d O still small voice of calm! Amen.

I will love Thee, O Lord, my strength.

Ich will Dich lieben, meine Stärke.

mf THEE will I love, my strength, my tower;
Thee will I love, my joy, my crown;
Thee will I love with all my power,
In all Thy works, and Thee alone;
Thee will I love, till sacred fire
Fill my whole soul with pure desire.

2 I thank Thee, uncreated Sun,
That Thy bright beams on me have shined;
I thank Thee, Who hast overthrown
My foes, and healed my wounded mind;
I thank Thee, Whose enlivening voice
Bids my freed heart in Thee rejoice.

3 Uphold me in the arduous race,
Nor suffer me again to stray;
Strengthen my feet with steady pace
Still to press forward in Thy way,
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

c 4 Thee will I love, my joy, my crown; Thee will I love, my Lord, my God;
Thee will I love, beneath Thy frown
Or smile, Thy sceptre or Thy rod;

We are members of His body.

mf LORD Jesus, are we one with Thee?
O height, O depth of love!
d With Thee we died upon the tree,
c In Thee we live above.

mf 2 Such was Thy grace that for our sake
Thou didst from heaven come down,
Our human flesh and blood partake,
In all our misery, one.

p 3 Our sins, our guilt, in love Divine, Confessed and borne by Thee,
The gall, the curse, the wrath were Thine,

He drew me with the cords of love,
And thus He bound me to Him;
And round my heart still closely twine
Those ties which nought can sever,
c For I am His and He is mine
For ever and for ever.

p 2 I've found a Friend; O such a Friend!

Nun danket alle Gott. Praxis Pietatis Melica (1648?).

Now therefore, our God, we thank Thee, and praise Thy glorious name.

f NOW thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In Whom His world rejoices;
Who, from our mother's arms,
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

mf 2 O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessèd peace to cheer us,
And keep us in His grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
c And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

Unis. ff 3 All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and Him Who reigns
With Them in highest heaven,—
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. AMEN.

Rinkart, tr. C. Winkworth.

St. Andrew. 344 E. H. Thorne.

He saith unto them, Follow Me.

mf JESUS calls us: o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild restless sea,
Day by day His sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, 'Christian, follow Me.'—

2 As, of old, apostles heard it
By the Galilean lake,
Turned from home and toil and kindred
Leaving all for His dear sake.

3 Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, 'Christian, love Me more.'

p 4 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
'Christian, love Me more than these.'

mp 5 Jesus calls us: by Thy mercies, Saviour, may we hear Thy call,
c Give our hearts to Thy obedience,
Serve and love Thee best of all. Amen.

[May be sung to 'Dix,' No. 36.]

One is your Master, even Christ.

mf JESUS, Master, Whose I am,
Purchased, Thine alone to be,
By Thy blood, O spotless Lamb, Shed so willingly for me,
c Let my heart be all Thine own,
Let me live to Thee alone.

mf 2 Other lords have long held sway;
Now Thy name alone to bear,
Thy dear voice alone obey,
Is my daily, hourly prayer:
c Whom have I in heaven but Thee?
Nothing else my joy can be.

mf 3 Jesus, Master, I am Thine:
Keep me faithful, keep me near;
Let Thy presence in me shine
All my homeward way to cheer.
p Jesus, at Thy feet I fall,
c O be Thou my All in all. AMEN.

[May be sung to 'Dix,' No. 36.]

I am Thy servant; give me understanding, that I may know Thy testimonies.

mf JESUS, Master, Whom I serve.
Though so feebly and so ill,
Strengthen hand and heart and nerve
All Thy bidding to fulfil;
Open Thou mine eyes to see
All the work Thou hast for me.

2 Lord, Thou needest not, I know, Service such as I can bring;
c Yet I long to prove and show
Full allegiance to my King.
Thou an honour art to me;
Let me be a praise to Thee.

p 3 Jesus, Master, wilt Thou use
One who owes Thee more than all?
As Thou wilt! I would not choose;
c Only let me hear Thy call.
Jesus, let me always be
In Thy service glad and free. AMEN.

Brookfield. 347 T. B. Southgate.

[May be sung to 'Eden,' No. 189.]

Thou hast avouched the Lord this day to be thy God, and to walk in His ways.

f O HAPPY day, that fixed my choice
On Thee, my Saviour and my God!
Well may this glowing heart rejoice,
And tell its raptures all abroad.

2 O happy bond, that seals my vows
To Him Who merits all my love!
Let cheerful anthems fill His house,
While to that sacred shrine I move.

3 'T is done! the great transaction 's done!
I am my Lord's, and He is mine;
He drew me, and I followed on,
Charmed to confess the voice Divine.

mf 4 Now rest, my long-divided heart,
Fixed on this blissful centre, rest;
O who with earth would grudge to part,
When called with angels to be blest!

5 High heaven, that heard the solemn vow,
That vow renewed shall daily hear,
Till in life's latest hour I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear. Amen.

P. Doddridge.

St. Jude. 348 CHARLES VINCENT.

I live; and yet no longer I, but Christ liveth in me.

p OH, the bitter shame and sorrow,
That a time could ever be
When I let the Saviour's pity Plead in vain, and proudly answered, mf 'All of self, and none of Thee.'

p 2 Yet He found me: I beheld Him Bleeding on the accursed tree,
Heard Him pray, 'Forgive them, Father!'
d And my wistful heart said faintly, pp 'Some of self, and some of Thee.'

mf 3 Day by day His tender mercy,
Healing, helping, full and free,
Sweet and strong, and, ah! so patient,
Brought me lower, while I whispered,
p 'Less of self, and more of Thee.'

f 4 Higher than the highest heaven,
Deeper than the deepest sea,
Lord, Thy love at last hath conquered;
c Grant me now my supplication,
ff 'None of self, and all of Thee!' AMEN.

Thy life was given for me. 349

G. A. MACFARREN.

He died for all, that they which live should no longer live unto themselves, but unto Him Who for their sakes died and rose again.

mp THY life was given for me,
Thy blood, O Lord, was shed
That I might ransomed be
And quickened from the dead:
d Thy life was given for me;
What have I given for Thee?

mp 2 Long years were spent for me
In weariness and woe,
That through eternity
Thy glory I might know:
d Long years were spent for me;
Have I spent one for Thee?

mp 3 Thy Father's home of light,
Thy rainbow-circled throne,
Were left for earthly night,
For wanderings sad and lone:
d Yea, all was left for me;
Have I left aught for Thee?

p 4 Thou, Lord, hast borne for me
More than my tongue can tell
Of bitterest agony,
To rescue me from hell:
d Thou sufferedst all for me;
What have I borne for Thee?

mf 5 And Thou hast brought to me Down from Thy home above
Salvation full and free,
Thy pardon and Thy love:
d Great gifts Thou broughtest me;
What have I brought to Thee?

mf 6 O let my life be given,
My years for Thee be spent,
World-fetters all be riven,
And joy with suffering blent:
c Thou gav'st Thyself for me;
I give myself to Thee. AMEN.

The Lord . . . forsaketh not His saints; they are preserved for ever.

mf THINE for ever! God of love,
Hear us from Thy throne above;
Thine for ever may we be,
Here and in eternity.

2 Thine for ever! O how blest
They who find in Thee their rest!
Saviour, Guardian, Heavenly Friend,
O defend us to the end.

3 Thine for ever! Lord of life,
Shield us through our earthly strife;
Thou the Life, the Truth, the Way,
Guide us to the realms of day.

p 4 Thine for ever! Shepherd, keep These, Thy frail and trembling sheep;
Safe alone beneath Thy care,
Let us all Thy goodness share.

mf 5 Thine for ever! Thou our Guide,
All our wants by Thee supplied,
All our sins by Thee forgiven,
Led by Thee from earth to heaven. AMEN.

By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God.

mf TAKE my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee.
Take my moments and my days;
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

2 Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be Swift and beautiful for Thee.

3 Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King.
Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee.

4 Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose.

5 Take my will, and make it Thine;
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart: it is Thine own;
It shall be Thy royal throne.

6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure-store.

c Take myself, and I will be
f Ever, only, all, for Thee! AMEN.

How much owest thou unto my lord?

mf WHEN this passing world is done,
When has sunk yon glaring sun,
When we stand with Christ in glory,
Looking o'er life's finished story,
p Then, Lord, shall I fully know,
c Not till then, how much I owe.

mf 2 When I stand before the throne,
Dressed in beauty not my own,
When I see Thee as Thou art,
Love Thee with unsinning heart,
p Then, Lord, shall I fully know,
c Not till then, how much I owe.

f 3 When the praise of heaven I hear,
Loud as thunders to the ear,
Loud as many waters' noise,
Sweet as harp's melodious voice,
p Then, Lord, shall I fully know,
c Not till then, how much I owe.

mf 4 Even on earth, as through a glass,
Darkly, let Thy glory pass;
Make forgiveness feel so sweet;
Make Thy Spirit's help so meet;
p Even on earth, Lord, make me know
c Something of how much I owe.

mf 5 Chosen not for good in me,
Wakened up from wrath to flee,
Hidden in the Saviour's side,
By the Spirit sanctified,
p Teach me, Lord, on earth to show,
c By my love, how much I owe. AMEN.

Bethany. 353 H. Smart.

What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

mf JESUS, I my cross have taken,
All to leave, and follow Thee;
Destitute, despised, forsaken,
Thou from hence my all shalt be.
Perish every fond ambition,
All I 've sought or hoped or known:
c Yet how rich is my condition!
God and heaven are still my own.

p 2 Man may trouble and distress me;
'T will but drive me to Thy breast:
Life with trials hard may press me:
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
c O 't is not in grief to harm me,
While Thy love is left to me!
O 't were not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with Thee!

mf 3 Take, my soul, thy full salvation;
Rise o'er sin and fear and care;
Joy to find in every station
Something still to do or bear;
Think what Spirit dwells within thee,
What a Father's smile is thine,
What a Saviour died to win thee:
Child of heaven, shouldst thou repine?

f 4 Haste, then, on from grace to glory,
Armed by faith, and winged by prayer;
Heaven's eternal day 's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there.
Soon shall close thy earthly mission;
Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days,
Hope soon change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.
Amen.

Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in His statutes.

mf TRUE-HEARTED, whole-hearted, faithful, and loyal,
King of our lives, by Thy grace we will be!
Under Thy standard exalted and royal,
Strong in Thy strength, we will battle for Thee.

f Peal out the watchword, and silence it never,
Song of our spirits rejoicing and free:
'True-hearted, whole-hearted, now and for ever,
King of our lives, by Thy grace we will be!'

mf 2 True-hearted, whole-hearted! fullest allegiance
Yielding henceforth to our glorious King,
Valiant endeavour and loving obedience Freely and joyously now would we bring.

p 3 True-hearted! Saviour, Thou knowest our story;
Weak are the hearts that we lay at Thy feet,
Sinful and treacherous; yet, for Thy glory,
Heal them, and cleanse them from sin and deceit.

mf 4 Whole-hearted! Saviour, beloved and glorious,
Take Thy great power and reign Thou alone
Over our wills and affections victorious, Freely surrendered, and wholly Thine own.

AMEN.

Cœli enarrant gloriam. 355 R. P. Stewart.

He was lost, and is found.

f REDEEMED, restored, forgiven,
Through Jesus' precious blood,
Heirs of His home in heaven,
O praise our pardoning God!
Praise Him in tuneful measures
Who gave His Son to die;
c Praise Him Whose sevenfold treasures Enrich and sanctify!

p 2 Once on the dreary mountain
We wandered far and wide,
Far from the cleansing fountain,
Far from the piercèd side;
c But Jesus sought and found us,
And washed our guilt away;
With cords of love He bound us
To be His own for aye.

mf 3 Dear Master, Thine the glory
Of each recovered soul;
Ah! who can tell the story
Of love that made us whole?
Not ours, not ours the merit;
Be Thine alone the praise,
And ours a thankful spirit
To serve Thee all our days.

mp 4 Now keep us, Holy Saviour,
In Thy true love and fear;
And grant us of Thy favour
The grace to persevere,
è Till in Thy new creation,
Earth's time-long travail o'er,
We find our full salvation.
f And praise Thee evermore. AMEN.

6.—SUBMISSION AND COMFORT.

St. Helen. 356 W. Hately.

Return unto thy rest, O my soul.

Stille, mein Wille; dein Jesus hilft siegen.

mp BE still, my soul: the Lord is on thy side;
Bear patiently the cross of grief and pain;
Leave to thy God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
p c Be still, my soul: thy best, thy heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

mf 2 Be still, my soul: thy God doth undertake To guide the future as He has the past.
c Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
p c Be still, my soul: the waves and winds shall know
His voice Who ruled them while He dwelt below.

p 3 Be still, my soul: when dearest friends depart,
And all is darkened in the vale of tears,
c Then shalt thou better know His love, His heart,
Who comes to soothe thy sorrow and thy fears.
p c Be still, my soul: thy Jesus can repay
From His own fulness all He takes away.

mf 4 Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on
When we shall be for ever with the Lord,
f When disappointment, grief, and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
p c Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past,
All safe and blessèd we shall meet at last. AMEN.

Seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not.

mf FATHER, I know that all my life
Is portioned out for me;
The changes that are sure to come
I do not fear to see;
I ask Thee for a present mind,
Intent on pleasing Thee.

2 I ask Thee for a thoughtful love,
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
p To wipe the weeping eyes,
A heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize.

mf 3 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,
Seeking for some great thing to do,
Or secret thing to know;
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.

4 Wherever in the world I am,
In whatsoe'er estate,
I have a fellowship with hearts
To keep and cultivate,
A work of lowly love to do
For Him on Whom I wait.

5 I ask Thee for the daily strength
To none that ask denied,
A mind to blend with outward life
While keeping at Thy side,
Content to fill a little space,
If Thou be glorified.

6 In service which Thy will appoints
There are no bonds for me;
My inmost heart is taught the truth
That makes Thy children free;
A life of self-renouncing love
Is perfect liberty. AMEN.

Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him; and He shall bring it to pass.

Befiehl du deine Wege.

mf COMMIT thou all thy griefs
And ways into His hands,
To His sure truth and tender care,
Who earth and heaven commands.

2 Who points the clouds their course,
Whom winds and seas obey,
He shall direct thy wandering feet,
He shall prepare thy way.

3 Thou on the Lord rely,
So safe shalt thou go on;
Fix on His work thy steadfast eye,
So shall thy work be done.

4 No profit canst thou gain
By self-consuming care;
To Him commend thy cause: His ear
d Attends the softest prayer.

mf 5 Give to the winds thy fears;
Hope, and be undismayed;
God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.

6 Through waves and clouds and storms
He gently clears thy way:
Wait thou His time; so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.

7 Leave to His sovereign sway
To choose and to command;
So shalt thou, wondering, own His way
How wise, how strong His hand. Amen.

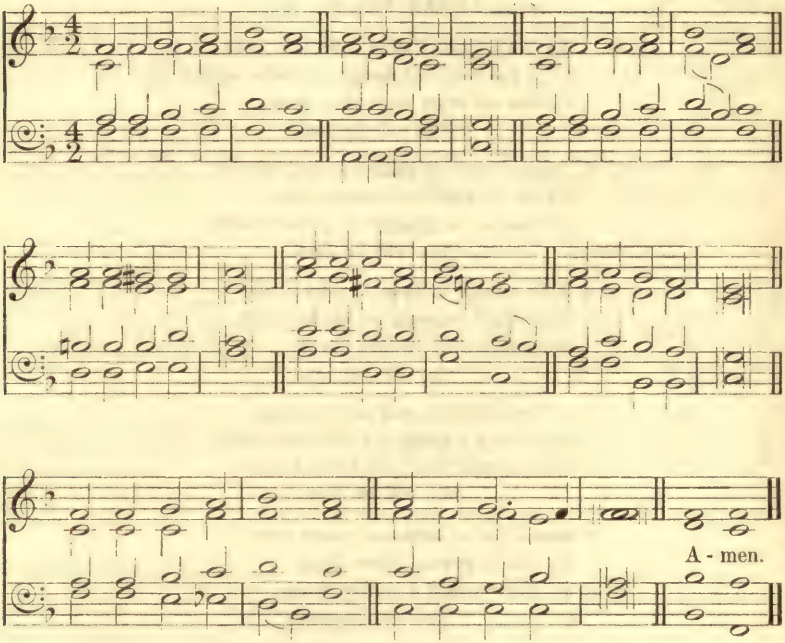
St. Mary Magdalene. 360 J. B. Dykes.



I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not.

mp IN the hour of trial,
Jesus, pray for me,
Lest by base denial
I depart from Thee;
When Thou seest me waver,
With a look recall,
Nor for fear or favour
Suffer me to fall.

2 With its witching pleasures
Would this vain world charm,
Or its sordid treasures Spread to work me harm,— p Bring to my remembrance Sad Gethsemane,
Or, in darker semblance,
Cross-crowned Calvary.

mp 3 If with sore affliction
Thou in love chastise,
Pour Thy benediction
O'er the sacrifice;
Then, upon Thine altar
Freely offered up,
Though the flesh may falter,
Faith shall drink the cup.

p 4 When in dust and ashes
To the grave I sink,
c While heaven's glory flashes
O'er the shelving brink, mp On Thy truth relying Through that mortal strife, Lord, receive me, dying,
c To eternal life. AMEN.

Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

mf LORD, it belongs not to my care

2 If life be long, I will be glad,
That I may long obey;

To welcome endless day?

p 3 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than He went through before;
He that into God's kingdom comes Must enter by this door.

mf 4 Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet Thy blessèd face to see;
For, if Thy work on earth be sweet,

More angel-like than this.

4 He always wins who sides with God;
To him no chance is lost;

Innsbruck. O Welt, ich muss dich lassen. H. Isaac.

Be not therefore anxious for the morrow.

mf O LORD, how happy should we be
If we could cast our care on Thee,
If we from self could rest,
And feel at heart that One above,
In perfect wisdom, perfect love,
Is working for the best!

p 2 How far from this our daily life,
Ever disturbed by anxious strife,
By sudden, wild alarms!
c O could we but relinquish all Our earthly props, and simply fall mf On Thine almighty arms!

3 Could we but kneel and cast our load,
Even while we pray, upon our God,
Then rise with lightened cheer,
Sure that the Father, Who is nigh
To still the famished raven's cry,
Will hear in that we fear!

4 We cannot trust Him as we should;
So chafes weak nature's restless mood
To cast its peace away;
Yet birds and flowerets round us preach;
All, all the present evil teach Sufficient for the day.

5 Lord, make these faithless hearts of ours
Such lessons learn from birds and flowers;
Make them from self to cease,
Leave all things to a Father's will,
d And taste, before Him lying still,
Even in affliction, peace. AMEN.

Not what I will, but what Thou will.

mp THY way, not mine, O Lord,
However dark it be!
Lead me by Thine own hand;
Choose out the path for me.

2 Smooth let it be or rough,
It will be still the best;
Winding or straight, it leads Right onward to Thy rest.

p 3 I dare not choose my lot;
I would not if I might:
c Choose Thou for me, my God;
So shall I walk aright.

mp 4 The kingdom that I seek
Is Thine; so let the way
That leads to it be Thine,
Else I must surely stray.

5 Take Thou my cup, and it
With joy or sorrow fill,
As best to Thee may seem:
Choose Thou my good and ill;

6 Choose Thou for me my friends,
My sickness or my health;
Choose Thou my cares for me,
My poverty or wealth.

mf 7 Not mine, not mine the choice
In things or great or small;
c Be Thou my Guide, my Strength,
My Wisdom, and my All. Amen.

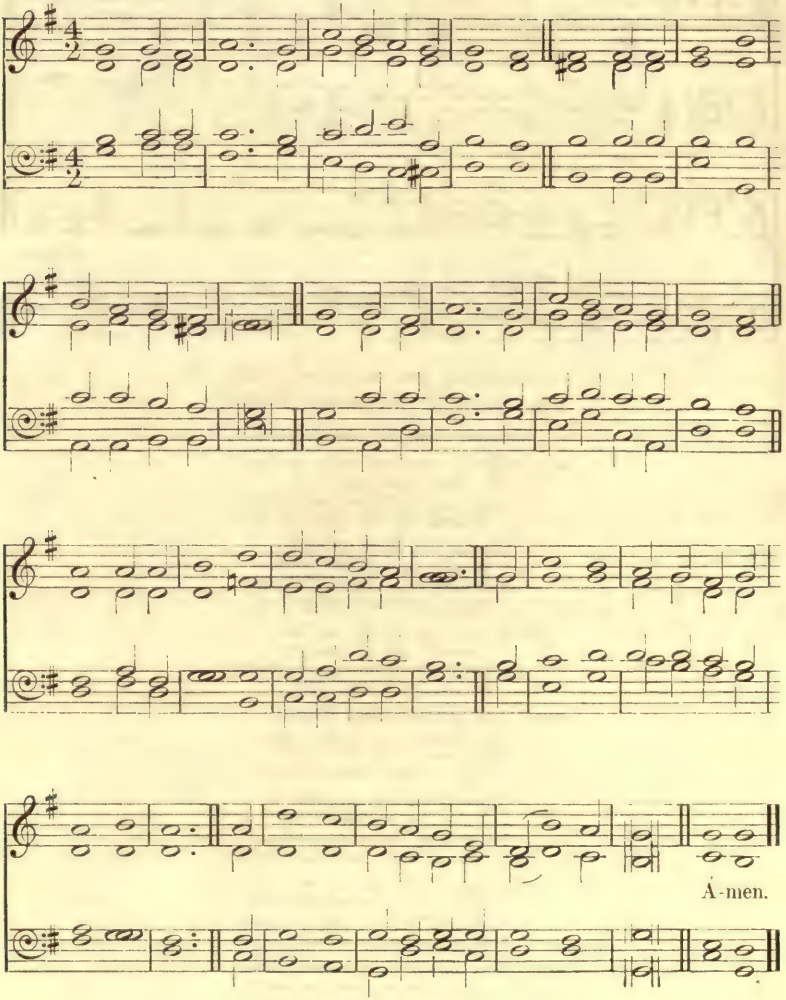
Warrenne (Thou knowest, Lord). O. R. Barnicott.



Copyright by W. Garrett Horder.

He knoweth the way that I take.

mp THOU knowest, Lord, the weariness and sorrow
Of the sad heart that comes to Thee for rest;
Cares of to-day, and burdens for to-morrow,
Blessings implored, and sins to be confessed,—
We come before Thee at Thy gracious word,
And lay them at Thy feet: Thou knowest, Lord.

2 Thou knowest all the past: how long and blindly
On the dark mountains the lost wanderer strayed;
c How the good Shepherd followed, and how kindly
He bore it home, upon His shoulders laid,
And healed the bleeding wounds, and soothed the pain
And brought back life and hope and strength again.

mp 3 Thou knowest all the present: each temptation,
Each toilsome duty, each foreboding fear;
All to each one assigned of tribulation,
Or to belovèd ones than self more dear;
d All pensive memories, as we journey on,
Longings for vanished smiles and voices gone.

mp 4 Thou knowest all the future: gleams of gladness
By stormy clouds too quickly overcast;
Hours of sweet fellowship, and parting sadness,
p And the dark river to be crossed at last;
c O what could hope and confidence afford To tread that path, but this, 'Thou knowest, Lord'

mf 5 Therefore we come, Thy gentle call obeying,
And lay our sins and sorrows at Thy feet,
On everlasting strength our weakness staying,
Clothed in Thy robe of righteousness complete:
c Then rising and refreshed we leave Thy throne,
And follow on to know as we are known. AMEN.

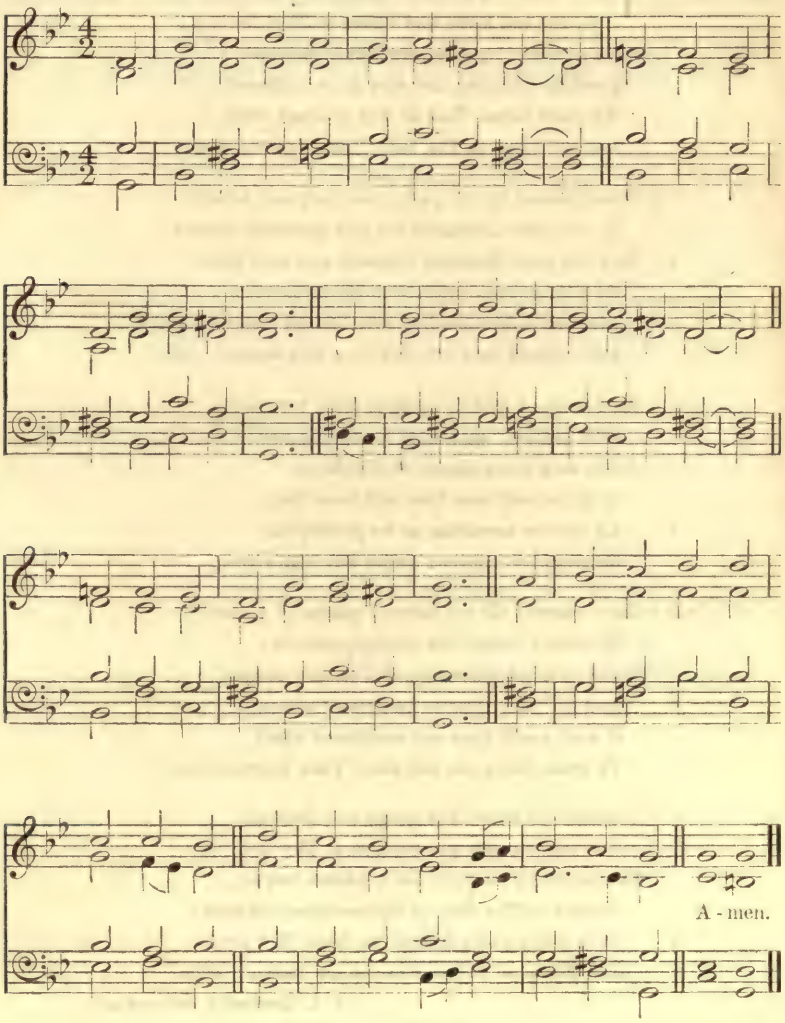
Neumark. Wer nur den lieben Gott lässt walten. G. Neumark.



In Whom we trust that He will yet deliver us.

mf IF thou but suffer God to guide thee,
And hope in Him through all thy ways,
He'll give thee strength, whate'er betide thee,
And bear thee through the evil days;
Who trusts in God's unchanging love
Builds on the rock that nought can move.

p 2 What can these anxious cares avail thee,
These never-ceasing moans and sighs?
What can it help if thou bewail thee
O'er each dark moment as it flies?
Our cross and trials do but press
The heavier for our bitterness.

mf 3 Only be still, and wait His leisure
In cheerful hope, with heart content
To take whate'er thy Father's pleasure
And all-discerning love have sent;
Nor doubt our inmost wants are known
To Him Who chose us for His own.

4 All are alike before the Highest;
'T is easy for our God, we know,
To raise thee up though low thou liest,
To make the rich man poor and low;
True wonders still by Him are wrought
Who setteth up and brings to nought.

f 5 Sing, pray, and keep His ways unswerving;
So do thine own part faithfully,
And trust His word,—though undeserving,
Thou yet shalt find it true for thee;
God never yet forsook at need
The soul that trusted Him indeed. AMEN.

Neumark, tr. C. Winkworth, sel. and alt.

The following also are suitable:—

31 The Lord is King: lift up thy voice.

7.—ASPIRATION AND PRAYER.

Henryd. 372 J. A. Lloyd.

[May be sung to 'Bethany,' No. 353.]

In nothing be anxious; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

mf WHAT a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!

p O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
c All because we do not carry Everything to God in prayer!

p 2 Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
c We should never be discouraged;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

mf Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

p 3 Are we weak and heavy-laden, Cumbered with a load of care?
c Precious Saviour, still our refuge!
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

p Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
c Take it to the Lord in prayer:
mf In His arms He 'll take and shield thee;
Thou wilt find a solace there. AMEN.

Whatsoever ye shall ask in My name, that will I do.

mf COME, my soul, thy suit prepare;
Jesus loves to answer prayer;
He Himself has bid thee pray,
Therefore will not say thee nay.

2 Thou art coming to a King;
Large petitions with thee bring;
For His grace and power are such,
None can ever ask too much.

p 3 With my burden I begin:
Lord, remove this load of sin;
Let Thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.

mf 4 Lord, I come to Thee for rest;
Take possession of my breast;
There Thy blood-bought right maintain,
And without a rival reign.

5 While I am a pilgrim here,
Let Thy love my spirit cheer;
As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
Lead me to my journey's end.

6 Show me what I have to do;
Every hour my strength renew;
Let me live a life of faith;
Let me die Thy people's death. AMEN.

My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God.

mf FOR Thee, my God, for Thee alone,
My spirit longs with ardent love;
On earth beside Thee there is none,
And none but Thee in heaven above.

2 Fulfil, O God, my heart's desires;
While I look up, look down to bless;
Each holy wish Thy grace inspires
May I in Thy deep love possess.

p 3 My soul cleaves heavy to the dust,
c But Thou canst raise and set it free;
And then, in calm and joyful trust,
It soars from earth to heaven and Thee.

p 4 Now in this stillness, as the breath
Of prayer steals upward to the skies,
c O give my soul the wings of faith,
That it to Thee may gladly rise;

mf 5 That, breaking through each fleshly link
Which binds its being to the clod,
s At life's clear wellspring it may drink,
Rejoicing in the smile of God. Amen.

The God of peace . . . make you perfect in every good work to do His will.

mf FATHER of peace and God of love,
We own Thy power to save,
That power by which our Shepherd rose Victorious o'er the grave.

2

Him from the dead Thou broughtst again,
When by His sacred blood Confirmed and sealed for evermore
The eternal covenant stood.

3

mp O may Thy Spirit seal our souls,
And mould them to Thy will,
That our weak hearts no more may stray,
But keep Thy precepts still;

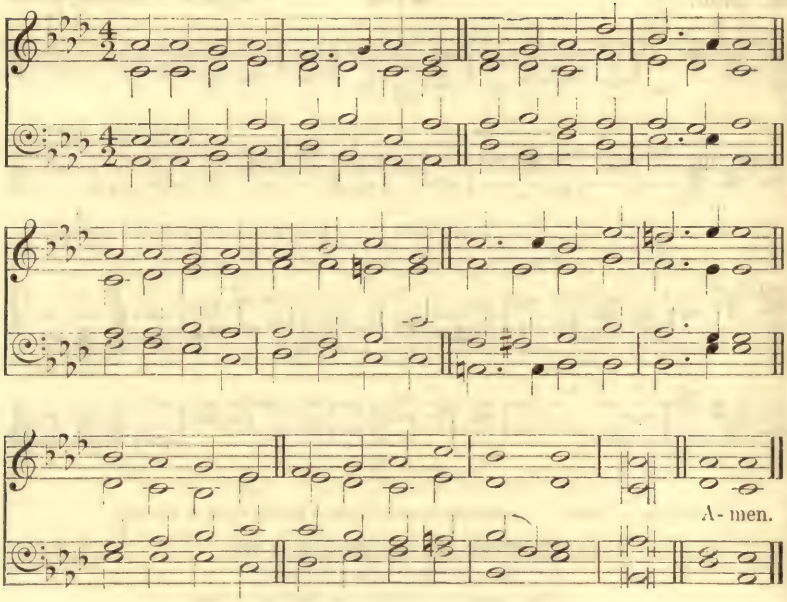
St. Raphael. 376 E. J. Hopkins.



Let my supplication come before Thee: deliver me according to Thy word.

mf JESUS, Lord of life and glory,
Bend from heaven Thy gracious ear;
While our waiting souls adore Thee,
Friend of helpless sinners, hear:
d By Thy mercy,
c O deliver us, good Lord!

mf 2 From the depth of nature's blindness,
From the hardening power of sin,
From all malice and unkindness,
From the pride that lurks within,
d By Thy mercy,
c O deliver us, good Lord!

p 3 When temptation sorely presses,
In the day of Satan's power,
In our times of deep distresses,
In each dark and trying hour,
d By Thy mercy,
c O deliver us, good Lord!

mf 4 When the world around is smiling,
In the time of wealth and ease,
Earthly joys our hearts beguiling,
In the day of health and peace,
d By Thy mercy,
c O deliver us, good Lord!

p 5 In the weary hours of sickness,
In the times of grief and pain,
When we feel our mortal weakness,
When the creature's help is vain,
d By Thy mercy,
c O deliver us, good Lord!

pp 6 In the solemn hour of dying,
In the awful judgment day,
c May our souls, on Thee relying,
Find Thee still our Rock and Stay:
d By Thy mercy,
c O deliver us, good Lord! AMEN.

Remember me, O Lord, with the favour that Thou bearest unto Thy people: O visit me with Thy salvation.

mf LORD, I hear of showers of blessing

Showers the thirsty land refreshing;
Let some drops now fall on me,
Even me.

2 Pass me not, O gracious Father, Sinful though my heart may be!
Thou mightst leave me, but the rather Let Thy mercy light on me,

He dreamed and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

mf NEARER, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!
Even though it be a cross
That raiseth me,
c Still all my song would be.
'Nearer, my God, to Thee,
d Nearer to Thee!'

p 2 Though, like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
c Yet in my dreams I'd be Nearer, my God, to Thee,
d Nearer to Thee!

mf 3 There let the way appear Steps unto heaven,
All that Thou sendest me
In mercy given,
Angels to beckon me
c Nearer, my God, to Thee,
d Nearer to Thee!

mf 4 Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise;
c So by my woes to be Nearer, my God, to Thee,
d Nearer to Thee!

There I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy-seat.

mf FROM every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
p 'T is found beneath the mercy-seat.

mf 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place than all beside more sweet;
p It is the blood-stained mercy-seat.

mf 3 There is a spot where spirits blend,
And friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet Around one common mercy-seat.

p 4 Ah! whither could we flee for aid
When tempted, desolate, dismayed,
Or how the host of hell defeat,
Had suffering saints no mercy-seat?

Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation.

mf O FOR a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

p 2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and His word?

3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
d But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

mf 4 Return, O Holy Dove! return, Sweet messenger of rest!
d I hate the sins that made Thee mourn
And drove Thee from my breast.

mf 5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.

6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb. Amen.

Verborgne Gottesliebe du.

mf THOU hidden love of God, whose height,

I see from far thy beauteous light,
Inly I sigh for thy repose;
My heart is pained, nor can it be
At rest till it finds rest in thee.

2 Thy secret voice invites me still
The sweetness of thy yoke to prove;
And fain I would; but, though my will Vigil. 398 A. Patton.

We are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch.

f HARK! 't is the watchman's cry,
Wake, brethren, wake!
Jesus our Lord is nigh;
Wake, brethren, wake!
Sleep is for sons of night;
Ye are children of the light;
Yours is the glory bright;
Wake, brethren, wake!

mf 2 Call to each waking band,
Watch, brethren, watch!
Clear is our Lord's command;
Watch, brethren, watch!
Be ye as men that wait
Always at the Master's gate,
Even though He tarry late;
Watch, brethren, watch!

3 Heed we the Master's call,
Work, brethren, work!
There 's room enough for all;
Work, brethren, work!
This vineyard of the Lord
Constant labour will afford;
Yours is a sure reward;
Work, brethren, work!

mp 4 Hear we the Saviour's voice,
Pray, brethren, pray!
Would ye His heart rejoice?
Pray, brethren, pray!
Sin calls for constant fear;
Weakness needs the Strong One near,
Long as ye struggle here;
Pray, brethren, pray!

f 5 Sound now the final chord,
Praise, brethren, praise!
Thrice holy is our Lord;
Praise, brethren, praise!
What more befits the tongues
Soon to join the angels' songs,
While heaven the note prolongs?
Praise, brethren, praise! Amen.

O Lord, truly I am Thy servant: . . . Thou hast loosed my bonds.

O hochbeglückte Seele.

nf HOW blessèd, from the bonds of sin
And earthly fetters free,
In singleness of heart and aim Thy servant, Lord, to be;
The hardest toil to undertake
With joy at Thy command,
The meanest office to receive
With meekness at Thy hand;

2 With willing heart and longing eyes
To watch before Thy gate,
Ready to run the weary race,
To bear the heavy weight;
No voice of thunder to expect,
But follow calm and still;
For love can easily divine
The one Belovèd's will!

p 3 Thus may I serve Thee, gracious Lord;
Thus ever Thine alone,
My soul and body given to Thee,
The purchase Thou hast won;
Through evil or through good report
Still keeping by Thy side;
c And by my life, or by my death,
Let Christ be magnified.

mf 4 How happily the working days
In this dear service fly!
How rapidly the closing hour,
The time of rest, draws nigh,
c When all the faithful gather home,
A joyful company,
And ever where the Master is
Shall His blest servants be! AMEN.

Rescue the perishing. 400 W. H. Doane.

Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that My house may be filled.

mf RESCUE the perishing, care for the dying,
Snatch them in pity from sin and the grave;
Weep o'er the erring one, lift up the fallen;
c Tell them of Jesus, the mighty to save.
f Rescue the perishing, care for the dying;
Jesus is merciful, Jesus will save.

mf 2 Though they are slighting Him, still He is waiting, Waiting the penitent child to receive;
Plead with them earnestly, plead with them gently;
He will forgive if they only believe.

p 3 Down in the human heart, crushed by the tempter, Feelings lie buried that grace can restore;
Touched by a loving heart, wakened by kindness,
c Chords that were broken will vibrate once more.

mf 4 Rescue the perishing! duty demands it:
Strength for thy labour the Lord will provide;
Back to the narrow way patiently win them;
Tell the poor wanderer a Saviour has died.

Let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

mf GO, labour on; spend and be spent,— Thy joy to do the Father's will;
It is the way the Master went;
Should not the servant tread it still?
Go, labour on; your hands are weak,
Your knees are faint, your soul cast down;

c Yet falter not; the prize you seek
Is near,—a kingdom and a crown.

mf 2 Go, labour on while it is day; [on;
The world's dark night is hastening
Speed, speed thy work; cast sloth away;
It is not thus that souls are won.

p Men die in darkness at your side,
Without a hope to cheer the tomb;

c Take up the torch and wave it wide,
The torch that lights time's thickest gloom.

mf 3 Toil on, faint not, keep watch, and pray;
Be wise the erring soul to win;

c Go forth into the world's highway, Compel the wanderer to come in.

f Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice;
For toil comes rest, for exile home;
Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
The midnight peal, 'Behold, I come!'

If any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth.

mf LORD, speak to me, that I may speak
In living echoes of Thy tone;
As Thou hast sought, so let me seek d Thy erring children lost and lone.

mf 2 O lead me, Lord, that I may lead
The wandering and the wavering feet;
O feed me, Lord, that I may feed
Thy hungering ones with manna sweet.

f 3 O strengthen me, that, while I stand Firm on the rock and strong in Thee,
I may stretch out a loving hand
To wrestlers with the troubled sea.

mf 4 O teach me, Lord, that I may teach
The precious things Thou dost impart;
And wing my words, that they may reach
The hidden depths of many a heart.

p 5 O give Thine own sweet rest to me,
That I may speak with soothing power
A word in season, as from Thee,
To weary ones in needful hour.

Then said I, Here am I ; send me.

f HARK ! the voice of Jesus crying,
'Who will go and work to-day ?'
Fields are white, and harvest waiting,
Who will bear the sheaves away ?
Loud and strong the Master calleth,
Rich reward He offers thee ;
Who will answer, gladly saying,
'Here am I ; send me, send me' ?

mf 2 If you cannot cross the ocean
And the heathen lands explore,

Will be precious in His sight.

3 If you cannot be the watchman
Standing high on Zion's wall,
Pointing out the path to heaven,
Offering life and peace to all,
With your prayers and with your bounties
You can do what Heaven demands ;
You can be like faithful Aaron
Holding up the prophet's hands.

My servants shall sing for joy of heart.

mf O LORD of life, and love, and power,

Then teach us, whatsoe'er betide,

Forward into battle,
See! His banners go.

ff Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

f 2 At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee:
On then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise.

f 3 Like a mighty army Moves the Church of God;
mf Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod.
We are not divided:
All one body we,—
c One in hope, in doctrine,
One in charity.

p 4 Crowns and thrones may perish, Kingdoms rise and wane,
c But the Church of Jesus Constant will remain;
f Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.

f 5 Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng;
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph-song:
'Glory, laud, and honour
Unto Christ the King!'
This, through countless ages,
Men and angels sing.
AMEN.

Smart. 422 H. Smart.

Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward.

mf 'FORWARD!' be our watchword, Steps and voices joined;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind:
Burns the fiery pillar
At our army's head;
Who shall dream of shrinking,
By our Captain led?
f Forward through the desert,
Through the toil and fight;
Jordan flows before us,
Zion beams with light.

mf 2 Forward, when in childhood
Buds the infant mind;
All through youth and manhood,
Not a thought behind:
Speed through realms of nature,
Climb the steps of grace;
Faint not, till in glory
Gleams the Father's face.
f Forward, all the life-time:
Climb from height to height,
Till the head be hoary,
Till the eve be light.

mf 3 Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours:
Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold,
Flows the gladdening river,
Shedding joys untold.
f Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit's might;
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light!

Unis. 4 To the eternal Father
Loudest anthems raise,
To the Son and Spirit
Echo songs of praise;
To the Lord of glory,
Blessèd Three in One,
Be by men and angels
Endless honour done.
Weak are earthly praises,
Dull the songs of night;
e Forward into triumph,
ff Forward into light!

AMEN.

Armageddon. Wenn ich Ihn nur habe. Adapted by J. Goss.

Who is on the Lord's side?

f WHO is on the Lord's side?
Who will serve the King?
Who will be His helpers
Other lives to bring?
Who will leave the world's side?
Who will face the foe?
Who is on the Lord's side?
Who for Him will go?
p By Thy call of mercy,
c By Thy grace Divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
f Saviour, we are Thine.

mf 2 Not for weight of glory,
Not for crown and palm,
Enter we the army,
Raise the warrior psalm,
p But for love that claimeth Lives for whom He died;
c He whom Jesus nameth Must be on His side.
f By Thy love constraining,
By Thy grace Divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
Saviour, we are Thine.

p 3 Jesus, Thou hast bought us,
Not with gold or gem,
But with Thine own life-blood
c For Thy diadem.
With Thy blessing filling
Each who comes to Thee,
Thou hast made us willing,
Thou hast made us free.
f By Thy grand redemption,
By Thy grace Divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
Saviour, we are Thine.

mf 4 Fierce may be the conflict,
Strong may be the foe,
c But the King's own army
None can overthrow.
Round His standard ranging,
Victory is secure,
For His truth unchanging Makes the triumph sure.
f Joyfully enlisting,
By Thy grace Divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
Saviour, we are Thine.

mf 5 Chosen to be soldiers
In an alien land,
Chosen, called, and faithful,
For our Captain's band,
In the service royal Let us not grow cold;
f Let us be right loyal,
Noble, true, and bold.
mf Master, Thou wilt keep us,
By Thy grace Divine,
c Always on the Lord's side,
f Saviour, always Thine.

AMEN.

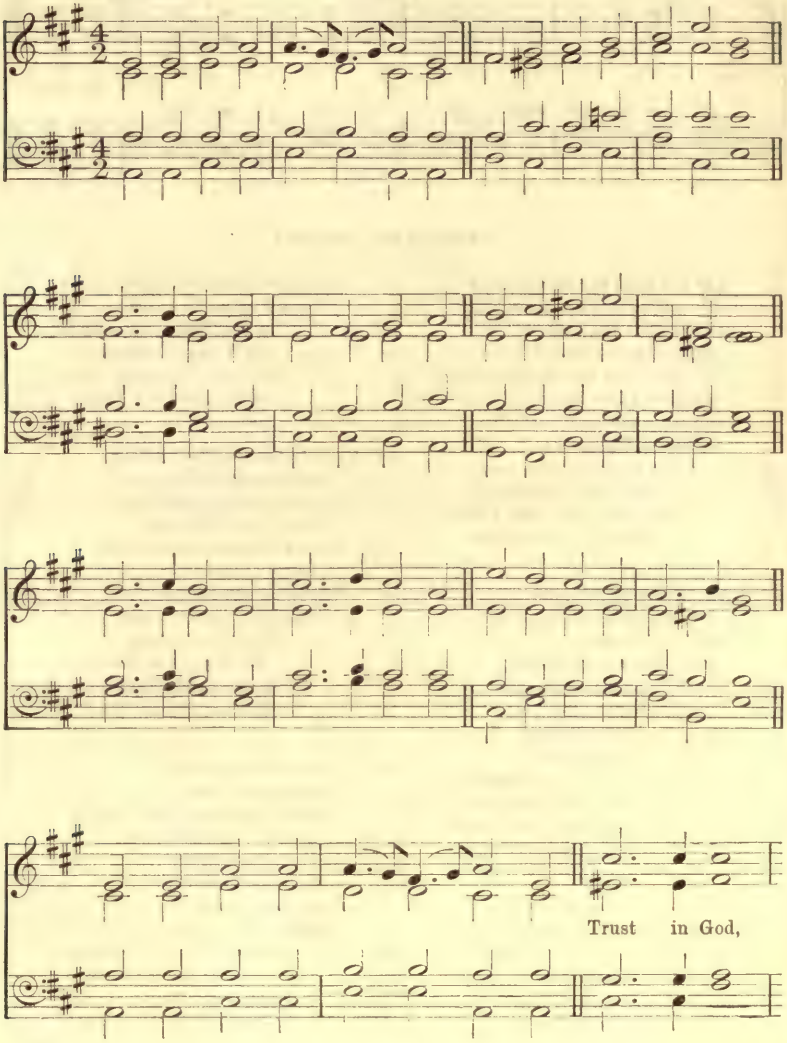
Courage, Brother. 424

ARTHUR SULLIVAN.



By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

f COURAGE, brother! do not stumble,
Though thy path be dark as night;
mf There's a star to guide the humble:
'Trust in God, and do the right.'
Let the road be rough and dreary,
And its end far out of sight,
f Foot it bravely; strong or weary,
Trust in God, and do the right.

mf 2 Perish policy and cunning,
Perish all that fears the light!
Whether losing, whether winning,
Trust in God, and do the right.
Trust no party, sect, or faction;
Trust no leaders in the fight;
f But in every word and action
Trust in God, and do the right.

mf 3 Trust no lovely forms of passion,— Fiends may look like angels bright;
Trust no custom, school, or fashion:
Trust in God, and do the right.
Some will hate thee, some will love thee,
Some will flatter, some will slight;
Cease from man, and look above thee:
f Trust in God, and do the right.

mf 4 Simple rule, and safest guiding,
Inward peace, and inward might,
Star upon our path abiding,—
Trust in God, and do the right.
f Courage, brother! do not stumble,
Though thy path be dark as night;
There's a star to guide the humble:
'Trust in God, and do the right.' AMEN.

Hull (1st Tune). 425 Old Melody.

Westminster College (2nd Tune).

Abridged from KÖPPHEL'S Psalmen und Geistliche Lieder, Strasburg, 1537. (Ps. 113.)

[When the second tune is sung, the last verse may be in unison.]

Shall not God avenge His own elect, which cry day and night unto Him?

Verzage nicht, du Häuflein klein.

mf FEAR not, O little flock, the foe
Who madly seeks your overthrow;
Dread not his rage and power;
What though your courage sometimes faints,
His seeming triumph o'er God's saints
Lasts but a little hour.

2 Be of good cheer; your cause belongs
To Him Who can avenge your wrongs;
Leave it to Him, our Lord:
Though hidden yet from all our eyes,
He sees the Gideon who shall rise
To save us and His word.

f 3 As true as God's own word is true,
Nor earth nor hell with all their crew
Against us shall prevail:
A jest and byword are they grown;
God is with us, we are His own;
Our victory cannot fail.

mf 4 Amen! Lord Jesus, grant our prayer;
Great Captain, now Thine arm make bare,
Fight for us once again;
ff So shall Thy saints and martyrs raise
A mighty chorus to Thy praise,
World without end. Amen. AMEN.

Stand up for Jesus. 427

J. Barnby.

[May be sung to 'Morning Light,' No. 224.]

Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

mf STAND up, stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner,
It must not suffer loss.
f From victory unto victory
His army shall He lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

mf 2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus!
The trumpet-call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict
In this His glorious day!
Ye that are men, now serve Him Against unnumbered foes;
f Your courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

mf 3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus!
Stand in His strength alone:
d The arm of flesh will fail you;
Ye dare not trust your own.
f Put on the gospel armour;
Each piece put on with prayer:
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

mf 4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song.
Unis. f To him that overcometh
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally. AMEN.

Pentecost. 429 W. Boyd.

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

mf FIGHT the good fight
With all thy might;
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right.
Lay hold on life, and it shall be Thy joy and crown eternally.

2 Run the straight race
Through God's good grace,
Lift up thine eyes, and seek His face;
Life with its way before us lies;
c Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

mf 3 Cast care aside;
Upon thy Guide
Lean, and His mercy will provide,— Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

4 Faint not, nor fear;
His arms are near;
He changeth not, and thou art dear;
c Only believe, and thou shalt see
That Christ is all in all to thee.

J. S. B. Monsell.

The following also are suitable:—

174 Lord of our life, and God of our salvation.
229 Lift up your heads, ye gates of brass.
236 Soldiers of the cross, arise!
296 A safe stronghold our God is still.
461 Who are these, like stars appearing?
687 Now Israel may say (Ps. 124).

10.—PILGRIMAGE AND REST.

Marlborough. 430 Anon.

[May be sung to 'O Perfect Love,' No. 529.]

Again a little while, and ye shall see Me.

mf O FOR the peace which floweth as a river,
Making life's desert places bloom and smile!
O for the faith to grasp heaven's bright 'for ever,' Amid the shadows of earth's 'little while':—

p 2 A little while for patient vigil-keeping,
To face the stern, to wrestle with the strong;
A little while, to sow the seed with weeping,
c Then bind the sheaves and sing the harvest song;

mf 3 A little while, the earthen pitcher taking
To wayside brooks, from far-off fountains fed;
Then the cool lip its thirst for ever slaking
Beside the fulness of the fountain-head;

4 A little while, to keep the oil from failing;
A little while, faith's flickering lamp to trim,—
c And then, the Bridegroom's coming footsteps hailing, f To haste to meet Him with the bridal hymn.

mf 5 And He Who is Himself the Gift and Giver,
The future glory and the present smile,
With the bright promise of the glad 'for ever'
Will light the shadows of the 'little while.' AMEN.

Pilgrims. 431 H. Smart.

With gladness and rejoicing shall they be led: they shall enter into the King's palace.

mf HARK! hark, my soul! angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore:
How sweet the truth those blessèd strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!

p Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
c Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

mf 2 Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
p 'Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come':
mf And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.

p 3 Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,
And laden souls, by thousands meekly stealing,
c Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.

mf 4 Rest comes at length; though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn and darksome night be past;
All journeys end in welcomes to the weary,
c And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

Unis. mf 5 Angels, sing on, your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above,
c Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

Jesu, geh' voran.

mf JESUS, still lead on,
Till our rest be won;
And, although the way be cheerless,
We will follow, calm and fearless;
Guide us by Thy hand
To our fatherland.

p 2 If the way be drear,
If the foe be near,
Let not faithless fears o'ertake us,
c Let not faith and hope forsake us,
For, through many a foe,
To our home we go.

p 3 When we seek relief
From a long-felt grief,
When oppressed by new temptations,
c Lord, increase and perfect patience;
Show us that bright shore
Where we weep no more.

mf 4 Jesus, still lead on,

Whittier. 442 F. K. March.

Copyright, 1905, by W. Garrett Horder.

If the earthly house of our tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens.

mp WHEN on my day of life the night is falling,
And, in the winds from unsunned spaces blown,
I hear far voices out of darkness calling
My feet to paths unknown,

2 Thou Who hast made my home of life so pleasant, Leave not its tenant when its walls decay;
c O Love Divine, O Helper ever present,
Be Thou my strength and stay.

mp 3 Be near me when all else is from me drifting,— Earth, sky, home's pictures, days of shade and shine,
And kindly faces to my own uplifting
The love which answers mine.

4 I have but Thee, my Father; let Thy Spirit
Be with me then to comfort and uphold;
No gate of pearl, no branch of palm I merit,
Nor street of shining gold.

5 Suffice it if—my good and ill unreckoned,
And both forgiven through Thy abounding grace—
I find myself by hands familiar beckoned
Unto my fitting place,—

6 Some humble door among Thy many mansions,
Some sheltering shade where sin and striving cease,
c And flows for ever through heaven's green expansions
The river of Thy peace.

mf 7 There from the music round about me stealing
I fain would learn the new and holy song,
And find at last, beneath Thy trees of healing,
The life for which I long. AMEN.

The Lord our God be with us, as He was with our fathers.

mf O GOD of Bethel, by Whose hand

Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led,

2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before Thy throne of grace;
c God of our fathers, be the God
Of their succeeding race.

p 3 Through each perplexing path of life
Our wandering footsteps guide;

Till all our wanderings cease,
And at our Father's loved abode
Our souls arrive in peace.

5 Such blessings from Thy gracious hand
Our humble prayers implore,

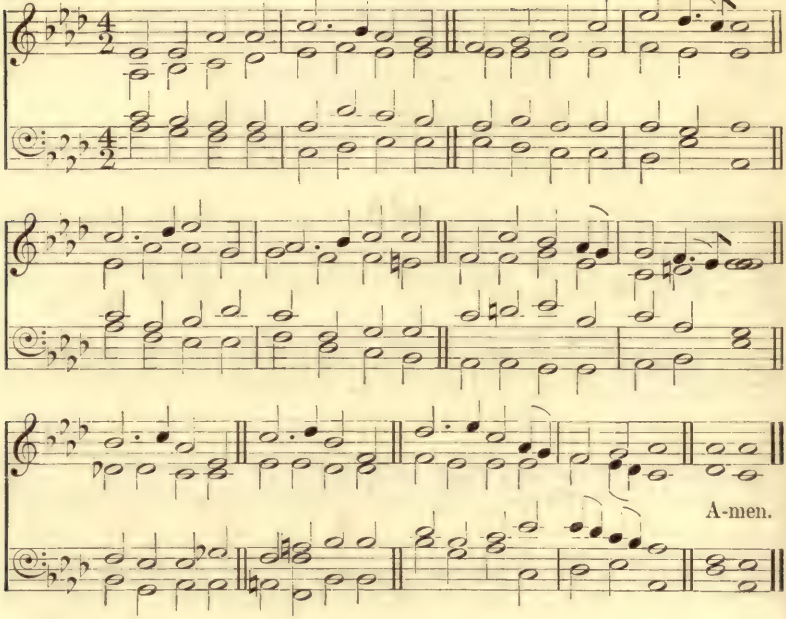
Feniton Court. 444 E. J. Hopkins.



My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

mf LEAD us, Heavenly Father, lead us
O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but Thee,
Yet possessing
Every blessing,
If our God our Father be.

p 2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us;
All our weakness Thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
Lone and dreary,
Faint and weary,
Through the desert Thou didst go.

mf 3 Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
Love with every passion blending, Pleasure that can never cloy:
c Thus provided,
Pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy. AMEN.

[May be sung to 'Ellers,' No. 274.]

Teach me Thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

mf LEAD us, O Father, in the paths of peace:
mp Without Thy guiding hand we go astray,
And doubts appal, and sorrows still increase;
mf Lead us through Christ, the true and living Way.

2 Lead us, O Father, in the paths of truth:
mp Unhelped by Thee, in error's maze we grope,
While passion stains and folly dims our youth,
And age comes on uncheered by faith or hope.

mf 3 Lead us, O Father, in the paths of right:
mp Blindly we stumble when we walk alone,
Involved in shadows of a darkening night;
mf Only with Thee we journey safely on.

4 Lead us, O Father, to Thy heavenly rest, However rough and steep the pathway be,
c Through joy or sorrow, as Thou deemest best,
Until our lives are perfected in Thee. Amen.

11.—DEATH AND RESURRECTION.

Evan. 446 W. H. Havergal.

If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with Him.

mp TAKE comfort, Christians, when your friends
In Jesus fall asleep;
Their better being never ends;
Why then dejected weep?

c 2 Why inconsolable, as those
To whom no hope is given?
Death is the messenger of peace,
And calls the soul to heaven.

mf 3 As Jesus died, and rose again Victorious from the dead,
So His disciples rise, and reign
With their triumphant Head.

4 The time draws nigh when from the clouds
Christ shall with shouts descend,
And the last trumpet's awful voice
The heavens and earth shall rend.

5 Then they who live shall changèd be,
And they who sleep shall wake;
The graves shall yield their ancient charge,
And earth's foundations shake.

f 6 The saints of God, from death set free,
With joy shall mount on high:
The heavenly hosts with praises loud
Shall meet them in the sky.

mf 7 Together to their Father's house
With joyful hearts they go,
And dwell for ever with the Lord,
Beyond the reach of woe.

8 A few short years of evil past,
We reach the happy shore
Where death-divided friends at last Shall meet, to part no more.

AMEN.

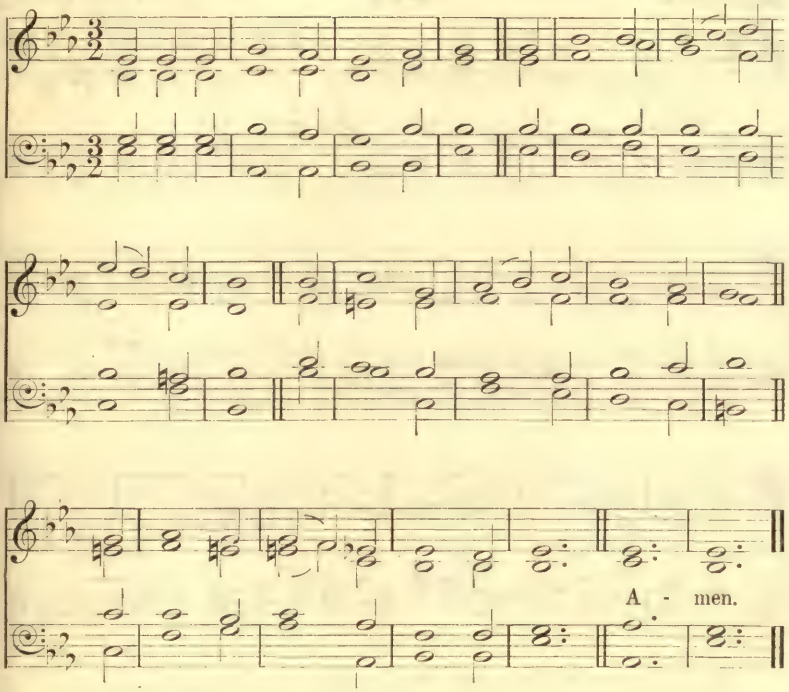
Ne derelinquas me. 447

C. H. Lloyd.



He giveth unto His beloved sleep.

p ASLEEP in Jesus! blessèd sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep,
A calm and undisturbed repose
Unbroken by the last of foes!

2 Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet,
c With holy confidence to sing
That death hath lost its venomed sting!

mp 3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest!
No fear, no woe shall dim that hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.

4 Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be!
c Securely shall my ashes lie,
Waiting the summons from on high.

p 5 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee Thy kindred and their graves may be;
c But thine is still a blessèd sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep. Amen.

Requiescat. 448 J. B. Dykes.

Into Thine hand I commit my spirit: Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of truth.

mp NOW the labourer's task is o'er;
Now the battle-day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.

p Father, in Thy gracious keeping Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

mp 2 There the tears of earth are dried;
There its hidden things are clear;
There the work of life is tried
By a juster Judge than here.

mp 3 There the sinful souls that turn
To the cross their dying eyes
All the love of Christ shall learn
At His feet in Paradise.

cr 4 There no more the powers of hell
Can prevail to mar their peace;
Christ the Lord shall guard them well,
He Who died for their release.

p 5 'Earth to earth, and dust to dust,' mp Calmly now the words we say;
Leaving him to sleep in trust
Till the resurrection day.

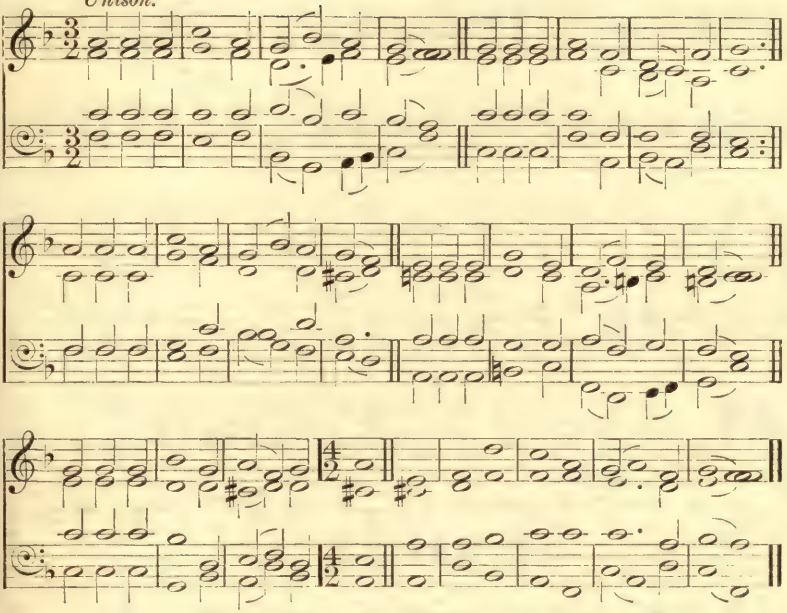
God of the living. 449 E. Hulton.

Unison.



[May be sung to 'St. Chrysostom,' No. 333.]

He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto Him.

mp GOD of the living, in Whose eyes Unveiled Thy whole creation lies,
All souls are Thine; we must not say
That those are dead who pass away;
From this our world of flesh set free,
We know them living unto Thee.

2 Released from earthly toil and strife,
With Thee is hidden still their life;
Thine are their thoughts, their works, their powers,
All Thine, and yet most truly ours;
c For well we know, where'er they be,
Our dead are living unto Thee;

mp 3 Not spilt like water on the ground,
Not wrapped in dreamless sleep profound,
Not wandering in unknown despair
Beyond Thy voice, Thine arm, Thy care;
Not left to lie like fallen tree;
c Not dead, but living unto Thee.

mf 4 Thy word is true, Thy will is just;
To Thee we leave them, Lord, in trust,
And bless Thee for the love which gave Thy Son to fill a human grave,
c That none might fear that world to see Where all are living unto Thee.

mf 5 O Breather into man of breath,
O Holder of the keys of death,
O Giver of the life within,
Save us from death, the death of sin,
c That body, soul, and spirit be
For ever living unto Thee.

J. Ellerton.

Is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

mp SAFELY, safely gathered in,
No more sorrow, no more sin,
No more childish griefs or fears,
No more sadness, no more tears;
For the life, so young and fair,
Now hath passed from earthly care;
c God Himself the soul will keep,
Giving His beloved sleep.

mp 2 Safely, safely gathered in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin,
Passed beyond all grief and pain,
Death for thee is truest gain:
c For our loss we must not weep,
Nor our loved one long to keep
From the home of rest and peace,
Where all sin and sorrow cease.

mp 3 Safely, safely gathered in,
No more sorrow, no more sin;
God has saved from weary strife,
In its dawn, this young fresh life,
Which awaits us now above,
Resting in the Saviour's love.
Jesus, grant that we may meet
There, adoring at Thy feet. AMEN.

They that dwell under His shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn.

p SLEEP thy last sleep,
Free from care and sorrow;
Rest, where none weep,
Till the eternal morrow;
Though dark waves roll
O'er the silent river,
Thy fainting soul
Jesus can deliver.

mp 2 Life's dream is past,
All its sin, its sadness;
c Brightly at last Dawns a day of gladness.
p Under thy sod,

To rest in God,
Waiting all His pleasure.

Comfort those now weeping,
Bidding rejoice
All in Jesus sleeping. Amen.

So shall we ever be with the Lord.

f 'FOR ever with the Lord!'
Amen, so let it be:
Life from the dead is in that word;
'T is immortality.
mf Here in the body pent,
Absent from Him I roam,
c Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.

mf 2 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near

Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
c The life that knows no ending,
The tearless life, is there.

mf 2 O happy retribution!
Short toil, eternal rest;
For mortals and for sinners
A mansion with the blest!

3 There grief is turned to pleasure,

Thine eyes shall see the King in His beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off.

mf THE sands of time are sinking;
The dawn of heaven breaks;
The summer morn I've sighed for,
The fair, sweet morn, awakes.

p Dark, dark hath been the midnight:
c But dayspring is at hand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

p 2 O Christ! He is the fountain,
The deep, sweet well, of love;
The streams on earth I've tasted,
More deep I'll drink above:

c There to an ocean fulness
His mercy doth expand,
f And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

mf 3 O I am my Belovèd's,
And my Beloved is mine;

Not even where glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

4 The bride eyes not her garment,
But her dear bridegroom's face;
I will not gaze at glory,
But on my King of grace,—
Not at the crown He gifteth, d But on His piercèd hand:
c The Lamb is all the glory Of Immanuel's land.

mf 5 With mercy and with judgment
My web of time He wove,
And aye the dews of sorrow

The Blessed Home. 458 J. STAINER.

The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; . . . . . they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

mf THERE is a blessèd home
Beyond this land of woe,
Where trials never come,
Nor tears of sorrow flow;
c Where faith is lost in sight,
And patient hope is crowned,
And everlasting light
Its glory throws around.

mf 2 There is a land of peace;
Good angels know it well;
c Glad songs that never cease Within its portals swell;
f Around its glorious throne

And Spirit, evermore.

mp 3 O joy, all joys beyond,
To see the Lamb Who died,
And count each sacred wound
In hands and feet and side;
c To give to Him the praise
Of every triumph won,
And sing through endless days
The great things He hath done!

mf 4 Look up, ye saints of God,
Nor fear to tread below
The path your Saviour trod
Of daily toil and woe;

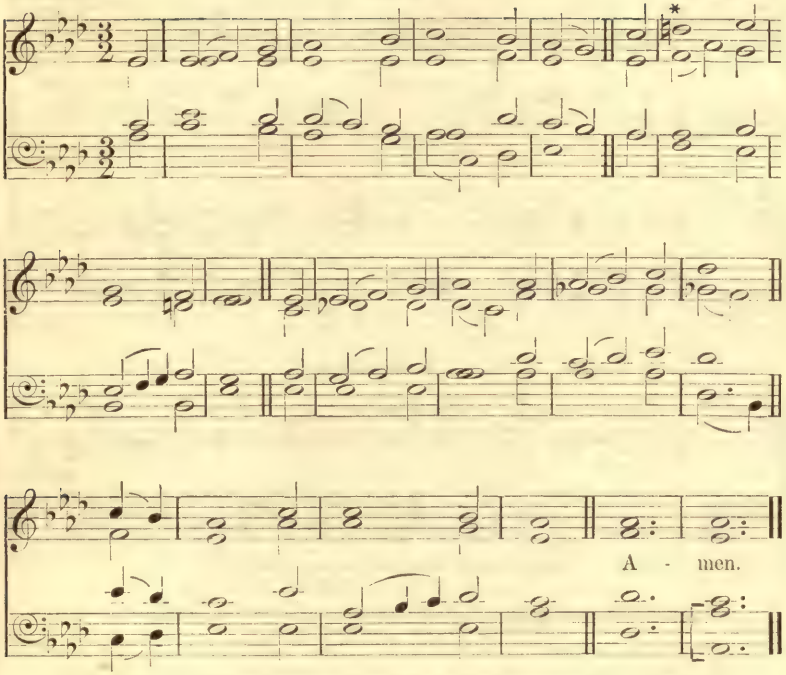
Canaan. 459 J. B. Dykes.



* This bar altered from original by permission.

Let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan.

mf THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign ;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers ;
d Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

mf 3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood Stand dressed in living green ;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood, While Jordan rolled between.

p 4 But timorous mortals start, and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

mf 5 O could we make our doubts remove—
Those gloomy doubts that rise—
And see the Canaan that we love
With unbeclouded eyes,

c 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er, [flood
f Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold Should fright us from the shore.

[May be sung to 'Saints of God,' No. 58.]

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours.

mf THE saints of God! their conflict past,
And life's long battle won at last,
No more they need the shield or sword;
They cast them down before their Lord:
c O happy saints! for ever blest,
At Jesus' feet how safe your rest!

mf 2 The saints of God! their wanderings done,
No more their weary course they run,
No more they faint, no more they fall,
No foes oppress, no fears appal:
c O happy saints! for ever blest,
In that dear home how sweet your rest!

mf 3 The saints of God! life's voyage o'er,
Safe landed on that blissful shore,
No stormy tempests now they dread,
No roaring billows lift their head:
c O happy saints! for ever blest
In that calm haven of your rest!

p 4 The saints of God their vigil keep While yet their mortal bodies sleep,
c Till from the dust they too shall rise,
And soar triumphant to the skies:
f O happy saints! rejoice and sing;
He quickly comes, your Lord and King.

mf 5 O God of saints, to Thee we cry;
O Saviour, plead for us on high;
O Holy Ghost, our Guide and Friend,
Grant us Thy grace till life shall end,—
c That with all saints our rest may be
In that bright Paradise with Thee. AMEN.

All Saints. Zeuch mich, zeuch mich mit den Armen. Darmstadt Gesangbuch, 1698.

What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

Wer sind die vor Gottes Throne?

mf WHO are these, like stars appearing,
These, before God's throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing;
Who are all this glorious band?
f Alleluia! hark, they sing,
Praising loud their heavenly King.

mf 2 Who are these of dazzling brightness,
These in God's own truth arrayed, Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand;
Whence comes all this glorious band?

f 3 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honour long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng;
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

p 4 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified;
mf Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

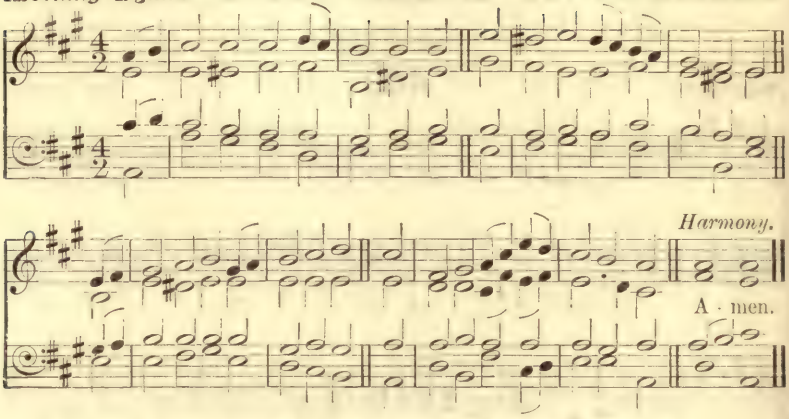
Morning Hymn. 464

F. H. Barthélémon.



Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake right early.

mf AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

2 Thy precious time misspent redeem;
Each present day thy last esteem;
Improve thy talent with due care;
For the great day thyself prepare.

3 In conversation be sincere;
Keep conscience as the noontide clear;
d Think how all-seeing God thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.

mf 4 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praise to the eternal King.

5 All praise to Thee, Who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me whilst I slept!
mp Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.

p 6 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Disperse my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

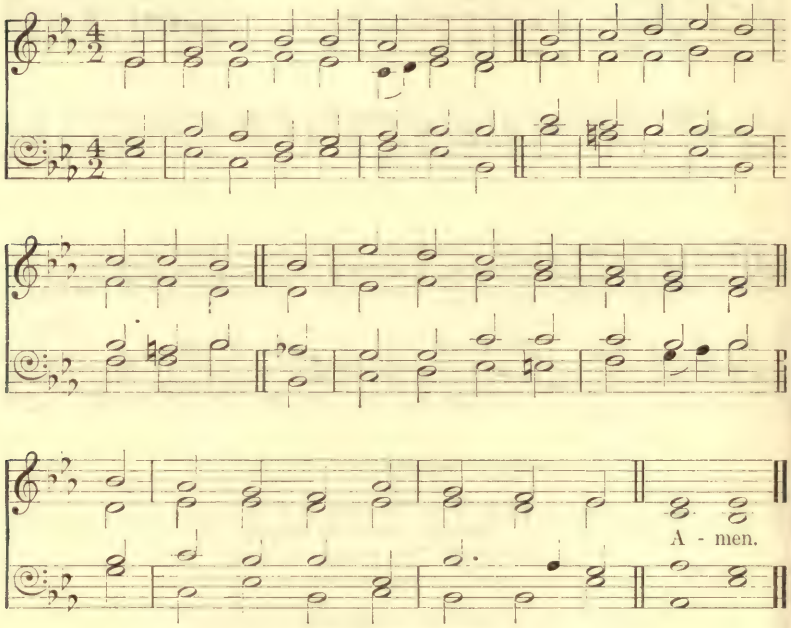
Eisenach. Mach's mit mir, Gott, nach deiner Güt'. J. H. Schein.



I am the light of the world.

Splendor paternæ gloriæ.

mf O JESUS, Lord of heavenly grace,
Thou brightness of Thy Father's face,
Thou Fountain of eternal light, [night,
Whose beams disperse the shades of 2 Come, holy Sun of heavenly love,

Shower down Thy radiance from above,
And to our inward hearts convey
The Holy Spirit's cloudless ray.

3 And we the Father's help will claim,
And sing the Father's glorious name;
His powerful succour we implore,
That we may stand, to fall no more.

mp 4 May He our actions deign to bless,
And loose the bonds of wickedness,
From sudden falls our feet defend,
And bring us to a prosperous end.

5 May faith, deep-rooted in the soul,
Subdue our flesh, our minds control;
May guile depart, and discord cease,
And all within be joy and peace.

6 O hallowed be the approaching day;
Let meekness be our morning ray,
And faithful love our noontide light,
And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

mf 7 O Christ, with each returning morn
Thine image to our hearts is borne;
O may we ever clearly see
Our Saviour and our God in Thee. Amen.

Barmouth. 469 W. MACFARREN.

[May be sung to 'Dix,' No. 36.]

O Lord, ... send me, I pray Thee, good speed this day.

mf AT Thy feet, O Christ, we lay Thine own gift of this new day;
Doubt of what it holds in store
Makes us crave Thine aid the more;
Lest it prove a time of loss,
Mark it, Saviour, with Thy cross.

2 If it flow on calm and bright,
Be Thyself our chief delight;
p If it bring unknown distress,
Good is all that Thou canst bless;
Only, while its hours begin,
Pray we, keep them clear of sin.

mf 3 We in part our weakness know,
And in part discern our foe;
Well for us, before Thine eyes
All our danger open lies;
p Turn not from us, while we plead Thy compassions and our need.

mf 4 Fain would we Thy word embrace,
Live each moment on Thy grace,
All our selves to Thee consign,
Fold up all our wills in Thine,
Think, and speak, and do, and be Simply that which pleases Thee.

5 Hear us, Lord, and that right soon;
Hear, and grant the choicest boon
That Thy love can e'er impart, Loyal singleness of heart;
f So shall this and all our days,
Christ our God, show forth Thy praise. AMEN.

Laudes Domini (1st Tune). 470 J. BARNBY.

O Seigneur (2nd Tune). Genevan Psalter, 1551.

Daily shall He be praised.

Beim frühen Morgenlicht.

mf WHEN morning gilds the skies,
My heart awaking cries,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Alike at work and prayer
To Jesus I repair:
c May Jesus Christ be praised!

mp 2 When sleep her balm denies,
My silent spirit sighs,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
p When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
c May Jesus Christ be praised!

p 3 Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
c May Jesus Christ be praised!
p Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
c May Jesus Christ be praised!

mf [4 *In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
c May Jesus Christ be praised!]

f 5 To God, the Word, on high
The host of angels cry,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let mortals, too, upraise
Their voice in hymns of praise:
May Jesus Christ be praised!

ff 6 Let earth's wide circle round
In joyful notes resound,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let air and sea and sky,
From depth to height, reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

mf 7 Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
f May Jesus Christ be praised!
Be this the eternal song
Through all the ages long,
c May Jesus Christ be praised!

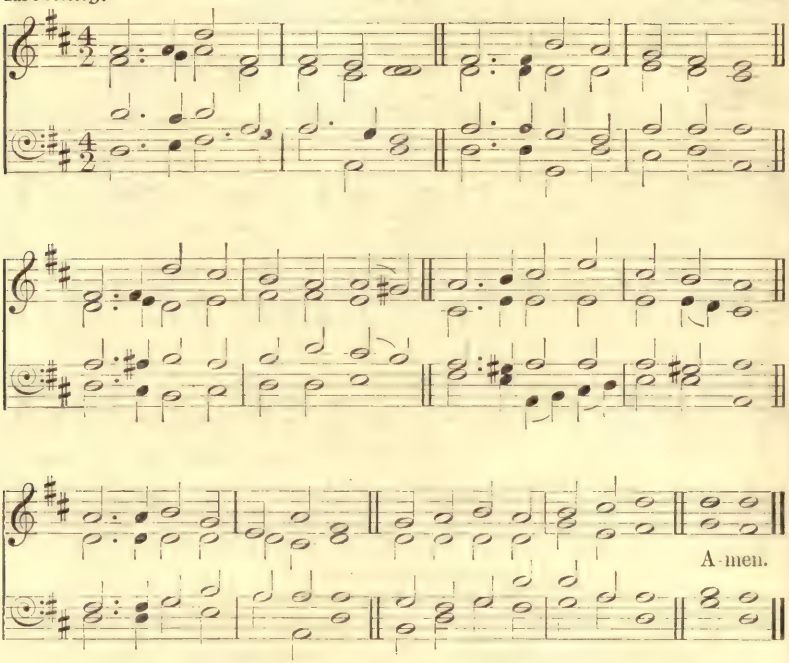
Morning. 471 W. H. Monk.



[May be sung to 'Heathlands,' No. 215.]

I will sing aloud of Thy mercy in the morning.

mf EVERY morning mercies new Fall as fresh as early dew;
Every morning let us pay Tribute with the early day:
For Thy mercies, Lord, are sure;
Thy compassion doth endure.

2 Still the greatness of Thy love
Daily doth our sins remove,
Daily, far as east from west,
Lifts the burden from the breast,
Gives unbought to those who pray
Strength to stand in evil day.

mp 3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Every morning, for the strife,
Feed us with the bread of life.

mf 4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendour burns,
Teach us still to turn to Thee,
Ever-blessèd Trinity,
With our hands our hearts to raise
In unfailing prayer and praise.

AMEN.

If we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin.

*Ατερ ἀρχῆς ἀπέραντον.

f O LIGHT That knew no dawn,
That shines to endless day,
All things in earth and heaven
Are lustred by Thy ray;
No eye can to Thy throne ascend,
Nor mind Thy brightness comprehend.

mp 2 Thy grace, O Father, give,
That I may serve in fear;
Above all boons, I pray,
Grant me Thy voice to hear;
From sin Thy child in mercy free,
And let me dwell in light with Thee;

mf 3 That, cleansed from filthy stain,
I may meet homage give,
And, pure in heart, behold
And serve Thee while I live,
Clean hands in holy worship raise,
And Thee, O Christ my Saviour, praise.

mp 4 In supplication meek
To Thee I bend the knee;
O Christ, when Thou shalt come,
In love remember me,
And in Thy kingdom, by Thy grace,
Grant me a humble servant's place.

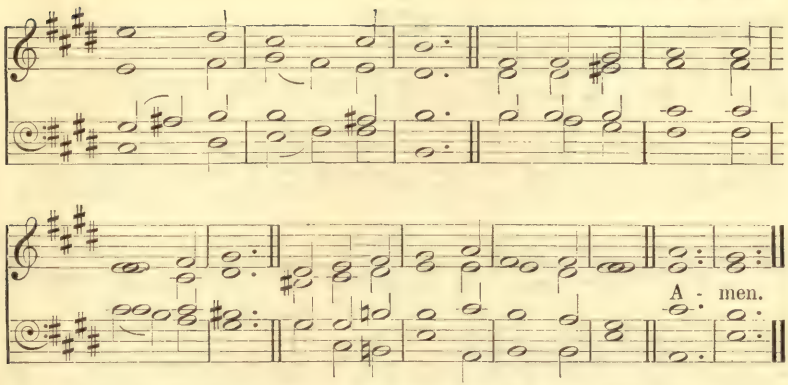
Angelus.

Komm mein Herze, komm mein Schatz.

Derived from G. JOSEPH.



When the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them, and healed them.

mf AT even, ere the sun was set,
The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay;
p O in what divers pains they met!
c O with what joy they went away!

mf 2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we,
Oppressed with various ills, draw near:
What if Thy form we cannot see,
We know and feel that Thou art here.

mp 3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel:
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved Thee well,
And some have lost the love they had;

4 And some are pressed with worldly care
And some are tried with sinful doubt;
And some such grievous passions tear
That only Thou canst cast them out;

5 And some have found the world is vain,
Yet from the world they break not free;
And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in Thee;

6 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin;
And they who fain would serve Thee best Are conscious most of wrong within.

p 7 O Saviour Christ, Thou too art Man;
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide;

Unis. c 8 Thy touch has still its ancient power;
No word from Thee can fruitless fall:
Har. d Hear, in this solemn evening hour,
p And in Thy mercy heal us all. AMEN.

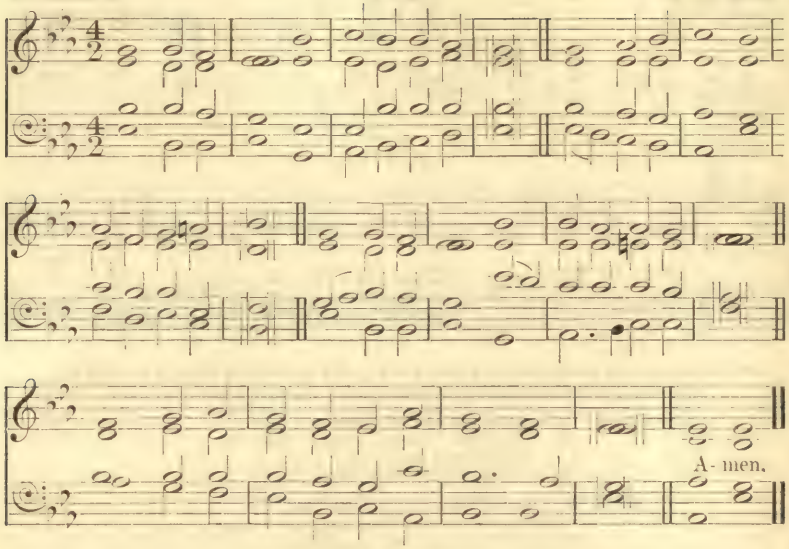
Eventide. 477 W. H. Monk.



Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent.

mp ABIDE with me: fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide:
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

p 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see:
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

mp 3 Not a brief glance I beg, a passing word;
But, as Thou dwelledst with Thy disciples, Lord,
Familiar, condescending, patient, free,
Come, not to sojourn, but abide, with me.

4 Come not in terrors, as the King of kings,
But kind and good, with healing in Thy wings,
Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea:
Come, Friend of sinners, and thus 'bide with me.

5 Thou on my head in early youth didst smile,
p And, though rebellious and perverse meanwhile,
Thou hast not left me, oft as I left Thee:
c On to the close, O Lord, abide with me.

mf 6 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.

Unis. 7 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
f Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Har. p 8 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes,
c Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
f Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee:
d rall In life and death, O Lord, abide with me. AMEN.

mf 3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release;
And bless us more than in past days
With purity and inward peace.

f 4 Do more than pardon: give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And loving hearts without alloy,
That only long to be like Thee.

mf 5 Labour is sweet, for Thou hast toiled,
And care is light, for Thou hast cared;
Let not our works with self be soiled,
Nor in unsimple ways ensnared.

[May be sung to 'Ellers,' No. 274.]

The Lord will bless His people with peace.

mf SAVIOUR, again to Thy dear name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise;
We stand to bless Thee ere our worship cease, d Then, lowly kneeling, wait Thy word of peace.

mf 2 Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward way;
With Thee began, with Thee shall end the day;
Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon Thy name.

p 3 Grant us Thy peace through this approaching night;
c Turn Thou for us its darkness into light;
p From harm and danger keep Thy children free;
c For dark and light are both alike to Thee.

p 4 Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life,
c Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
mf Then, when Thy voice shall bid our conflict cease, d Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal peace. AMEN.

Evening Hymn. 486

W. Jackson.

Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation; there shall no evil befall thee.

mf FATHER, in high heaven dwelling,
May our evening song be telling
Of Thy mercy large and free;
Through the day Thy love has fed us,
Through the day Thy care has led us,
With divinest charity.

p 2 This day's sins O pardon, Saviour, Evil thoughts, perverse behaviour,
Envy, pride, and vanity;
From the world, the flesh, deliver,
Save us now, and save us ever,
O Thou Lamb of Calvary.

mf 3 From enticements of the devil,
From the might of spirits evil
Be our shield and panoply;
Let Thy power this night defend us,
And a heavenly peace attend us,
And angelic company.

p 4 While the night dews are distilling,
Holy Ghost, each heart be filling
From Thine own infinity.
Softly let the eyes be closing,
Loving souls on Thee reposing,

Nassau. Straf mich nicht in deinem Zorn. J. Rosenmüller (?).

Let my prayer be set forth as incense before Thee; the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

1

mf GOD'S bright temple in the skies
Night is opening slowly;
Let our song like incense rise
From a priesthood holy.
Sacred flame,
In Christ's name,
In our censers laying,
We come humbly praying.

2

For our loved ones all we pray;
Thou, God, looking hither,*
Dost see the near and far away
In one glance together;
Seen by Thee,
They and we,
Both that one eye under,
Are not far asunder.

* To be sung as follows:—

3

Where the sailor on the deep Rests on his rude pillow,
Rocked a little while to sleep
On the heaving billow,
Save, Lord, save
From storm wave,
Guide with gentle motion
Through the pathless ocean.

4

Where the sick lie wearily,
Tossing in their sorrow,
Murmuring oft the plaintive cry,
p 'Would that it were morrow!'
c O repress Sore distress;
mf Give them calm sweet sleeping
In their night of weeping.

5

Where the tempted may have strayed
Into scenes of danger,
Let not virtue be betrayed;
Rise, Lord, to avenge her;
With strong arm
Shield from harm,
Or from trial rather Keep them, Holy Father.

6 p Where the penitent has gone

To his chamber weeping,
Leave, O leave him not alone,
Bitter vigil keeping;
Breathe, O Lord,
Some soft word,
All that true peace speaking
His vexed heart is seeking.

7

mf Star lamps now are filled with fire Heaven's broad dome revealing:
Lord, we are a lowly choir,
At Thy threshold kneeling;
Yet our song,
Even among
Angels' songs ascending,
Holds Thine ear attending. AMEN.

Marcham. 497 W. KNAPP.

Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day.

[ALL SEASONS.]

mf GREAT God, we sing that mighty hand
By which supported still we stand;
The opening year Thy mercy shows,
That mercy crowns it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still are we guarded by our God,
By His incessant bounty fed,
By His unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own;
The future, all to us unknown,
We to Thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before Thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or depressed
Thou art our joy, and Thou our rest;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.

p 5 When death shall interrupt these songs,
And seal in silence mortal tongues,
c Our Helper God, in Whom we trust,
Shall keep our souls and guard our dust. AMEN.

He did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

Im Anfang war's auf Erden.

[ALL SEASONS.]

mf WE plough the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land,
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand;
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain,
The breezes and the sunshine
p And soft refreshing rain.

f All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above;
ff Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
For all His love.

mf 2 He only is the Maker
Of all things, near and far;
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey Him;
By Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children,
He gives our daily bread.

f 3 We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food.
mf No gifts have we to offer
For all Thy love imparts,
d But that which Thou desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.

AMEN.

Thou renewest the face of the earth.

[Spring.]

mf THE glory of the spring how sweet!
The new-born life how glad!
What joy the happy earth to greet,
In new, bright raiment clad!

2 Divine Renewer, Thee I bless;
I greet Thy going forth;
I love Thee in the loveliness
Of Thy renewèd earth.

3 But O these wonders of Thy grace,
These nobler works of Thine,
These marvels sweeter far to trace,
These new births more divine,

4 This new-born glow of faith so strong,
This bloom of love so fair,
This new-born ecstasy of song
And fragrancy of prayer!

mp 5 Creator Spirit, work in me
These wonders sweet of Thine;
Divine Renewer, graciously
Renew this heart of mine. Amen.

Thou hast prepared the light and the sun. . . . . Thou hast made summer.

[Summer.]

mf SUMMER suns are glowing Over land and sea;
Happy light is flowing,
Bountiful and free.
Every thing rejoices
In the mellow rays;
All earth's thousand voices
Swell the psalm of praise.

2 God's free mercy streameth
Over all the world,
And His banner gleameth,
Everywhere unfurled.
Broad and deep and glorious,
As the heaven above,
Shines in might victorious
His eternal love.

p 3 Lord, upon our blindness Thy pure radiance pour;
mf For Thy loving-kindness
Make us love Thee more;
p And, when clouds are drifting Dark across our sky,
c Then, the veil uplifting,
Father, be Thou nigh.

mf 4 We will never doubt Thee, Though Thou veil Thy light:
p Life is dark without Thee;

While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest . . . . . shall not cease.

[Harvest.]

mf FOUNTAIN of mercy, God of love,
How rich Thy bounties are!
The rolling seasons, as they move,
Proclaim Thy constant care.

2 When in the bosom of the earth
The sower hid the grain,
Thy goodness marked its secret birth,
And sent the early rain.

3 The spring's sweet influence was Thine;
The plants in beauty grew;
Thou gav'st refulgent suns to shine,
And mild refreshing dew.

c 4 These various mercies from above Matured the swelling grain;
f A yellow harvest crowns Thy love,
And plenty fills the plain.

mf 5 Seed-time and harvest, Lord, alone
Thou dost on man bestow;
Let him not then forget to own
From Whom his blessings flow.

f 6 Fountain of love, our praise is Thine;
To Thee our songs we 'll raise,
And all created nature join
In sweet harmonious praise. Amen.

The harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

[Harvest.]

f COME, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of harvest-home:
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin;
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied:
Come to God's own temple, come,
Raise the song of harvest-home.

mf 2 We ourselves are God's own field,
Fruit unto His praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear:
mp Grant, O harvest Lord, that we Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
c From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;
p Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
c But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.

Unis.

mf 4 Then, thou Church triumphant, come Raise the song of harvest-home;
c All are safely gathered in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin,
There, for ever purified,
In God's garner to abide:
f Come, ten thousand angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest-home.

Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness; and Thy paths drop fatness.

[HARVEST.]

f TO Thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise
In hymns of adoration,
To Thee bring sacrifice of praise
With shouts of exultation;
Bright robes of gold the fields adorn, mf
The hills with joy are ringing,
The valleys stand so thick with corn
That even they are singing.

mf 2 And now, on this our festal day,
Thy bounteous hand confessing,
Upon Thine altar, Lord, we lay
The first-fruits of Thy blessing.
By Thee the souls of men are fed
With gifts of grace supernal;
Thou Who dost give us daily bread,
Give us the bread eternal.

p 2 We bear the burden of the day,
And often toil seems dreary,
c But labour ends with sunset ray,
And rest is for the weary;
mf May we, the angel-reaping o'er,
Stand at the last accepted,
Christ's golden sheaves for evermore
To garners bright elected.

4 O blessèd is that land of God
Where saints abide for ever, [broad,
Where golden fields spread fair and Where flows the crystal river.
The strains of all its holy throng
With ours to-day are blending;
f Thrice blessèd is that harvest-song
Which never hath an ending.

St. Beatrice. 505 J. F. Bridge.

He That soweth the good seed is the Son of Man; . . . . . the harvest is the end of the world.

[HARVEST.]

mf THE sower went forth sowing;
The seed in secret slept
Through weeks of faith and patience,
Till out the green blade crept;
And, warmed by golden sunshine
And fed by silver rain,
At last the fields were whitened
To harvest once again.

f O praise the heavenly Sower,
Who gave the fruitful seed,
And watched and watered duly,
And ripened for our need.

mf 2 Behold! the heavenly Sower
Goes forth with better seed,
The word of sure salvation,
With feet and hands that bleed;
Here in His Church 't is scattered,
Our spirits are the soil;
Then let an ample fruitage
Repay His pain and toil.

f O beauteous is the harvest
Wherein all goodness thrives,
And this the true thanksgiving,
The first-fruits of our lives.

p 3 Within a hallowed acre
He sows yet other grain,
When peaceful earth receiveth
The dead He died to gain;

c For, though the growth be hidden,
We know that they shall rise;
Yea, even now they ripen
In sunny Paradise.

mf O summer land of harvest,
O fields for ever white
With souls that wear Christ's raiment
With crowns of golden light!

4 One day the heavenly Sower
Shall reap where He hath sown,
And come again rejoicing,
And with Him bring His own;

pp And then the fan of judgment
Shall winnow from His floor
The chaff into the furnace
That flameth evermore.

p O holy, awful Reaper,
Have mercy in the day
Thou puttest in Thy sickle, rall And cast us not away. AMEN.

Thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust. Thou sendest forth Thy spirit, they are created: and Thou renewest the face of the earth.

[WINTER.]

mp WINTER reigneth o'er the land,
Freezing with its icy breath;
Dead and bare the tall trees stand;
All is chill and drear as death.

mf 2 Yet it seemeth but a day
Since the summer flowers were here,
Since they stacked the balmy hay,
Since they reaped the golden ear.

mp 3 Sunny days are past and gone:
So the years go, speeding fast,
Onward ever, each new one Swifter speeding than the last.

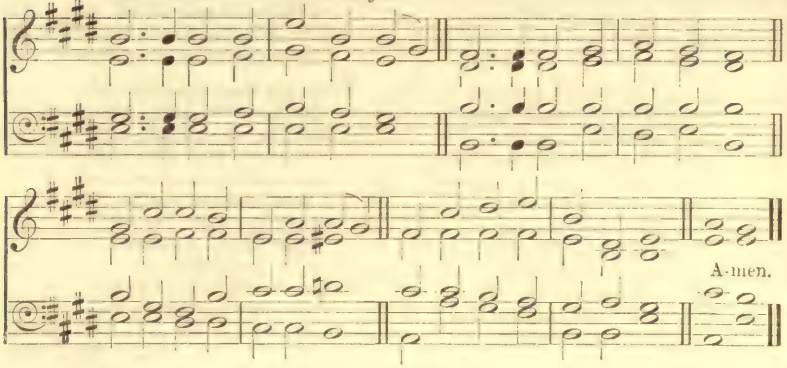
p 4 Life is waning; life is brief;
Death, like winter, standeth nigh:
Each one, like the falling leaf,
rall Soon shall fade, and fall, and die.

5th and 6th verses. A little faster.



f 5 But the sleeping earth shall wake;
New-born flowers shall burst in
And all nature, rising, break [bloom,
Glorious from its wintry tomb.

6 So the saints, from slumber blest,
Rising, shall awake and sing;
And our flesh in hope shall rest
Till there breaks the endless spring.

Father, glorify Thy name.

mf FATHER, let me dedicate
All this year to Thee,
In whatever worldly state
Thou wouldst have me be;
Not from sorrow, pain, or care
Freedom dare I claim;
This alone shall be my prayer,
c 'Glorify Thy name!'

mf 2 Can a child presume to choose
Where or how to live?
Can a father's love refuse
All the best to give?
More Thou givest every day
Than the best can claim,
Nor withholdest aught that may
Glorify Thy name.

3 If in mercy Thou wilt spare
Joys that yet are mine,
If on life, serene and fair,
Brighter rays may shine,
f Let my glad heart, while it sings,
Thee in all proclaim,
And, whate'er the future brings,
Glorify Thy name.

p 4 If Thou callest to the cross
And its shadow come,
Turning all my gain to loss,
Shrouding heart and home,
mf Let me think how Thy dear Son
To His glory came,
And in deepest woe pray on,
p 'Glorify Thy name.' AMEN.

Lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

mp A FEW more years shall roll,
A few more seasons come,
And we shall be with those that rest,
Asleep within the tomb:
p Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that great day;
c O wash me in Thy precious blood,
p And take my sins away.

mp 2 A few more suns shall set O'er these dark hills of time,
c And we shall be where suns are not,—
A far serener clime:
p Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that bright day;
c O wash me in Thy precious blood,
p And take my sins away.

mp 3 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild rocky shore,
c And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more:
p Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that calm day;
c O wash me in Thy precious blood,
p And take my sins away.

4 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
c And we shall weep no more:
p Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
c O wash me in Thy precious blood,
p And take my sins away.

mf 5 A few more Sabbaths here
Shall cheer us on our way,
And we shall reach the endless rest,
The eternal Sabbath-day:
p Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that sweet day;
c O wash me in Thy precious blood,
p And take my sins away.

mf 6 'T is but a little while

He hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

mf STANDING at the portal
Of the opening year,
Words of comfort meet us,
Hushing every fear,
Spoken through the silence
By our Father's voice,
Tender, strong, and faithful,
Making us rejoice.

f Onward, then, and fear not,
Children of the day,
For His word shall never,
Never pass away.

mp 2 'I, the Lord, am with thee,
Be thou not afraid;
I will help and strengthen,
Be thou not dismayed;
Yea, I will uphold thee
With My own right hand;
Thou art called and chosen
In My sight to stand.'

mf 3 For the year before us
O what rich supplies!
For the poor and needy
Living streams shall rise;
For the sad and sinful
Shall His grace abound,
For the faint and feeble
Perfect strength be found.

4 He will never fail us,
He will not forsake;
His eternal covenant
He will never break.
Resting on His promise,
What have we to fear?
God is all-sufficient
For the coming year.

The Lord hath been mindful of us: He will bless us.

mf AT Thy feet, our God and Father,
Who hast blessed us all our days,
We with grateful hearts would gather
To begin the year with praise,— c Praise for light so brightly shining
On our steps from heaven above,
Praise for mercies daily twining
Round us golden cords of love.

p 2 Jesus, for Thy love most tender,
On the cross for sinners shown,
c We would praise Thee, and surrender
All our hearts to be Thine own.

mf With so blest a Friend provided
We upon our way would go,
Sure of being safely guided,
Guarded well from every foe.

3 Every day will be the brighter
When Thy gracious face we see;
Every burden will be lighter
When we know it comes from Thee.
c Spread Thy love's broad banner o'er us;
Give us strength to serve and wait,

Ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the Lord your God giveth you.

mf STILL on the homeward journey
Across the desert plain,
Beside another landmark,
We pilgrims meet again;
We meet in cloud and sunshine
Beneath a changeful sky,
With calm and storm before us,
As in the days gone by.

2 We meet with loving greetings,
Fond wishes from the heart,
As brothers often parted
And soon again to part.
p With tender recollections,
With many a gentle tear
We meet, for some are wanting;
All loved ones are not here.

mf 3 Safe in the home of Jesus,
With Him for ever blest,
How glorious is their portion,
How undisturbed their rest!
How gladly will they greet us,
When, all our journey past,
We reach the better country,
The Father's house, at last!

4 Thus round the silent landmark,
Here on the desert plain,
We pilgrims meet together
With loving hearts again.

But Christ has gone before;
f We follow in His footsteps,
And doubt and fear no more.

2 Wilt Thou not hear us while we raise,
In sweet accord of solemn praise,
The voices that have mingled long
In joyous flow of mirth and song?

mp 3 For all the blessings life has brought,
For all its sorrowing hours have taught,
For all we mourn, for all we keep,
The hands we clasp, the loved that sleep,

4 The noontide sunshine of the past,
These brief, bright moments fading fast,
The stars that gild our darkening years,
The twilight ray from holier spheres,

National Anthem. 516

All the people shouted, and said, God save the King.

mf GOD save our gracious King;
Long live our noble King;
God save the King!
c Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us:
f God save the King!

2 Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour;
Long may he reign;
c May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
ff 'God save the King!' AMEN.

Hermon. 517 J. G. Braun.

[May also be sung to 'National Anthem,' No. 516.]

Happy is that people, whose God is the Lord.

mf GOD bless our native land:
Her strength and glory stand
Ever in Thee!
Her faith and laws be pure,
Her throne and hearths secure,
And let her name endure—
Home of the free.

2 God guard our sea-girt land,
And save by Thy right hand
From all her foes;
The reign of peace prolong,
Till freedom's rising song
Loud tells the end of wrong
And nature's throes.

3 God smile upon our land,
And countless as the sand
Her blessings be!
c Arise, O Lord, Most High;
And call her children nigh,
Till heart and voice reply,
f Glory to Thee. Amen.

Thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which He hath given thee.

[NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.]

mf PRAISE to our God, Whose bounteous hand Prepared of old our glorious land,—
A garden fenced with silver sea,
A people prosperous, strong, and free.

2 Praise to our God: through all our past
His mighty arm hath held us fast,
Till wars and perils, toils and tears,
Have brought the rich and peaceful years.

3 Praise to our God: the vine He set Within our coasts is fruitful yet;
On many a shore her seedlings grow;
'Neath many a sun her clusters glow.

4 Praise to our God: His power alone
Can keep unmoved our ancient throne, Sustained by counsels wise and just,
And guarded by a people's trust.

5 Praise to our God, Who still forbears,
p Who still this guilty nation spares,
Who calls us still to seek His face,
c And lengthens out our day of grace.

f 6 Praise to our God: though chastenings stern
Our evil dross should throughly burn,
His rod and staff, from age to age,
Shall rule and guide His heritage.

[NATIONAL HUMILIATION.]

mp GREAT King of nations, hear our prayer, While at Thy feet we fall,
And humbly, with united cry,
To Thee for mercy call.

p The guilt is ours, but grace is Thine;
O turn us not away,

c But hear us from Thy lofty throne,
And help us when we pray.

p 2 Our fathers' sins were manifold,
And ours no less we own;

c Yet wondrously from age to age
Thy goodness hath been shown.

mf When dangers, like a stormy sea,
Beset our country round,

c To Thee we looked, to Thee we cried,
And help in Thee was found.

mp 3 With one consent we meekly bow
Beneath Thy chastening hand,
And, pouring forth confession meet,
Mourn with our mourning land.

p With pitying eye behold our need,
As thus we lift our prayer;
Correct us with Thy judgments, Lord,

c Then let Thy mercy spare. AMEN.

Eden. 522 T. B. Mason.

My God, let, I beseech Thee, Thine eyes be open, and let Thine ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

[Church Dedication.]

mf BE with us, gracious Lord, to-day ;
This house we dedicate to Thee :
O hear Thy servants as they pray,
And let Thine ear attentive be.

2 Within these walls let holy peace,
Let love and truth, be always found ;
May burdened hearts find sweet release,
And souls with richest grace be crowned.

p 3 May here be heard the suppliant's sigh,
The weary enter into rest ;
Here may the contrite to Thee cry,
c And waiting souls be richly blest.

mf 4 Here, when the gospel sound is heard,
When here proclaimed the saving Name,
c May hearts be quickened, moved, and stirred,
And souls be kindled into flame.

f 5 Here may the dead be made to live,
The dumb to sing, the deaf to hear :
d And do Thou to the humble give Pardon and peace instead of fear.

mf 6 Make this, O Lord, Thine own abode :
Thy presence in these courts be given ;
Be this indeed the house of God,
And this in truth the gate of heaven.

Amen.

Oriel. Pange lingua gloriosi. Cantica Sacra, Munich, 1840.

[May be sung to 'Mannheim,' No. 441.]

Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation.

Angularis fundamentum lapis Christus missus est.

mf CHRIST is made the sure foundation
And the precious corner-stone,
Chosen of the Lord, and precious,
Binding all the Church in one,
Holy Zion's help for ever,
And her confidence alone.

2 To this temple, where we call Thee, Unis. f
Come, O Lord of hosts, to-day;
With Thy wonted loving-kindness Hear Thy people as they pray,
c And Thy fullest benediction Shed within its walls for aye.

p 3 Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
What they ask of Thee to gain,
What they gain from Thee for ever
With the blessèd to retain,
c And hereafter in Thy glory
With Thy blessèd ones to reign.

Whose wisdom, love, and power
First bound two lives together
In Eden's primal hour,
To-day to these Thy children
Thine earliest gifts renew,—
A home by Thee made happy,
A love by Thee kept true.

2 O Saviour, Guest most bounteous
Of old in Galilee,
Vouchsafe to-day Thy presence
With these who call on Thee;
Their store of earthly gladness
Transform to heavenly wine,

Let us ofer the sacrifice of praise to God continually.

mf COME, children, join to sing—
Hallelujah ! Amen !—
Loud praise to Christ our King ;
Hallelujah ! Amen !
Let all with heart and voice
Before His throne rejoice ; Praise is His gracious choice :
f Hallelujah ! Amen !

mf 2 Come, lift your hearts on high ;
Hallelujah ! Amen !
Let praises fill the sky ;
Hallelujah ! Amen !
He is our Guide and Friend ;
To us He 'll condescend ;
His love shall never end :
f Hallelujah ! Amen !

mf 3 Praise yet the Lord again ;
Hallelujah ! Amen !
Life shall not end the strain ;
c Hallelujah ! Amen !
On heaven's blissful shore
His goodness we 'll adore,
Singing for evermore,

Praise our God, all ye His servants, and ye that fear Him, both small and great.

mf ABOVE the clear blue sky,
Beyond our feeble sight,
The God of glory dwells on high
In everlasting light.

2 Around His glorious throne
The holy angels stand;
f In songs of praise their King they own,
Or fly at His command.

mf 3 And we may praise Him too,
And serve Him here below;
He stoops to mark what children do,
Their inmost thoughts to know;

4 And, though He reigns above,
Where angels ceaseless praise,
He will accept our humble love,
And lead us in His ways.

5 O may we humbly seek
To do His holy will,
And try, with thankful hearts and meek,
To sing His praises still;

6 And then, for Jesus' sake,
p Who came for us to die,
f Our happy spirits He will take
To praise Him in the sky. Amen.

CHORUS.

By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass.

mf SEE! in yonder manger low,
Born for us on earth below,
See! the tender Lamb appears,
Promised from eternal years.

f Hail, thou ever-blessèd morn!
Hail, redemption's happy dawn!
Sing through all Jerusalem,
'Christ is born in Bethlehem.'

mf 2 Lo! within a manger lies
He Who built the starry skies;
He Who, throned in height sublime,
Sits amid the cherubim.

3 Say, ye holy shepherds, say,
What your joyful news to-day;
Wherefore have ye left your sheep
On the lonely mountain steep?

p 4 'As we watched at dead of night,
Lo! we saw a wondrous light;
Angels, singing peace on earth,
Told us of the Saviour's birth.'

5 Sacred Infant, all Divine,
What a tender love was Thine,
Thus to come from highest bliss
Down to such a world as this!

mf 6 Teach, O teach us, Holy Child,
By Thy face so meek and mild,
Teach us to resemble Thee
In Thy sweet humility.

The Bible they have never read;
They know not that the Saviour said,

While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

mp THERE is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified
Who died to save us all.

2 We may not know, we cannot tell
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

c 3 He died that we might be forgiven;
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by His precious blood.

And try His works to do. AMEN.

Angels' Story. 557

A. H. Mann.

By permission of the Composer.

Because the Lord loved you, . . . hath the Lord . . . redeemed you.

mf I LOVE to hear the story
Which angel voices tell,
How once the King of Glory Came down on earth to dwell.
p I am both weak and sinful;
e But this I surely know,
The Lord came down to save me,
Because He loved me so.

mf 2 I 'm glad my blessed Saviour
Was once a child like me.
To show how pure and holy
His little ones might be;
And, if I try to follow
His footsteps here below,
c He never will forget me,
Because He loves me so.

mf 3 To sing His love and mercy
My sweetest songs I 'll raise;
And, though I cannot see Him,
I know He hears my praise;
For He Himself has promised
That even I may go
To sing among His angels,
Because He loves me so. AMEN.

Brookfield. 558 T. B. SOUTHGATE.

Thy love to me was wonderful.

mf IT is a thing most wonderful,
Almost too wonderful to be,
That God's own Son should come from heaven
And die to save a child like me.

2 And yet I know that it is true:
He came to this poor world below,
p And wept and toiled and mourned and died,
Only because He loved us so.

3 I cannot tell how He could love
A child so weak and full of sin;
His love must be most wonderful,
If He could die my love to win.

pp 4 I sometimes think about the cross,
And shut my eyes, and try to see
The cruel nails, and crown of thorns,
And Jesus crucified for me.

mf 5 But even could I see Him die,
I could but see a little part
Of that great love, which, like a fire,
Is always burning in His heart.

6 It is most wonderful to know
His love for me so free and sure;
But 't is more wonderful to see
My love for Him so faint and poor.

cresc. 7 And yet I want to love Thee, Lord:
O light the flame within my heart,
And I will love Thee more and more,
f Until I see Thee as Thou art. AMEN.

The children . . . . . were crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David.

mf HOSANNA, loud hosanna
The little children sang;
Through pillared court and temple
The lovely anthem rang;
To Jesus, Who had blessed them,
Close folded to His breast,
The children sang their praises,
The simplest and the best.

2 From Olivet they followed,
'Mid an exultant crowd,
The victor palm-branch waving,
And chanting clear and loud;
Bright angels joined the chorus
Beyond the cloudless sky,— f 'Hosanna in the highest!
Glory to God on high!'

mf 3 Fair leaves of silvery olive
They strewed upon the ground,
While Salem's circling mountains
Echoed the joyful sound;
p The Lord of men and angels
Rode on in lowly state,
Nor scorned that little children Should on His bidding wait.

mf 4 'Hosanna in the highest!'
That ancient song we sing,
For Christ is our Redeemer.
The Lord of heaven our King.
c O may we ever praise Him
With heart and life and voice,
And in His blissful presence
f Eternally rejoice! AMEN.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise.

mf WHEN, His salvation bringing,
To Zion Jesus came,
The children all stood singing
Hosanna to His name.
Nor did their zeal offend Him,
But, as He rode along,
He let them still attend Him,
And smiled to hear their song.

2 And, since the Lord retaineth
His love for children still,
Though now as King He reigneth
On Zion's heavenly hill,
c We 'll flock around His banner
Who sits upon the throne,
f And cry aloud, 'Hosanna
To David's royal Son !'

mf 3 For, should we fail proclaiming
Our great Redeemer's praise,
The stones, our silence shaming,
Would their hosannas raise.
d But shall we only render
The tribute of our words ?
c No ! while our hearts are tender,
They too shall be the Lord's. AMEN.

What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits toward me?

f O LORD of all, we bring to Thee our sacrifice of praise;
To Thee with glad and thankful hearts our festal hymn we raise:
We are but children here on earth, and Thou art high above;
But yet we dare to come to Thee, because Thy name is Love.

Bids the young children come to Thee, and in Thy love rejoice.

3 What shall we render Thee, O Lord? what tribute shall we bring?

St. John Baptist. 572 O. M. FEILDEN.

Thou gavest also Thy good Spirit to instruct them.

mp HOLY Spirit, hear us;
Help us while we sing;
Breathe into the music
Of the praise we bring.

2 Holy Spirit, prompt us
When we kneel to pray;
Nearer come, and teach us
What we ought to say.

mf 3 Holy Spirit, shine Thou
On the Book we read;
Gild its holy pages
With the light we need.

4 Holy Spirit, give us
Each a lowly mind;
Make us more like Jesus,
Gentle, pure, and kind.

5 Holy Spirit, brighten
Little deeds of toil;
And our playful pastimes
Let no folly spoil.

mp 6 Holy Spirit, keep us Safe from sins which lie
Hidden by some pleasure
From our youthful eye.

mf 7 Holy Spirit, help us
Daily, by Thy might,
What is wrong to conquer,
And to choose the right. AMEN.

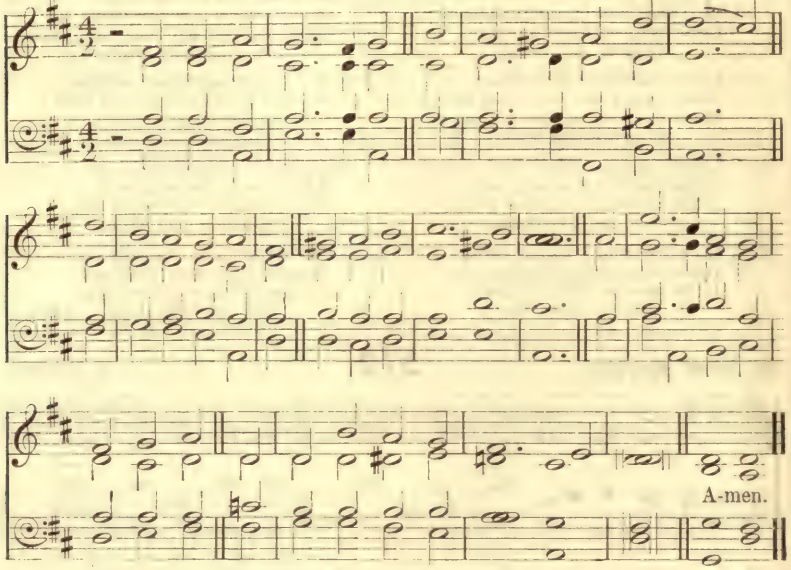
Hushed was the Evening Hymn. 573

ARTHUR SULLIVAN.



By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

Samuel answered, Speak; for Thy servant heareth.

Unis. mp HUSHED was the evening hymn,
The temple courts were dark,
The lamp was burning dim
Before the sacred ark,

c When suddenly a voice Divine Rang through the silence of the shrine.

mp 2 The old man, meek and mild,
The priest of Israel, slept;
His watch the temple child,
The little Levite, kept;
And what from Eli's sense was sealed
The Lord to Hannah's son revealed.

Har. mf 3 O give me Samuel's ear,
The open ear, O Lord,
Alive and quick to hear
p Each whisper of Thy word,
c Like him to answer at Thy call,
And to obey Thee first of all.

mf 4 O give me Samuel's heart,
A lowly heart, that waits
Where in Thy house Thou art,
Or watches at Thy gates
By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of Thy will.

5 O give me Samuel's mind,
A sweet unmurmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To Thee in life and death,—
That I may read, with childlike eyes, Truths that are hidden from the wise. AMEN.

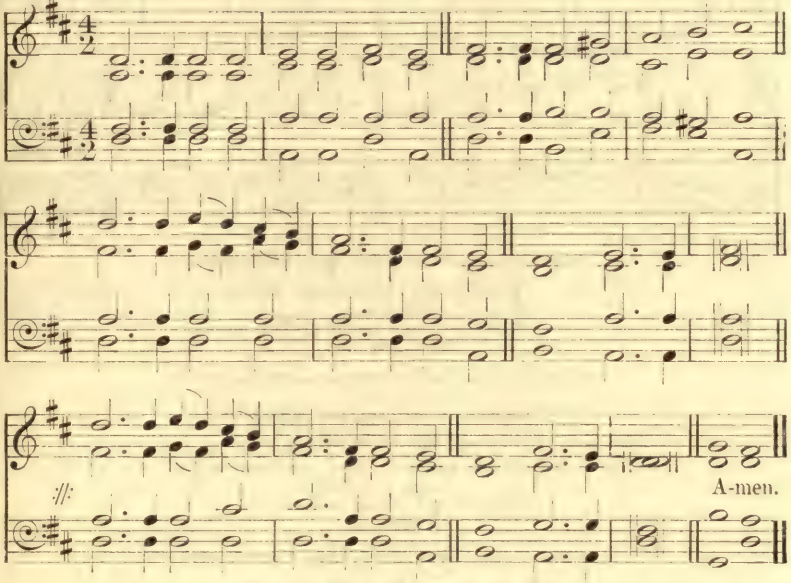
Star of Peace. 574 L. MASON.



I am . . . the bright and morning star.

mp STAR of peace to wanderers weary, Bright the beams that smile on me;
c Cheer the pilot's vision dreary,
d Far, far at sea.

mf 2 Star of hope, gleam on the billow;
Bless the soul that sighs for Thee;
Bless the sailor's lonely pillow,
d Far, far at sea.

mf 3 Star of faith, when winds are mocking
All his toil, he flies to Thee;
Save him on the billows rocking,
d Far, far at sea.

mf 4 Star Divine, O safely guide him;
Bring the wanderer home to Thee;
Sore temptations long have tried him,
d Far, far at sea. AMEN.

Rickmansworth. 575 W. F. HURNDALL.

Hear my voice according unto Thy lovingkindness.

mf JESUS, the children are calling;
O draw near.
Fold the young lambs in Thy bosom,
Shepherd dear.

mp 2 Slow are our footsteps and failing;
Oft we fall:
Jesus, the children are calling;
Hear their call.

3 Cold is our love, Lord, and narrow;
c Large is Thine,
Faithful and strong and tender:
So be mine.

mp 4 Gently, Lord, lead Thou our mothers—Weary they;
Bless all our sisters and brothers,
Night and day.

5 Fathers themselves are God's children; Teach them still;
c Let the Good Spirit show all men God's wise will.

f 6 Now to the Father, Son, Spirit—
Three in One—
Bountiful God of our fathers,
Praise be done! AMEN.

Grace. 576

May be sung by Trebles only. From Children's Hymnal.

Wist ye not that I must be about My Father's business?

mf O WHAT can little hands do
To please the King of heaven?
c The little hands some work may try,
To help the poor in misery:
p Such grace to mine be given.

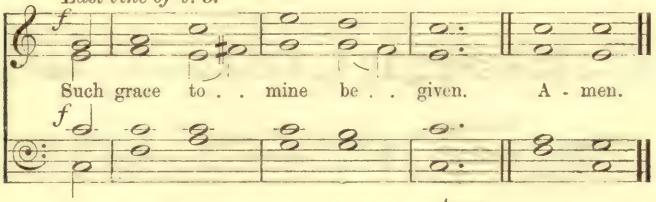
mf 2 O what can little lips do
To please the King of heaven?
c The little lips can praise and pray,
And gentle words of kindness say:
p Such grace to mine be given.

mf 3 O what can little eyes do
To please the King of heaven?
c The little eyes can upward look,
And learn to read God's holy book:
p Such grace to mine be given.

mf 4 O what can little hearts do
To please the King of heaven?
c Young hearts, if God His Spirit send,
Can love and trust their Saviour Friend:
p Such grace to mine be given.

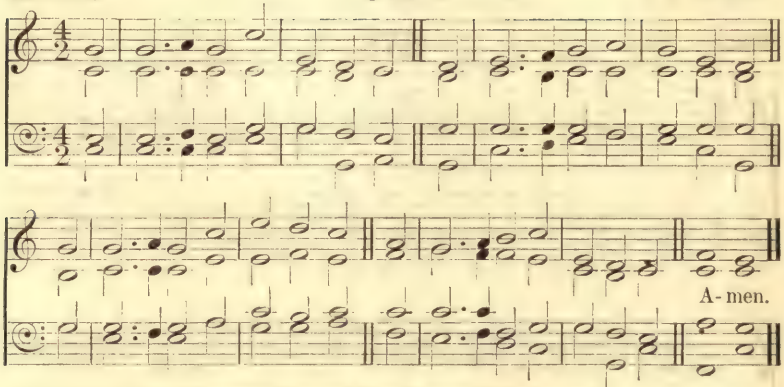
mf 5 Though small is all that we can do
To please the King of heaven,
When hearts and hands and lips unite
To serve the Saviour with delight,
They are most precious in His sight:

Last line of v. 5.



Amen.

Alstone. 577 C. E. Willing.



Even a child maketh himself known by his doings.

mf WE are but little children weak,
Nor born in any high estate;
What can we do for Jesus' sake,
Who is so high and good and great?

p 2 O, day by day, each Christian child Has much to do, without, within,—
A death to die for Jesus' sake,
A weary war to wage with sin.

c 3 When deep within our swelling hearts
The thoughts of pride and anger rise,
f When bitter words are on our tongues
And tears of passion in our eyes,

p 4 Then we may stay the angry blow,
Then we may check the hasty word,
Give gentle answers back again,
c And fight a battle for our Lord.

mf 5 With smiles of peace and looks of love Light in our dwellings we may make,
Bid kind good-humour brighten there,
And still do all for Jesus' sake.

6 There 's not a child so small and weak
But has his little cross to take,
His little work of love and praise
c That he may do for Jesus' sake.

Amen.

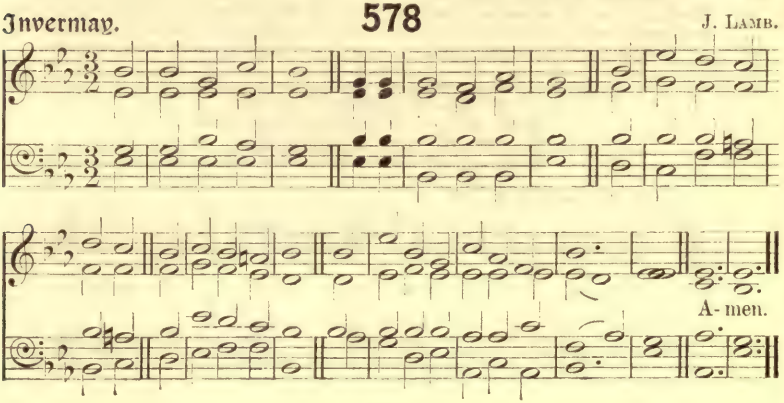
Invermay. 578 J. Lamb.



If there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath.

mf THE fields are all white,
And the reapers are few;
We children are willing,
But what can we do
To work for our Lord in His harvest?

2 Our hands are so small,
And our words are so weak
We cannot teach others;
How then shall we seek
To work for our Lord in His harvest?

3 We'll work by our prayers,
By the offerings we bring,
By small self-denials;
The least little thing
May work for our Lord in His harvest,—

4 Until by and by,
As the years pass, at length
cr. We too may be reapers
And go forth in strength
f To work for our Lord in His harvest.

AMEN.

Litany. 579 W. WOODWARD.

Will thou not from this time cry unto Me, My Father, Thou art the guide of my youth?

mf FATHER, lead me day by day
Ever in Thine own sweet way;
Teach me to be pure and true;
Show me what I ought to do.

2 When in danger, make me brave;
Make me know that Thou canst save;
Keep me safe by Thy dear side;
Let me in Thy love abide.

p 3 When I 'm tempted to do wrong,
Make me steadfast, wise, and strong;
And, when all alone I stand,
Shield me with Thy mighty hand.

mf 4 When my heart is full of glee,
Help me to remember Thee,—
Happy most of all to know
That my Father loves me so.

5 When my work seems hard and dry,
May I press on cheerily;
Help me patiently to bear
Pain and hardship, toil and care.

6 May I see the good and bright
When they pass before my sight;
May I hear the heavenly voice
When the pure and wise rejoice.

7 May I do the good I know,
Be Thy loving child below,
Then at last go home to Thee,
Evermore Thy child to be. AMEN.

Christmas Morn. 580 E. J. Hopkins.

They gave their own selves to the Lord.

mf THE wise may bring their learning,
The rich may bring their wealth,
And some may bring their greatness,
And some bring strength and health;
We, too, would bring our treasures
To offer to the King;
We have no wealth or learning:
What shall we children bring?

2 We 'll bring Him hearts that love Him;
We 'll bring Him thankful praise,
And young souls meekly striving To walk in holy ways:
c And these shall be the treasures
We offer to the King,
And these are gifts that even
The poorest child may bring.

mf 3 We 'll bring the little duties
We have to do each day;
We 'll try our best to please Him,
At home, at school, at play:
f And better are these treasures
To offer to our King
Than richest gifts without them;
Yet these a child may bring.

AMEN.

Fortitude. 581 H. R. PALMER.

The Lord is faithful, Who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

mf YIELD not to temptation, for yielding is sin;
Each victory will help you some other to win;
Fight manfully onward; dark passions subdue;
Look ever to Jesus, He will carry you through.

f Ask the Saviour to help you,
Comfort, strengthen, and keep you;
He is willing to aid you,
He will carry you through.

mf 2 Shun evil companions; bad language disdain;
p God's name hold in reverence, nor take it in vain;
c Be thoughtful and earnest, kind-hearted and true;
Look ever to Jesus, He will carry you through.

mf 3 To him that o'ercometh God giveth a crown;
Through faith we shall conquer, though often cast down;
He Who is the Saviour our strength will renew;
Look ever to Jesus, He will carry you through.

Stretching forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal.

mf LOOKING upward every day,
Sunshine on our faces;
Pressing onward every day
Toward the heavenly places;

p 2 Growing every day in awe,
For Thy name is holy;
Learning every day to love
With a love more lowly;

mf 3 Walking every day more close To our Elder Brother;
Growing every day more true
Unto one another;

4 Leaving every day behind
Something which might hinder;
Running swifter every day;
Growing purer, kinder,—

5 Lord, so pray we every day:
Hear us in Thy pity,

Pastor Bonus. 583 Miss Davis.

[May be sung to 'Kirkbraddan,' No. 227.]

I am the good Shepherd, and know My sheep, and am known of Mine.

mp JESUS is our Shepherd, Wiping every tear;
Folded in His bosom,
What have we to fear?
mf Only let us follow
Whither He doth lead,
To the thirsty desert
Or the dewy mead.

2 Jesus is our Shepherd:
Well we know His voice;
How its gentlest whisper
Makes our heart rejoice!
p Even when He chideth, Tender is its tone;
c None but He shall guide us;
We are His alone.

p 3 Jesus is our Shepherd:
For the sheep He bled;
Every lamb is sprinkled
With the blood He shed;
mf Then on each He setteth
His own secret sign:
'They that have My Spirit,
These,' saith He, 'are Mine.'

4 Jesus is our Shepherd:
With His goodness now
And His tender mercy
He doth us endow.
c Let us sing His praises
With a gladsome heart,
f Till in heaven we meet Him,
Never more to part. Amen.

Belmont. 586 Adapted from GARDINER'S Sacred Melodies, 1812 (?).

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth.

mf BY cool Siloam's shady rill
How sweet the lily grows!
How sweet the breath, beneath the hill,
Of Sharon's dewy rose!

2 Lo! such the child whose early feet
The paths of peace have trod,
Whose secret heart with influence sweet
Is upward drawn to God.

p 3 By cool Siloam's shady rill
The lily must decay;
The rose that blooms beneath the hill
Must shortly fade away;

4 And soon, too soon, the wintry hour
Of man's maturer age
Will shake the soul with sorrow's power
And stormy passion's rage.

mf 5 O Thou Whose infant feet were found Within Thy Father's shrine,
Whose years, with changeless virtue
Were all alike Divine, [crowned, p 6 Dependent on Thy bounteous breath,

We seek Thy grace alone,
c In childhood, manhood, age, and death
To keep us still Thine own. AMEN.

O-ver hills and plains and val-leys, We are go-ing to His pal-ace,
We are go-ing to His pal-ace, Go-ing to the bet-ter land;

Boys mp WHITHER, pilgrims, are you going,
Going each with staff in hand?
Girls mf We are going on a journey,
Going at our King's command.
All Over hills and plains and valleys,
We are going to His palace,
Going to the better land.

Boys mp 2 Fear ye not the way so lonely,
You a little, feeble band?
Girls f No; for friends unseen are near us,
Holy angels round us stand.
All Christ, our Leader, walks beside us;
He will guard, and He will guide us,
Guide us to the better land.

Boys mp 3 Tell us, pilgrims, what you hope for
In that far-off better land?
Girls f Spotless robes and crowns of glory,
From a Saviour's loving hand.
All We shall drink of life's clear river,
We shall dwell with God for ever,
In that bright and better land.

Boys mp 4 Pilgrims, may we travel with you
To that bright and better land?
Girls mf Come and welcome, come and welcome,
Welcome to our pilgrim band.
All Come, O come, and do not leave us;
Christ is waiting to receive us
In that bright and better land. AMEN.

The Good Shepherd. 589

W. B. Bradbury.

[May be sung to 'Heber,' No. 253.]

He shall feed His flock like a shepherd.

mf SAVIOUR, like a shepherd lead us,
Much we need Thy tender care:
In Thy pleasant pastures feed us;
For our use Thy folds prepare:
p Blessèd Jesus!
c Thou hast bought us, Thine we are.

mf 2 We are Thine: do Thou befriend us;
Be the Guardian of our way;
Keep Thy flock; from sin defend us;
Seek us when we go astray:
p Blessèd Jesus!
c Hear young children when they pray.

p 3 Thou hast promised to receive us,
Poor and sinful though we be;
Thou hast mercy to relieve us,
Grace to cleanse, and power to free:
Blessèd Jesus!
c Let us early turn to Thee.

mf 4 Early let us seek Thy favour;
Early let us do Thy will;
Blessèd Lord and only Saviour,
With Thyself our bosoms fill:
p Blessèd Jesus!

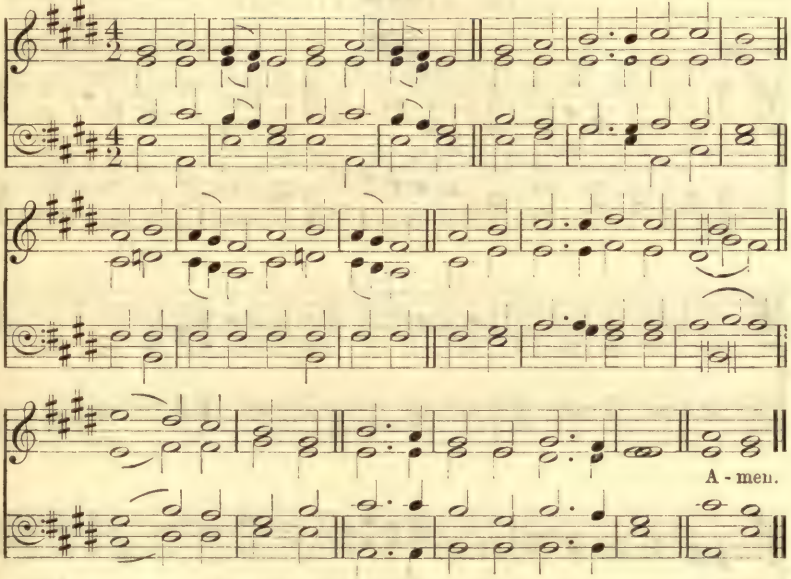
Pilgrim Children. 590

C. H. Lloyd.



[May be sung to 'Wildersmouth,' No. 34.]

Your little ones . . will I bring in, and they shall know the land.

mf WHEN from Egypt's house of bondage
Israel marched, a mighty band,
Little children numbered with them
Journeyed to the promised land;
Little children
Trod the desert's trackless sand.

2 Little children crossed the Jordan,
Landed on fair Canaan's shore;
'Neath the sheltering vine they rested,
Homeless wanderers now no more:
Little children
Sang sweet praise for perils o'er.

mp 3 Saviour, like those Hebrew children, Youthful pilgrims we would be;
From the chains of sin and Satan
Thou hast died to set us free;
We would traverse
All the wilderness to Thee.

4 Guide our feeble, erring footsteps;
Shade us from the heat by day;
Be our light from shadowy nightfall
Till the darkness pass away;
Jesus, guard us
From the dangers of the way.

f 5 Then, our pilgrim journey ended,
All Thy glory we shall see,
Dwell with saints and holy angels,
Rest beneath life's healing tree,—
Happy children,
Praising, blessing, loving Thee.

AMEN

Children whose sins are all forgiven,
A holy, happy band,
f Singing, 'Glory, glory, glory!'

mf 2 In flowing robes of spotless white
See every one arrayed,
Dwelling in everlasting light
And joys that never fade,
f Singing, 'Glory, glory, glory!'

p 3 What brought them to that world above,
c That heaven so bright and fair,
Where all is peace and joy and love?
How came those children there,
f Singing, 'Glory, glory, glory'?

p 4 Because the Saviour shed His blood
To wash away their sin;
c Bathed in that pure and precious flood,
Behold them white and clean,
f Singing, 'Glory, glory, glory!'

Happy Land. 592 R. A. Smith's Select Melodies, 1827.

The Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land.

mf THERE is a happy land,
Far, far away,
Where saints in glory stand,
Bright, bright as day.
O how they sweetly sing,
'Worthy is our Saviour King!'
f Loud let His praises ring, Praise, praise for aye.

mf 2 Come to this happy land,
Come, come away;
Why will ye doubting stand?
Why still delay?
f O we shall happy be
When, from sin and sorrow free,
Lord, we shall live with Thee,
Blest, blest for aye.

mf 3 Bright in that happy land
Beams every eye;
Kept by a Father's hand,
Love cannot die.
f On then to glory run;
Be a crown and kingdom won;
And, bright above the sun,
ff Reign, reign for aye. AMEN.

City Bright. 593 J. S. Tyler.

There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth.

mf THERE is a city bright;
Closed are its gates to sin;
Nought that defileth,
Nought that defileth
Can ever enter in.

p 2 Saviour, I come to Thee;
O Lamb of God, I pray,
Cleanse me and save me,
Cleanse me and save me,
Wash all my sins away.

mf 3 Lord, make me, from this hour
Thy loving child to be,
Kept by Thy power,
Kept by Thy power
From all that grieveth Thee,—

4 Till in the snow-white dress
Of Thy redeemed I stand,
Faultless and stainless,
Faultless and stainless,
Safe in that happy land. AMEN.

In Memoriam. 595

J. STAINER.

O how great is Thy goodness, which Thou hast laid up for them that fear Thee!

mf THERE 'S a Friend for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
A Friend That never changes,
Whose love will never die.
Unlike our friends by nature,
Who change with changing years,
f This Friend is always worthy
The precious name He bears.

mf 2 There 's a home for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Where Jesus reigns in glory,
A home of peace and joy.
No home on earth is like it,
Nor can with it compare,
For every one is happy,
Nor can be happier, there.

3 There 's a crown for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
And all who look to Jesus Shall wear it by and by,—
A crown of brightest glory,
Which He will then bestow
On all who love the Saviour,
And walk with Him below.

f 4 There 's a song for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
A harp of sweetest music,
And palms of victory.
All, all above is treasured
And found in Christ alone:
p O come, dear little children,
That all may be your own. *AMEN.

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise.

f LORD, this day Thy children meet
In Thy courts with willing feet;
Unto Thee this day they raise Grateful hearts in hymns of praise.

mf 2 Not alone the day of rest
With Thy worship shall be blest;
In our pleasure and our glee,
Lord, we would remember Thee.

3 Help us unto Thee to pray,
Hallowing our happy day,
From Thy presence thus to win
Hearts all pure and free from sin.

4 All our pleasures here below,
Saviour, from Thy mercy flow:
Little children Thou dost love;
Draw our hearts to Thee above.

5 Make, O Lord, our childhood shine
With all lowly grace, like Thine;
f Then through all eternity
We shall live in heaven with Thee. AMEN.

[May be sung to 'Springfield,' No. 207.]

Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the Lord.

[For Flower Services.]

mf HERE, Lord, we offer Thee all that is fairest, Bloom from the garden and flowers from the field,
p Gifts for the stricken ones, knowing Thou carest
More for the love than the wealth that we yield.

mf 2 Send, Lord, by these to the sick and the dying,
Speak to their hearts with a message of peace;
Comfort the sad who in weakness are lying,
p Grant the departing a gentle release.

mf 3 Raise, Lord, to health again those who have sickened;
Fair be their lives as the roses in bloom;
Give, of Thy grace, to the souls Thou hast quickened Gladness for sorrow and brightness for gloom.

mp 4 We, Lord, like flowers, must bloom and must wither;
We, like these blossoms, must fade and must die;
mf Gather us, Lord, to Thy bosom for ever,
Grant us a place in Thy home in the sky. Amen.

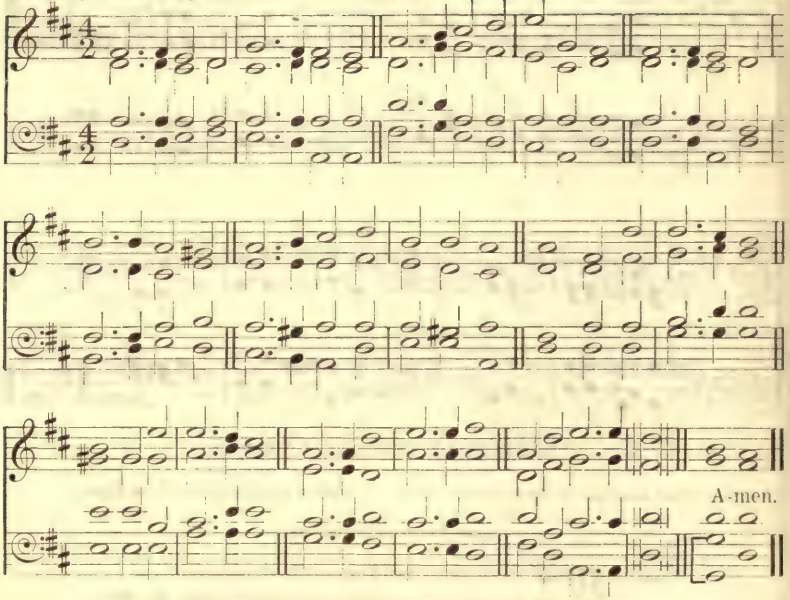
Father, from Thy throne. 599

T. Wild.



We will bless the Lord from this time forth and for evermore.

[For an Anniversary.]

mf FATHER, from Thy throne of glory,
Listen to our praise, we pray;
p Thou hast spared us, in Thy mercy,
Here to meet another day.
f Crown, crown it, God of love,
With blessings from above:
Fill our hearts, fill our hearts
With Thy fear and love.

mf 2 Blessings more than we can number Hitherto have marked our way;
And Thine eye, that knows no slumber,
Hath watched o'er us every day.
f Praise, praise unto Thy name,
Praise, praise we loud proclaim;
Heaven shall ring, heaven shall ring
With the loud acclaim.

mf 3 Wilt Thou, O almighty Father,
Bless our meeting here to-day,
Ere the night's dark shade shall gather
And our praises die away?
f Come, Lord, and bless us now;
Thy grace and mercy show;
Evermore, evermore
May Thy blessings flow.

mf 4 May we all, when life is over,
Teachers, scholars, meet above,
c Joining in that song for ever
Of our risen Saviour's love.
f Then shall we sweetly sing
Praise to our Saviour King;
Heaven shall ring, heaven shall ring
With the strain we sing.

Amen.

PSALM I.

mf THAT man hath perfect blessedness
Who walketh not astray
In counsel of ungodly men,
Nor stands in sinners' way,

2 Nor sitteth in the scorner's chair;
But placeth his delight
Upon God's law, and meditates
On His law day and night.

3 He shall be like a tree that grows
Near planted by a river,

And his leaf fadeth never;

4 And all he doth shall prosper well.
p The wicked are not so;
But like they are unto the chaff,
Which wind drives to and fro.

mf 5 In judgment therefore shall not stand

PSALM XIX. 7—14.

mf GOD'S law is perfect, and converts
The soul in sin that lies;
God's testimony is most sure,
And makes the simple wise.

2 The statutes of the Lord are right,
And do rejoice the heart;
The Lord's command is pure, and doth
Light to the eyes impart.

3 Unspotted is the fear of God,
And doth endure for ever;
The judgments of the Lord are true
And righteous altogether.

4 They more than gold, yea, much fine gold,
To be desired are:
Than honey, honey from the comb
That droppeth, sweeter far.

5 Moreover, they Thy servant warn How he his life should frame.
A great reward provided is
For them that keep the same.

mp 6 Who can his errors understand?
O cleanse Thou me within From secret faults. Thy servant keep
From all presumptuous sin;

7 And do not suffer them to have Dominion over me:
Then righteous and innocent
I from much sin shall be.

PSALM XXVII. 4—6.

mf ONE thing I of the Lord desired,
And will seek to obtain,
That all days of my life I may Within God's house remain;

2 That I the beauty of the Lord Behold may and admire,
p And that I in His holy place
May reverently enquire.

mf 3 For He in His pavilion shall Me hide in evil days;
In secret of His tent me hide,
And on a rock me raise.

4 And now, even at this present time,
Mine head shall lifted be Above all those that are my foes
And round encompass me:

f 5 Therefore unto His tabernacle
I 'll sacrifices bring
Of joyfulness; I 'll sing, yea, I
To God will praises sing. AMEN.

PSALM XXX. 2–5.

mf O THOU Who art the Lord my God,
I in distress to Thee
With loud cries lifted up my voice,
And Thou hast healed me.

2 O Lord, my soul Thou hast brought up
And rescued from the grave ;
That I to pit should not go down,
Alive Thou didst me save.

3 O ye that are His holy ones,
Sing praise unto the Lord ;
And give unto Him thanks when ye
His holiness record.

cresc. 4 For but a moment lasts His wrath ;
Life in His favour lies :
Weeping may for a night endure,

PSALM XXXI. 19—24.

mf HOW great 's the goodness Thou for them
That fear Thee keep'st in store,
And wrought'st for them that trust in
The sons of men before!

2 In secret of Thy presence Thou Shalt hide them from man's pride:
From strife of tongues Thou closely
As in a tent, them hide.

f 3 All praise and thanks be to the Lord;
For He hath magnified
His wondrous love to me within A city fortified.

p 4 'For from Thine eyes cut off I am,'
I in my haste had said;
My voice yet heard'st Thou, when to Thee
With cries my moan I made.

mf 5 O love the Lord, all ye His saints;
Because the Lord doth guard
The faithful, and He plenteously
Proud doers doth reward.

PSALM XXXIII. 1—8.

mf YE righteous, in the Lord rejoice;
It comely is and right
That upright men, with thankful voice, Should praise the Lord of might.

f 2 Praise God with harp, and unto Him
Sing with the psaltery;
Upon a ten-stringed instrument
Make ye sweet melody.

3 A new song to Him sing, and play
With loud noise skilfully;
For right is God's word, all His works
Are done in verity.

mf 4 To judgment and to righteousness
A love He beareth still;
The loving-kindness of the Lord
The earth throughout doth fill.

5 The heavens by the word of God
Did their beginning take;
And by the breathing of His mouth
He all their hosts did make.

6 The waters of the seas He brings Together as an heap;
And in storehouses, as it were,
He layeth up the deep.

f 7 Let earth, and all that live therein,
With reverence fear the Lord;
Let all the world's inhabitants
Dread Him with one accord.

PSALM XXXVI. 5—9.

mf THY mercy, Lord, is in the heavens ;
Thy truth doth reach the clouds :
Thy justice is like mountains great,
Thy judgments deep as floods.

2 Lord, Thou preservest man and beast :
How precious is Thy grace !
Therefore in shadow of Thy wings
Men's sons their trust shall place.

3 They with the fatness of Thy house
Shall be well satisfied ;
From rivers of Thy pleasures Thou Wilt drink to them provide ;

4 Because of life the fountain pure Remains alone with Thee,
And in that purest light of Thine
We clearly light shall see. AMEN.

PSALM XXXVII. 3—7.

mf SET thou thy trust upon the Lord,
And be thou doing good,
And so thou in the land shalt dwell
And verily have food.

2 Delight thyself in God ; He 'll give Thine heart's desire to thee :
Thy way to God commit, Him trust ;
It bring to pass shall He.

c 3 And, like unto the light, He shall Thy righteousness display ;
f And He thy judgment shall bring forth Like noon-tide of the day.

mp 4 Rest in the Lord, and patiently
Wait for Him ; do not fret
For him who, prospering in his way,
Success in sin doth get. AMEN.

PSALM XL. 1—5.

mp I WAITED for the Lord my God,
And patiently did bear;
At length to me He did incline,
My voice and cry to hear.

mf 2 He took me from a fearful pit
And from the miry clay,
And on a rock He set my feet,
Establishing my way.

3 He put a new song in my mouth,
Our God to magnify:
Many shall see it, and shall fear,
And on the Lord rely.

f 4 O blessèd is the man whose trust
Upon the Lord relies, Respecting not the proud, nor such
As turn aside to lies.

mf 5 O Lord my God, full many are
The wonders Thou hast done:
Thy gracious thoughts to us-ward far Above all thoughts are gone:

6 In order none can reckon them
To Thee: if them declare
And speak of them I would, they more Than can be numbered are. Amen.

PSALM XLIII. 3—5.

mp O SEND Thy light forth and Thy truth ;
Let them be guides to me,
And bring me to Thine holy hill,
Even where Thy dwellings be.
mf Then will I to God's altar go,
To God my chiefest joy :
Yea, God, my God, Thy name to praise
My harp I will employ.

p 2 Why art thou then cast down, my soul ?
What should discourage thee ?
And why with vexing thoughts art Disquieted in me ? [thou
f Still trust in God ; for Him to praise
Good cause I yet shall have :
He of my countenance is the health,
My God That doth me save. AMEN.

PSALM XLV. 2—7.

mf THOU fairer art than sons of men :
Into Thy lips is store
Of grace infused ; God therefore Thee
Hath blessed for evermore.

f 2 O Thou That art the Mighty One, Thy sword gird on Thy thigh ;
Even with Thy glory excellent,
And with Thy majesty.

mf 3 For meekness, truth, and righteousness,
In state ride prosperously ;
And Thy right hand shall Thee instruct
In things that fearful be.

4 Thine arrows sharply pierce the heart
Of the enemies of the King,
And under Thy subjection
The people down do bring.

f 5 For ever and for ever is,
O God, Thy throne of might ;
The sceptre of Thy kingdom is
A sceptre that is right.

6 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill ;
For God, Thy God, most high,
Above Thy fellows hath with the oil
Of joy anointed Thee. AMEN.

PSALM XLVI.

f GOD is our refuge and our strength,
In straits a present aid ;
c Therefore, although the earth remove,
We will not be afraid ;

f 2 Though hills amidst the seas be cast ;
Though waters roaring make,
And troubled be ; yea, though the hills
By swelling seas do shake.

mf 3 A river is, whose streams do glad
The city of our God,
The holy place, wherein the Lord
Most high hath His abode.

4 God in the midst of her doth dwell ;
Nothing shall her remove :
The Lord to her an helper will,
And that right early, prove.

5 The heathen raged tumultuously,
The kingdoms moved were ;
d The Lord God uttered His voice,
The earth did melt for fear.

mf 6 The Lord of hosts upon our side
Doth constantly remain ;
The God of Jacob 's our refuge,
Us safely to maintain.

7 Come, and behold what wondrous works
Have by the Lord been wrought ;
Come see what desolations
He on the earth hath brought.

8 Unto the ends of all the earth
Wars into peace He turns :
c The bow He breaks, the spear He cuts,
In fire the chariot burns.

p 9 'Be still, and know that I am God :
c Among the heathen I Will be exalted ; I on earth
f Will be exalted high.'

10 Our God, Who is the Lord of hosts,
Is still upon our side ;
ff The God of Jacob our refuge
For ever will abide. AMEN.

PSALM XLVIII. 1, 10—14.

f GREAT is the Lord ; and greatly He Is to be praised still,
Within the city of our God,
Upon His holy hill.

mf 2 O Lord, according to Thy name,
Through all the earth 's Thy praise ;
And Thy right hand, O Lord, is full Of righteousness always.

3 Because Thy judgments are made
Let Sion mount rejoice ; [known,
Of Judah let the daughters all Send forth a cheerful voice.

f 4 Walk about Sion, and go round ;
The high towers thereof tell ;
Consider ye her palaces,
And mark her bulwarks well ;

5 That ye may tell posterity.
For this God doth abide
Our God for evermore ; He will Even unto death us guide. AMEN.

PSALM LI. 1—3, 7—13.

mp AFTER Thy loving-kindness, Lord,
Have mercy upon me:
For Thy compassions great, blot out
All mine iniquity.

p 2 Me cleanse from sin, and throughly
From mine iniquity: [wash
For my transgressions I confess;
My sin I ever see.

mp 3 Do Thou with hyssop sprinkle me;
I shall be cleansèd so;
Yea, wash Thou me, and then I shall Be whiter than the snow.

4 Of gladness and of joyfulness
Make me to hear the voice;
c That so these very bones which Thou Hast broken may rejoice.

p 5 All mine iniquities blot out,
Thy face hide from my sin.
Create a clean heart, Lord, renew
A right spirit me within.

6 Cast me not from Thy sight, nor take Thy Holy Spirit away.
Restore me Thy salvation's joy;
With Thy free Spirit me stay.

mf 7 Then will I teach Thy ways unto Those that transgressors be;
And those that sinners are shall then
Be turnèd unto Thee. AMEN.

PSALM LI. 15—17.

mp MY closèd lips, O Lord, by Thee
Let them be openèd ;
Then shall Thy praises by my mouth
Abroad be publishèd.

2 For Thou desir'st not sacrifice,
Else would I give it Thee ;
Nor wilt Thou with burnt-offering
At all delighted be.

3 A broken spirit is to God
A pleasing sacrifice :
A broken and a contrite heart,
Lord, Thou wilt not despise. AMEN.

PSALM LXI. 1—4.

mp O GOD, give ear unto my cry ;
Unto my prayer attend :
From the utmost corner of the land
My cry to Thee I 'll send.

2 What time my heart is overwhelmed
And in perplexity,
Do Thou me lead unto the Rock
That higher is than I.

mf 3 For Thou hast for my refuge been
A shelter by Thy power,
And for defence against my foes
Thou hast been a strong tower.

4 Within Thy tabernacle I
For ever will abide,
And under covert of Thy wings
With confidence me hide. AMEN.

PSALM LXII. 5—8.

mf MY soul, wait thou with patience
Upon thy God alone;
On Him dependeth all my hope
And expectation.

2 He only my salvation is,
And my strong rock is He;
He only is my sure defence:
I shall not movèd be.

3 In God my glory placèd is,
And my salvation sure;
In God the rock is of my strength,
My refuge most secure.

f 4 Ye people, place your confidence
In Him continually;
Before Him pour ye out your heart:
God is our refuge high. AMEN.

PSALM LXIII. 1—8.

mf LORD, Thee, my God, I 'll early seek;
My soul doth thirst for Thee;
My flesh longs in a dry parched land,
Wherein no waters be;

2 That I Thy power may behold,
And brightness of Thy face,
As I have seen Thee heretofore Within Thy holy place.

c 3 Since better is Thy love than life,
My lips Thee praise shall give:
f I in Thy name will lift my hands,
And bless Thee while I live.

4 Even as with marrow and with fat
My soul shall fillèd be;
Then shall my mouth with joyful lips
Sing praises unto Thee,

mf 5 When I do Thee upon my bed
Remember with delight,
And when on Thee I meditate
In watches of the night.

6 In shadow of Thy wings I 'll joy;
For Thou mine help hast been.
My soul Thee follows hard; and me
Thy right hand doth sustain. AMEN.

PSALM LXV. 1—5.

mf PRAISE waits for Thee in Sion, Lord:
To Thee vows paid shall be.
O Thou That Hearer art of prayer,
All flesh shall come to Thee.

p 2 Iniquities, I must confess, Prevail against me do;
c But, as for our transgressions,
Them purge away shalt Thou.

mf 3 Blessed is the man whom Thou dost choose,
And mak'st approach to Thee,
That he within Thy courts, O Lord,
May still a dweller be.

4 We surely shall be satisfied
With Thy abundant grace,
And with the goodness of Thy house,
Even of Thy holy place.

5 O God of our salvation,
Thou, in Thy righteousness,
By fearful works unto our prayers
Thine answer dost express;

f 6 Therefore the ends of all the earth,
And those afar that be Upon the sea, their confidence,
O Lord, will place in Thee.

PSALM LXVII.

mf LORD, bless and pity us,
Shine on us with Thy face,
That the earth Thy way, and nations all
May know Thy saving grace.

2 Let people praise Thee, Lord;
Let people all Thee praise;
f O let the nations be glad,
In songs their voices raise.

mf 3 Thou 'lt justly people judge,
On earth rule nations all.
f Let people praise Thee, Lord; let them
Praise Thee, both great and small.

4 The earth her fruit shall yield;
Our God shall blessing send;
God shall us bless; men shall Him fear
Unto earth's utmost end. Amen.

Old 44th. 656 Anglo-Genevan Psalter, 1556.

PSALM LXVIII. 4, 5, 7—10.

f TO God sing, to His name sing praise:
Extol Him with your voice
That rides on heaven, by His name JAH;
Before His face rejoice.
Because the Lord a father is Unto the fatherless;
God is the widow's judge, within
His place of holiness.

mf 2 O God, what time Thou didst go forth Before Thy people's face,
And when through the great wilderness Thy glorious marching was,
f Then at God's presence shook the earth,
Then drops from heaven fell;
This Sinai shook before the Lord,
The God of Israel.

mf 3 O God, Thou to Thine heritage
Didst send a plenteous rain, Whereby Thou, when it weary was,
Didst it refresh again.
Thy congregation then did make
Their habitation there:
Of Thine own goodness for the poor,
O God, Thou didst prepare. AMEN.

PSALM LXVIII. 18—20.

f THOU hast, O Lord, most glorious,
Ascended up on high,
And in triumph victorious led Captive captivity.

mf 2 Thou hast receivèd gifts for men,
For such as did rebel;
Yea, even for them, that God the Lord
In midst of them might dwell.

3 Blessed be the Lord, Who is to us
Of our salvation God,
Who daily with His benefits
Us plenteously doth load.

f 4 He of salvation is the God,
Who is our God most strong;
And unto God the Lord from death
The issues do belong. AMEN.

PSALM LXXII. 1—8.

mf O LORD, Thy judgments give the king,
His son Thy righteousness.
With right he shall Thy people judge,
Thy poor with uprightness.

2 The lofty mountains shall bring forth
Unto the people peace ;
Likewise the little hills the same Shall do by righteousness.

mp 3 The people's poor ones he shall judge,
The needy's children save ;
And those shall he in pieces break
Who them oppressèd have.

mf 4 They shall Thee fear, while sun and moon
Do last, through ages all.
Like rain on mown grass he shall drop,
Or showers on earth that fall.

5 The just shall flourish in his days,
And prosper in his reign ;
He shall, while doth the moon endure
Abundant peace maintain.

6 His large and great dominion shall From sea to sea extend :
c It from the river shall reach forth
Unto earth's utmost end. AMEN.

PSALM LXXII. 17—19.

f HIS name for ever shall endure ;
Last like the sun it shall :
Men shall be blessed in him, and blessed
All nations shall him call.

2 Now blessèd be the Lord our God,
The God of Israel,
For He alone doth wondrous works,
In glory that excel.

3 And blessèd be His glorious name
To all eternity :
The whole earth let His glory fill.
Amen, so let it be. AMEN.

PSALM LXXIII. 24—26.

mf THOU with Thy counsel, while I live,
Wilt me conduct and guide,
And to Thy glory afterward
Receive me to abide.

2 Whom have I in the heavens high
But Thee, O Lord, alone?
And in the earth whom I desire Besides Thee there is none.

p 3 My flesh and heart doth faint and fail, mf But God doth fail me never;
For of my heart God is the strength
And portion for ever. AMEN.

PSALM LXXX. 1—3, 17—19.

mf HEAR, Israel's Shepherd! like a flock
Thou That dost Joseph guide; Shine forth, O Thou That dost between
The cherubim abide.

2 In Ephraim's, and Benjamin's,
And in Manasseh's sight,
O come for our salvation;
Stir up Thy strength and might.

mp 3 Turn us again, O Lord our God,
And upon us vouchsafe
To make Thy countenance to shine,
And so we shall be safe.

4 O let Thy hand be still upon
The Man of Thy right hand,
The Son of man, Whom for Thyself
Thou madest strong to stand.

5 So henceforth we will not go back,
Nor turn from Thee at all;
O do Thou quicken us, and we Upon Thy name will call.

c 6 Turn us again, Lord God of hosts,
And upon us vouchsafe
To make Thy countenance to shine,
mf And so we shall be safe. AMEN.

PSALM LXXXIV.

mf HOW lovely is Thy dwelling-place,
O Lord of hosts, to me!
The tabernacles of Thy grace
How pleasant, Lord, they be!

2 My thirsty soul longs veh'mently,
Yea faints, Thy courts to see:
My very heart and flesh cry out,
O living God, for Thee.

3 Behold, the sparrow findeth out
An house wherein to rest;
The swallow also for herself
Hath purchased a nest,

4 Even Thine own altars, where she safe mf
Her young ones forth may bring,
O Thou almighty Lord of hosts,
Who art my God and King.

5 Blessed are they in Thy house that dwell;
They ever give Thee praise.
Blessed is the man whose strength Thou
In whose heart are Thy ways, [art,

6 Who, passing thorough Baca's vale
Therein do dig up wells;
Also the rain that falleth down
The pools with water fills.

7 So they from strength unwearied go
Still forward unto strength,
Until in Sion they appear Before the Lord at length.

p 8 Lord God of hosts, my prayer hear;
O Jacob's God, give ear.
c See God our shield, look on the face
Of Thine anointed dear.

9 For in Thy courts one day excels
A thousand; rather in My God's house will I keep a door
Than dwell in tents of sin.

10 For God the Lord 's a sun and shield:
He 'll grace and glory give,
And will withhold no good from them
That uprightly do live.

f 11 O Thou That art the Lord of hosts,
That man is truly blessed
Who by assured confidence
On Thee alone doth rest.

PSALM LXXXIX. 1—8.

mf GOD'S mercies I will ever sing;
And with my mouth I shall Thy faithfulness make to be known
To generations all.

2 For mercy shall be built, said I,
For ever to endure;
Thy faithfulness, even in the heavens,
Thou wilt establish sure.

mp 3 'I with My chosen One have made A covenant graciously;
And to My servant, whom I loved,
To David sworn have I,

4 'That I thy seed establish shall
For ever to remain,
And will to generations all Thy throne build and maintain.'

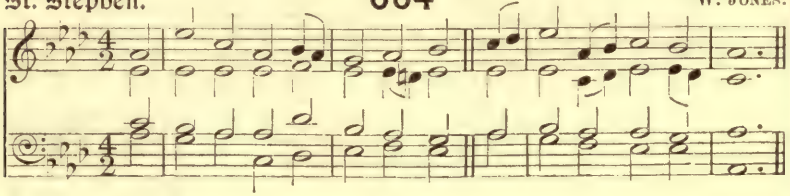
f 5 The praises of Thy wonders, Lord,
The heavens shall express,
And in the congregation
Of saints Thy faithfulness.

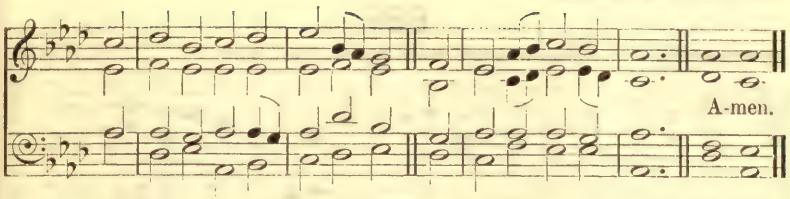
6 For who in heaven with the Lord
May once himself compare?
Who is like God among the sons
Of those that mighty are?

p 7 Great fear in meeting of the saints
Is due unto the Lord;
c And He of all about Him should
With reverence be adored.

mf 8 O Thou That art the Lord of hosts,
What Lord in mightiness
Is like to Thee, Who compassed round
Art with Thy faithfulness? AMEN.

St. Stephen. 664 W. JONES.





PSALM LXXXIX. 15—18.

f O GREATLY blessed the people are
The joyful sound that know ;
In brightness of Thy face, O Lord,
They ever on shall go.

mf 2 They in Thy name shall all the day
Rejoice exceedingly ;
And in Thy righteousness shall they Exalted be on high.

3 Because the glory of their strength
Doth only stand in Thee ;
And in Thy favour shall our horn
And power exalted be.

f 4 For God is our defence ; and He
To us doth safety bring :
The Holy One of Israel
Is our almighty King. AMEN.

PSALM XC. 1, 2, 14—17.

mf LORD, Thou hast been our dwelling-
In generations all. [place
Before Thou ever hadst brought forth
The mountains great or small,

2 Ere ever Thou hadst formed the earth
And all the world abroad,
f Even Thou from everlasting art
To everlasting God.

mp 3 O with Thy tender mercies, Lord,
Us early satisfy ;
So we rejoice shall all our days,
And still be glad in Thee.

4 According as the days have been Wherein we grief have had,
And years wherein we ill have seen,
So do Thou make us glad.

mf 5 O let Thy work and power appear Thy servants' face before ;
And show unto their children dear
Thy glory evermore ;

6 And let the beauty of the Lord
Our God be us upon ;
Our handyworks establish Thou,
Establish them each one. AMEN.

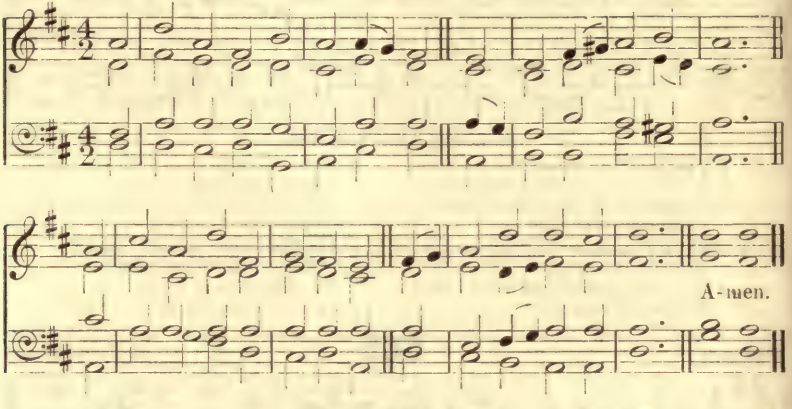
Devonshire. Singt unserm Herrn ein dankvoll Lied. J. G. Frech.



PSALM XCII. 1—4.

mf TO render thanks unto the Lord
It is a comely thing,
And to Thy name, O Thou Most High,
Due praise aloud to sing;

2 Thy loving-kindness to show forth
When shines the morning light;
And to declare Thy faithfulness
With pleasure every night,

3 On a ten-stringèd instrument,
Upon the psaltery,
And on the harp with solemn sound
And grave sweet melody.

f 4 For Thou, Lord, by Thy mighty works
Hast made my heart right glad;
And I will triumph in the works
Which by Thine hands were made.
Amen.

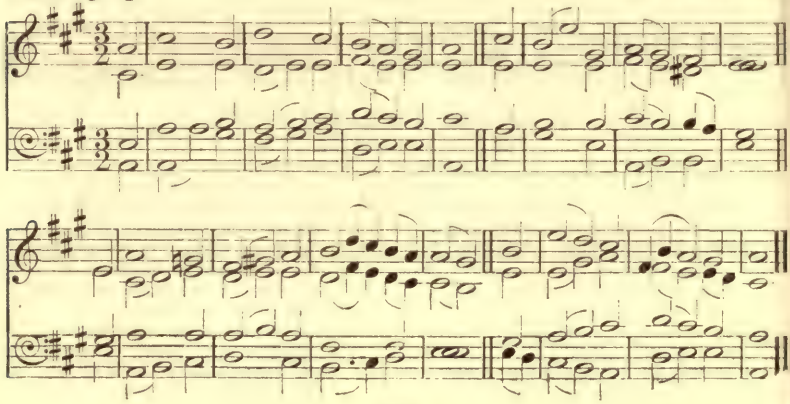
St. Gregory. R. Wainwright.



PSALM XCIII.

f THE Lord doth reign, and clothed With majesty most bright; [is He
His works do show Him clothed to be,
And girt about with might.

2 The world is also stablished,
That it cannot depart;
Thy throne is fixed of old, and Thou
From everlasting art.

3 The floods, O Lord, have lifted up,
They lifted up their voice;
The floods have lifted up their waves,
And made a mighty noise.

ff 4 But yet the Lord, That is on high,
Is more of might by far
Than noise of many waters is,
Or great sea-billows are.

mf 5 Thy testimonies every one
In faithfulness excel;
And holiness for ever, Lord,
Thine house becometh well.

Southwark. 668 Adapted from C. Tye.

PSALM XCV. 1—6.

f O COME, let us sing to the Lord:
Come, let us every one
A joyful noise make to the Rock
Of our salvation.

2 Let us before His presence come
With praise and thankful voice;
Let us sing psalms to Him with grace,
And make a joyful noise.

mf 3 For God a great God, and great King Above all gods, He is;
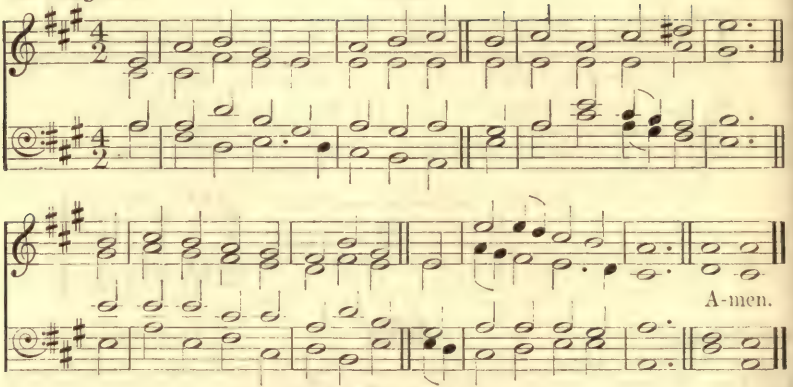
Depths of the earth are in His hand,
The strength of hills is His.

4 To Him the spacious sea belongs,
For He the same did make;
The dry land also from His hands
Its form at first did take.

mp 5 O come, and let us worship Him:
Let us bow down withal,
And on our knees before the Lord
Our Maker let us fall. AMEN.

St. Magnus. 669 J. Clark.



PSALM XCVI. 1–7.

mf O SING a new song to the Lord ;
Sing all the earth to God :
To God sing, bless His name, show
His saving health abroad. [still

2 Among the heathen nations
His glory do declare ;
And unto all the people show
His works that wondrous are.

f 3 For great 's the Lord, and greatly He Is to be magnified ;
Yea, worthy to be feared is He Above all gods beside.

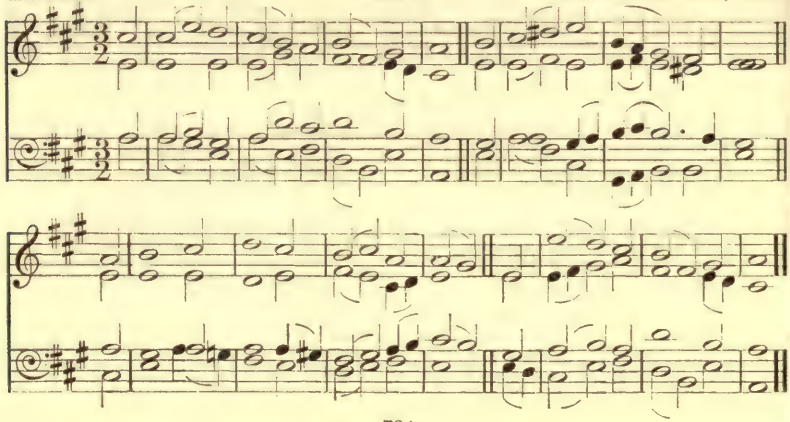
4 For all the gods are idols dumb
Which blinded nations fear ;
But our God is the Lord, by Whom
The heavens created were.

mf 5 Great honour is before His face,
And majesty divine ;
Strength is within His holy place,
And there doth beauty shine.

f 6 Do ye ascribe unto the Lord,
Of people every tribe,
Glory do ye unto the Lord
And mighty power ascribe. Amen.

Howard. 670 Wilson's Collection, 1825.



PSALM XCVI. 8—13.

mf GIVE ye the glory to the Lord
That to His name is due ;
Come ye into His courts, and bring
An offering with you.

2 In beauty of His holiness,
O do the Lord adore ;
d Likewise let all the earth throughout Tremble His face before.

mf 3 Among the heathen say, 'God reigns' ;
The world shall steadfastly
Be fixed from moving ; He shall judge
The people righteously.

f 4 Let heavens be glad before the Lord,
And let the earth rejoice ;
Let seas, and all that is therein,
Cry out, and make a noise.

5 Let fields rejoice, and everything
That springeth of the earth :
Then woods and every tree shall sing
With gladness and with mirth

6 Before the Lord, because He comes,
To judge the earth comes He : [ness,
He 'll judge the world with righteous-
The people faithfully.

PSALM XCVIII.

mf O SING a new song to the Lord,
For wonders He hath done :
His right hand and His holy arm
Him victory hath won.

2 The Lord God His salvation
Hath caused to be known ;
His justice in the heathen's sight
He openly hath shown.

3 He mindful of His grace and truth
To Israel's house hath been ;
And the salvation of our God
All ends of the earth have seen.

f 4 Let all the earth unto the Lord
Send forth a joyful noise ;
Lift up your voice aloud to Him,
Sing praises and rejoice.

5 With harp, with harp and voice of psalms,
Unto Jehovah sing :
With trumpets, cornets, gladly sound
Before the Lord the King.

6 Let seas and all their fulness roar,
The world, and dwellers there ;
Let floods clap hands, and let the hills
Together joy declare

7 Before the Lord, because He comes,
To judge the earth comes He :
He 'll judge the world with righteousness,
His folk with equity.

Old Hundredth. 672 Genevan Psalter, 1551.

PSALM C.

f ALL people that on earth do dwell.
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

mf 2 Know that the Lord is God indeed:
Without our aid He did us make:
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

Unis. f 3 O enter then His gates with praise;
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

Har. mf 4 For why, the Lord our God is good;
His mercy is for ever sure;
c. His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure. AMEN.

PSALM CII. 13—18.

mf THOU shalt arise, and mercy yet
Thou to Mount Sion shalt extend;
Her time for favour which was set,
Behold, is now come to an end.

2 Thy saints take pleasure in her stones;
Her very dust to them is dear.
All heathen lands and kingly thrones
On earth Thy glorious name shall fear.

f 3 God in His glory shall appear,
When Sion He builds and repairs;
d He shall regard and lend His ear Unto the needy's humble prayers.

p 4 The afflicted's prayer He will not scorn:
All times this shall be on record;
f And generations yet unborn
Shall praise and magnify the Lord.
AMEN.

PSALM CIII. 1—5.

mf O THOU my soul, bless God the Lord;
And all that in me is
Be stirrèd up His holy name
To magnify and bless.

2 Bless, O my soul, the Lord thy God,
And not forgetful be
Of all His gracious benefits
He hath bestowed on thee:

p 3 All thine iniquities Who doth Most graciously forgive;
Who thy diseases all and pains Doth heal, and thee relieve;

mf 4 Who doth redeem thy life, that thou
To death mayst not go down;
Who thee with loving-kindness doth
And tender mercies crown;

5 Who with abundance of good things
Doth satisfy thy mouth,
So that, even as the eagle's age,
Renewèd is thy youth. AMEN.

Chesbire. 675 Este's Psalter, 1592.

PSALM CIII. 8—17.

mf THE Lord our God is merciful,
And He is gracious,
Long-suffering, and slow to wrath,
In mercy plenteous.

p 2 He will not chide continually,
Nor keep His anger still;
With us He dealt not as we sinned,
Nor did requite our ill.

mf 3 For, as the heaven in its height
The earth surmounteth far,
So great to those that do Him fear
His tender mercies are.

4 As far as east is distant from
The west, so far hath He
From us removèd, in His love,
All our iniquity.

mp 5 Such pity as a father hath Unto his children dear,
Like pity shows the Lord to such
As worship Him in fear.

6 For He remembers we are dust,
And He our frame well knows.
Frail man, his days are like the grass,
As flower in field he grows;

p 7 For over it the wind doth pass,
And it away is gone;

PSALM CVI. 1—5.

mf GIVE praise and thanks unto the Lord,
For bountiful is He ; mp
His tender mercy doth endure Unto eternity.

2 God's mighty works who can express,
Or show forth all His praise ?
Blessèd are they that judgment keep,
And justly do always.

3 Remember me, Lord, with that love
Which Thou to Thine dost bear ;
With Thy salvation, O my God,

And in their joy rejoice ;
And may with Thine inheritance
Triumph with cheerful voice.

PSALM CVII. 1—9.

mf PRAISE God, for He is good: for still
His mercies lasting be.
Let God's redeemed say so, whom He
From the enemy's hand did free;

2 And gathered them out of the lands,
From north, south, east, and west.
mp They strayed in desert's pathless way,
No city found to rest.

3 For thirst and hunger in them faints
Their soul. When straits them press, c They cry unto the Lord, and He
Them frees from their distress.

mf 4 Them also in a way to walk
That right is He did guide,
That they might to a city go Wherein they might abide.

f 5 O that men to the Lord would give Praise for His goodness then,
And for His works of wonder done
Unto the sons of men!

6 For He the soul that longing is Doth fully satisfy;
With goodness He the hungry soul
Doth fill abundantly. AMEN.

PSALM CX.

mf THE Lord did say unto my Lord,
'Sit Thou at My right hand,
Until I make Thy foes a stool
Whereon Thy feet may stand.'

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send
The rod of Thy great power:
In midst of all Thine enemies
Be Thou the Governor.

3 A willing people in Thy day
Of power shall come to Thee;
In holy beauties, from morn's womb,
Thy youth like dew shall be.

f 4 The Lord Himself hath made an oath,
And will repent Him never:
'Of the order of Melchisedec
Thou art a Priest for ever.'

5 The glorious and mighty Lord,
That sits at Thy right hand,
Shall, in His day of wrath, strike through Kings that do Him withstand.

6 He shall among the heathen judge;
He shall with bodies dead
The places fill: o'er many lands
He wound shall every head.

mf 7 The brook that runneth in the way
With drink shall Him supply;
c And, for this cause, in triumph He Shall lift His head on high. AMEN.

PSALM CXI.

mf PRAISE ye the Lord: with my whole heart
I will God's praise declare,
Where the assemblies of the just
And congregations are.

2 The whole works of the Lord our God
Are great above all measure;
Sought out they are of every one
That doth therein take pleasure.

3 His work most honourable is,
Most glorious and pure,
And His untainted righteousness
For ever doth endure.

mp 4 His works most wonderful He hath Made to be thought upon;
The Lord is gracious, and He is Full of compassion.

5 He giveth meat unto all those
That truly do Him fear;
And evermore His covenant
He in His mind will bear.

f 6 He did the power of His works Unto His people show,
When He the heathen's heritage
Upon them did bestow.

7 His handyworks are truth and right;
All His commands are sure;
And, done in truth and uprightness,
They evermore endure.

8 He sent redemption to His folk;
His covenant for aye
d He did command: holy His name
p And reverend is alway.

mf 9 Wisdom's beginning is God's fear;
Good understanding they Have all that His commands fulfil.
His praise endures for aye. AMEN.

PSALM CXVI. 1–7.

mf I LOVE the Lord, because my voice
And prayers He did hear:
I, while I live, will call on Him
Who bowed to me His ear.

p 2 Of death the cords and sorrows did
About me compass round;
The pains of hell took hold on me,
I grief and trouble found;

mf 3 Upon the name of God the Lord
Then did I call, and say, mp 'Deliver Thou my soul, O Lord,

I do Thee humbly pray.'

mf 4 God merciful and righteous is,
Yea, gracious is our Lord.
God saves the meek: I was brought low,
He did me help afford.

5 O thou my soul, do thou return
Unto thy quiet rest;
For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
His bounty hath expressed. AMEN.

PSALM CXVI. 13–19.

mf I'LL of salvation take the cup,
On God's name will I call:
I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
Before His people all.

p Dear in God's sight is His saints' death.
Thy servant, Lord, am I;
Thy servant sure, Thine handmaid's son:
My bands Thou didst untie.

mf 2 Thank-offerings I to Thee will give,
And on God's name will call:
I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
Before His people all,

PSALM CXVIII. 19—29.

mf O SET ye open unto me
The gates of righteousness ;
Then will I enter into them,
And I the Lord will bless.

2 This is the gate of God, by it
The just shall enter in.
Thee will I praise, for Thou me
And hast my safety been. [heard'st,

3 That stone is made head corner-stone
Which builders did despise :
This is the doing of the Lord,
And wondrous in our eyes.

f 4 This is the day God made ; in it
We 'll joy triumphantly :
Save now, I pray Thee, Lord ; I pray,
Send now prosperity.

5 Blessèd is He in God's great name
That cometh us to save :
We, from the house which to the Lord Pertains, you blessèd have.

mf 6 God is the Lord, Who unto us
Hath made light to arise :
Bind ye unto the altar's horns
With cords the sacrifice.

f 7 Thou art my God, I 'll Thee exalt ;
My God, I will Thee praise.
Give thanks to God, for He is good :
His mercy lasts always. Amen.

PSALM CXIX. 9—16.

mf BY what means shall a young man
His way to purify? [learn mp If he according to Thy word Thereto attentive be.
p Unfeignedly Thee have I sought
With all my soul and heart:
O let me not from the right path
Of Thy commands depart.
mp 2 Thy word I in my heart have hid,
That I offend not Thee.
O Lord, Thou ever blessèd art:
Thy statutes teach Thou me.
The judgments of Thy mouth each one
My lips declared have;
More joy Thy testimonies' way
Than riches all me gave.
mf 3 I will Thy holy precepts make My meditation;
And carefully I 'll have respect
Unto Thy ways each one.
Upon Thy statutes my delight
Shall constantly be set;
And, by Thy grace, I never will Thy holy word forget. AMEN.

PSALM CXIX. 33—40.

mf TEACH me, O Lord, the perfect way
Of Thy precepts divine,
And to observe it to the end
I shall my heart incline.
2 Give understanding unto me:
So keep Thy law shall I;
Yea, even with my whole heart I shall Observe it carefully.
3 In Thy law's path make me to go,
For I delight therein;
My heart unto Thy testimonies,
And not to greed, incline.
4 Turn Thou away my sight and eyes
From viewing vanity;
And in Thy good and holy way
Be pleased to quicken me.
5 Confirm to me Thy gracious word,
Which I did gladly hear,
Even to Thy servant, Lord, who is Devoted to Thy fear.
6 Turn Thou away my feared reproach;
For good Thy judgments be.
Lo, for Thy precepts I have longed;
In Thy truth quicken me. AMEN.

PSALM CXXI.

mf I TO the hills will lift mine eyes:
From whence doth come mine aid?
My safety cometh from the Lord,
Who heaven and earth hath made.

mp 2 Thy foot He 'll not let slide, nor will He slumber That thee keeps.
Behold, He That keeps Israel,
He slumbers not, nor sleeps.

mf 3 The Lord thee keeps; the Lord thy
On thy right hand doth stay: [shade

PSALM CXXII.

mf I JOYED when 'To the house of God
Go up,' they said to me:
Jerusalem, within thy gates
Our feet shall standing be.

2 Jerusalem, as a city, is Compactly built together:
Unto that place the tribes go up,
The tribes of God go thither,—

3 To Israel's testimony, there
To God's name thanks to pay:
For thrones of judgment, even the thrones
Of David's house, there stay.

mp 4 Pray that Jerusalem may have Peace and felicity:
Let them that love thee and thy peace
Have still prosperity.

mf 5 Therefore I wish that peace may still Within thy walls remain ;
And ever may thy palaces Prosperity retain.

6 Now, for my friends' and brethren's sakes,
'Peace be in thee,' I 'll say ;
And for the house of God our Lord
I 'll seek thy good alway. AMEN.

PSALM CXXIV.

mf NOW Israël
May say, and that truly :— mp If that the Lord
Had not our cause maintained,
If that the Lord
Had not our right sustained,
When cruel men
Against us furiously
Rose up in wrath,
To make of us their prey,

p 2 Then certainly
They had devoured us all,
And swallowed quick,
For ought that we could deem ;
c Such was their rage,
As we might well esteem ;
mf And, as fierce floods Unis. ff
Before them all things drown, d So had they brought
Our soul to death quite down.

mf 3 The raging streams,
With their proud swelling waves,
Had then our soul
O'erwhelmèd in the deep.
c But blessed be God,
Who doth us safely keep,
f And hath not given Us for a living prey
Unto their teeth
And bloody cruelty.

mf 4 Even as a bird
Out of the fowler's snare
c Escapes away,
f So is our soul set free :
Broke are their nets,
And thus escapèd we.
Therefore our help
Is in the Lord's great name,
Who heaven and earth
rall By His great power did frame.
AMEN.

PSALM CXXV.

mf THEY in the Lord that firmly trust
Shall be like Sion hill,
Which at no time can be removed,
But standeth ever still.

2 As round about Jerusalem
The mountains stand alway,
The Lord His folk doth compass so
From henceforth and for aye.

3 For ill men's rod upon the lot
Of just men shall not lie, Lest righteous men stretch forth their Unto iniquity. [hands

4 Do Thou to all those that be good Thy goodness, Lord, impart;
And do Thou good to those that are Upright within their heart.

After their crooked way,
God shall lead forth with wicked men:
On Israel peace shall stay. AMEN.

PSALM CXXVI.

mf WHEN Sion's bondage God turned back,
As men that dreamed were we:
Then filled with laughter was our mouth,
Our tongue with melody.

2 They 'mong the heathen said, 'The Lord
Great things for them hath wrought.'
The Lord hath done great things for us, Whence joy to us is brought.

p 3 As streams of water in the south,
Our bondage, Lord, recall.
c Who sow in tears, a reaping time
Of joy enjoy they shall.

mf 4 That man who, bearing precious seed,
In going forth doth mourn,
He doubtless, bringing back his sheaves,
Rejoicing shall return. AMEN.

PSALM CXXX.

p LORD, from the depths to Thee I cried.
My voice, Lord, do Thou hear:
Unto my supplication's voice
Give an attentive ear.

2 Lord, who shall stand, if Thou, O Lord, Shouldst mark iniquity?
c But yet with Thee forgiveness is,
That feared Thou mayest be.

mf 3 I wait for God; my soul doth wait;
My hope is in His word;
More than they that for morning watch,
My soul waits for the Lord;

4 I say, more than they that do watch
The morning light to see.
c Let Israël hope in the Lord,
For with Him mercies be;

f 5 And plenteous redemption
Is ever found with Him;
And from all his iniquities
He Israel shall redeem. AMEN.

PSALM CXXXIII.

mf BEHOLD, how good a thing it is,
And how becoming well,
Together such as brethren are
In unity to dwell:

2 Like precious ointment on the head,
That down the beard did flow,
Even Aaron's beard, and to the skirts
Did of his garments go;

3 As Hermon's dew, the dew that doth
On Sion hill descend:
c For there the blessing God commands,
Life that shall never end.

PSALM CXXXVI. 1—4, 23—26.

f PRAISE God, for He is kind:
His mercy lasts for aye.
Give thanks with heart and mind
To God of gods alway:
c For certainly His mercies dure
Most firm and sure eternally.

f 2 The Lord of lords praise ye,
Whose mercies still endure.
Great wonders only He Doth work by His great power:
c For certainly His mercies dure

PSALM CXLIII. 1, 6–8.

mp O HEAR my prayèr, Lord,
And unto my desire
To bow Thine ear accord,
I humbly Thee require;

2 And, in Thy faithfulness,
Unto me answer make,
And, in Thy righteousness,
Upon me pity take.

3 Lo, I do stretch my hands
To Thee, my help alone;
For Thou well understand'st
All my complaint and moan:

c 4 My thirsting soul desires
And longeth after Thee,
As thirsty ground requires
With rain refreshed to be.

mf 5 Lord, let my prayer prevail,
To answer it make speed;
For, lo, my spirit doth fail:
Hide not Thy face in need;

p 6 Lest I be like to those
That do in darkness sit,
Or him that downward goes
d Into the dreadful pit.

mf 7 Because I trust in Thee,
O Lord, cause me to hear
Thy loving-kindness free
When morning doth appear:

8 Cause me to know the way
Wherein my path should be;
For why, my soul on high
I do lift up to Thee. AMEN.

PSALM CXLV. 1–7.

mf O LORD, Thou art my God and King;
Thee will I magnify and praise:
I will Thee bless, and gladly sing Unto Thy holy name always.

2 Each day I rise I will Thee bless, [end.
And praise Thy name time without Much to be praised and great God is;
His greatness none can comprehend.

3 Race shall Thy works praise unto race,
The mighty acts show done by Thee;
I will speak of the glorious grace
And honour of Thy majesty;

4 Thy wondrous works I will record:
By men the might shall be extolled
Of all Thy dreadful acts, O Lord:
And I Thy greatness will unfold.

5 They utter shall abundantly
The memory of Thy goodness great,
And shall sing praises cheerfully,
Whilst they Thy righteousness relate.

PSALM CXLV. 8–14.

mp THE Lord our God is gracious ; Compassionate is He also ;
In mercy He is plenteous,
But unto wrath and anger slow.

mf 2 Good unto all men is the Lord ;
O'er all His works His mercy is.
Thy works all praise to Thee afford :
Thy saints, O Lord, Thy name shall bless.

f 3 The glory of Thy kingdom show
Shall they, and of Thy power tell,
That so men's sons His deeds may know,
His kingdom's grace that doth excel.

4 Thy kingdom hath none end at all ;
It doth through ages all remain.
p The Lord upholdeth all that fall,

PSALM CXLV. 17–21.

mf THE Lord is just in His ways all,
And holy in His works each one.
He 's near to all that on Him call,
Who call in truth on Him alone.

2 God will the just desire fulfil
Of such as do Him fear and dread :
Their cry regard and hear He will,
And save them in the time of need.

3 The Lord preserves all, more and less,
That bear to Him a loving heart ;
p But workers all of wickedness
Destroy will He, and clean subvert.

PSALM CXLVI. 5—10.

mf O HAPPY is that man and blest Whom Jacob's God doth aid ;
Whose hope upon the Lord doth rest,
And on his God is stayed,—

2 Who made the earth and heavens high,
Who made the swelling deep,
And all that is within the same ;
Who truth doth ever keep ;

3 Who righteous judgment executes
For those oppressed that be ;
Who to the hungry giveth food ;
God sets the prisoners free.

mp 4 The Lord doth give the blind their sight,
The bowèd down doth raise :
The Lord doth dearly love all those
That walk in upright ways.

5 The stranger's shield, the widow's stay,
The orphan's help, is He :
c But yet by Him the wicked's way Turned upside down shall be.

f 6 The Lord shall reign for evermore :
Thy God, O Sion, He
Reigns to all generations.
Praise to the Lord give ye. AMEN.

PSALM CXLVII. 1—5

f PRAISE ye the Lord ; for it is good mf 2 God doth build up Jerusalem ;

And He it is alone
That the dispersed of Israël

PSALM CXLVIII.

f THE Lord of heaven confess ;
On high His glory raise :
Him let all angels bless,
Him all His armies praise :
Him glorify,
Sun, moon, and stars,
Ye higher spheres,
And cloudy sky.

2 From God your beings are ;
Him therefore famous make ;
You all created were
When He the word but spake ;
And from that place
Where fixed you be
By His decree
You cannot pass.

3 Praise God from earth below,
Ye dragons and ye deeps ;
Fire, hail, clouds, wind, and snow,
Whom in command He keeps.
Praise ye His name,
Hills great and small,
Trees low and tall,
Beasts wild and tame,

4 All things that creep or fly.
Ye kings, ye vulgar throng,
All princes, mean or high,
Both men and virgins young,
Even young and old,
Exalt His name :
For much His fame
Should be extolled.

ff 5 O let God's name be praised Above both earth and sky ;
For He His saints hath raised,
And set their horn on high,
Even those that be
Of Israel's race,
Near to His grace.
The Lord praise ye. AMEN.

The Ten Commandments, with Responses.*

GOD spake all these words, saying,—I am the Lord thy God, Which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.

Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

II.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

III.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

IV.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

V.

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

VI.

Thou shalt not kill.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

VII.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

VIII.

Thou shalt not steal.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

IX.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

X.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these Thy laws in our hearts, we beseech Thee.

Beatitudes, with Responses.*

BLESSED are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Grant us this grace, we beseech Thee, O Lord.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Grant us this grace, we beseech Thee, O Lord.

* The Beatitudes to be read by the Minister: the Responses to be sung by Choir and Congregation.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Grant us this grace, we beseech Thee, O Lord.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Grant us this grace, we beseech Thee, O Lord.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Grant us this grace, we beseech Thee, O Lord.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Grant us this grace, we beseech Thee, O Lord.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Grant us this grace, we beseech Thee, O Lord.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Write these words in our hearts, we beseech Thee, O Lord.
